Baker-Linked Office Resignation Sought

Federal take-over of the Redwood National Bank in San Rafael was threatened yesterday in the wake of testimony before the Senate Rules Committee in Washington, D.C., regarding Bobby Baker and the granting of the bank's charter in 1962.

Bank officials remained mum today, although directors met in a special session yesterday to discuss the crisis

Bank President Byron W. Leydecker said the "bank has no statement to make today but will have a statement tomorrow morning."

Comptroller of the Currency James J. Saxon told Senate investigators in Washington yesterday that he is considering possible criminal action against officers of the Redwood Bank involved in a $5,000 payment.

Saxon has demanded the immediate resignation of any director or officers of the bank connected with the payment, according to Erwin Knoll of Advance News Service in Washington.

BANK IS SOUND

If the resignations are not submitted within 24 hours, Saxon said his office will take over administration of the San Rafael bank. Saxon added that financially, Redwood National Bank is sound.

Saxon appeared before the Senate Rules Committee a day after the committee heard testimony about the payment to Wayne L. Bromley, a registered lobbyist for the National Coal Policy Conference.

A check to Bromley on March 4, 1963, written by Redwood Bank's legal adviser, Roderick P. Martinelli of San Rafael, was cashed at the Senate Disbursing Office by former Senate Majority Secretary Robert G. (Bobby) Baker, the committee was told.

NO TESTIMONY

Bromley, whose name had figured previously in the 14-month-old Bobby Baker investigation, invoked the Fifth Amendment two dozen times on Tuesday in refusing to answer the committee's questions about the transaction.

A Washington management consultant, Maurice Hughett, told the Rules Committee Tuesday that he had acted as a go-between in arranging for Bromley to represent the Redwood National Bank.

Hughett said his nephew told him that there were delays in the bank's application for a national charter. Hughett suggested that Bromley might be helpful. The charter was approved "very shortly" after Bromley was retained, Hughett testified.

Saxon told the committee that his records show there was no intervention by Baker or Bromley in the bank's application for a charter.

The only legal fee reported by the bank in connection with its charter application was a payment of $5,434.80 to Martinelli's law firm, said Saxon. He noted that this is considered "a reasonable fee." Total expenses reported in the charter application were about $20,000.

Saxon said all applicants for national bank charters are advised that they do not need to

County's Tax Office Is Open Late Tonight

Midnight tonight is the deadline for paying the first installment of property taxes and the county tax collector's office was braced today for the rush.

County Treasurer-Tax Collector Stanley J. Fontez said that as of Monday night $8,853,296 was collected, less than half the 18.5 million dollars to be collected in the first installment.

Fontez said his office will be open until 9 p.m. today to accept payments. The office also will accept payments postmarked Dec. 10 without penalty, he said.

Failure to pay by the deadline will result in a six per cent penalty, he said.

Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. this morning subitted in a check for $688,806.42 as the utility's first installment payment. Fontez said the check from the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. will also be more than half a million dollars.

The tax bill covers the county tax, school taxes, special district and city taxes, the entire property tax burden, he said.

The total tax bill is $34,549,796 with the second installment due April 10, Fontaz said.

He reminded property owners that failure to get a bill does not relieve them of the responsibility of paying the tax.

Hearing Is Off To '65 For Baker

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate's stormy Bobby Baker hearings have been closed down until next year after agreement was reached to call former White House aid Walter Jenkins for questioning.

The committee also decided—by split vote—that the "party girl" issue that has bobbed up in the Baker probe required no further investigation.

Jenkins resigned in the midst of the presidential campaign after disclosure he twice had been arrested on morals charges. His resignation was requested by President Johnson, with whom he had been closely associated for 25 years.

The Senate Rules Committee announced no date for questioning Jenkins as part of its probe into the outside business and financial dealings of Baker, former secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority.

Sen. B. Everett Jordan (D-N.C.), the committee chairman, said he would issue a statement later on decisions taken at a closed meeting yesterday that lasted for four hours.

Disclosure that Jenkins would be called for questioning came from Sen. John Sherman Cooper (R-Ky), at the start of a public hearing following the closed meeting of the committee.

Cooper said he felt compelled to reveal the committee's decisions since he had been informed that Jordan had told newsmen he thought the Kentucky senator was "happy" about what had taken place at the meeting.

Jordan said in reply he had not intended to infer that Cooper had agreed with the actions taken by the committee's Democratic majority.

Cooper said the committee decalling Jenkins, he had not been in agreement with the committee's major decisions and, in fairness to him and other GOP

AUTO HITS, KILLS MOTHER ON ROAD

Son Seeks Help For Car Trouble, Returns To Find Death—Then Husband Arrives

Jerry Boyce, 17, of Santa Venetia, was walking along the shoulder of Highway 101 near Novato yesterday afternoon when he saw a commotion in the divider strip of the highway.

At first he thought a deer had been hit, but moments later he discovered the body in the center strip was that of his mother.

He had just telephoned home for help because of auto trouble, and soon his unsuspecting father drove by, only to receive the same shock.

Ella Marie Boyce, 47, of 405 Adrian Way, was struck down by an auto driven by William D. Luff, 26, of Petaluma, as she ran across the highway north of Entrada Drive.

The death was the 40th this year on Marin streets and highways, compared to 30 last year at this time.

Luff, a house painter on his way home from a job in Terra Linda about 4:20 p.m., said he had no chance to avoid the woman, although he jammed on the car brakes, skidding around and ending up in the divider strip beyond the body.

The woman ran across the highway and was in the middle lane before Luff noticed her, he told the California Highway Patrol. "She turned and looked at the car and froze in her tracks," he added.

Her son was taken by ambulance to Novato General Hospital and treated for shock.

He told the highway patrol he and his mother were on their way to Sonoma to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hayden, when they heard a strange noise in the rear end of the car. The youth walked back down the highway to a service station to call home for help, and had started back when the accident occurred.

Mrs. Boyce is survived by her husband, Hugh, an electrical contractor; three other sons,

Charges Dismissed Against 19 Rights Slaying Suspects

HENRY RASK
Says he got confession

HORACE BARNETTE
Confession called hearsay

'Confession' Not Allowed As Evidence

MERIDIAN, Miss. (UPI) —Nineteen white Mississippians arrested in the deaths of three civil rights workers were freed today at a preliminary hearing on the charges by a U. S. commissioner who refused to admit an alleged confession.

A Justice Department attorney promptly announced that a federal grand jury scheduled to meet in February would be asked to indict the 19 men who were picked up last week in a series of FBI raids.

TO REST CASE

Robert Owen, the Jusitce Department attorney, said that if U.S. Commissioner Esther Carter would not reconsider her decision barring the confession he would rest the case.

Miss Carter conducted a preliminary hearing into the case to determine if there was sufficient evidence to continue the charges against the 19 men.

Two other men picked up by the FBI face hearings in other cities.

After Owen announced the government would produce no other evidence, defense attorneys immediately moved to have the charges dismissed.

' NO EVIDENCE'

"In effect, I will sustain your motion," Miss Carter said. "I would have to release the men anyway because the government has presented no evidence."

Miss Carter had refused to allow FBI Agent Henry Rask of Atlanta to testify about an alleged confession he said he took from Horace Doyle Barnette, one of the 21 persons arrested in connection with the slayings last summer.

After a noon recess, Owen told Miss Carter, "In view of your ruling and the fact that we had prepared to use the agent's testimony . . . we will produce no more evidence."

Miss Carter had ruled that the agent's testimony would be

Driver Course Action Based On Economics

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "Possible economic repercussions" caused the California State Board of Education to return to committee today proposed legislation taking driver education and training instruction out of regular secondary school hours.

The board, considering proposals of major legislative revisions in the field of driver education, also is studying a recommendation that driver education be compulsory for issuance of a California operator's license.

State educational and financial experts testified that taking such courses out of regular school hours and making them part of an adult education program would mean—under existing legislation — that schools might not be reimbursed with state funds for the services.

Driver education classroom work under state law is mandatory in the public schools, but driver training — behind the wheel experience — is not.

Dr. Ronald Cox, associate state superintendent of public instruction, explained that schools now use general state

Revitalized Bus Service Envisioned For Commuters

His trip over, he places the plastic card in a computer which calculates his fare and, if necessary, makes change.

The futuristic scheme is not something out of the twilight zone of transportation, employing jetliners or rocketships. Rather, it is a proposal for the future of bus commutation.

The unique plan was unveiled yesterday before the Illinois Commerce Commission along with a petition for new bus routes in Peoria, Ill. It is a joint venture of the Peoria City lines, Inc., and the University of Illinois.

The plan envisions not only revitalized bus service in Peoria but perhaps a whole new frontier for bus riders the world around. Several cities in the

Pay Raise Sought By College Faculty

Teachers at the College of Marin have decided to ask for a 13 per cent across-the-board pay hike next year.

A committee of teachers will present the request at a meeting of the trustees of the Marin Junior College District at 8 p.m. tonight.

The teachers also want the district to pay part of the cost of medical care insurance for teachers and to hire new teachers at higher salaries than is now allowed by the district's policy.

According to history instructor Robert Becklund, head of the salary committee for the faculty, the pay increase is needed to allow the college to remain "competitive" with other junior colleges and with high school districts.

"We're not getting the bright Phds.," added William H. Scalapino, faculty president.

The committee has compiled figures on salaries and financing for junior colleges throughout the state, and has found Marin's to be in the bottom third.

A 4.6 per cent increase next year will merely allow the college to remain where it is in the rankings, he contended. The additional increase would bring the pay scale up enough to be able to attract top new teachers.

Becklund said it is important that salaries be increased quickly because of the major growth expected in the district's operation, especially the development of a second campus near Novato.

He said that the persons hired in the next five years will be the nucleus of the faculty for the next 25, and that this first group will determine whether the entire staff is mediocre or superior.

College President Stephen E. Epler said today that the col-

Bids Opened On San Rafael Exit

Ghilotti Brothers, Inc., of San Rafael submitted the lowest of three bids for construction of the first phase of a new entrance to San Rafael on Highway 101 at Second and Irwin streets, it was announced today in Sacramento.

Bids were submitted by Ghilotti, $483,624.09; O. C. Jones and Sons of Berkeley, $536,140.40, and E. A. Forde Co. of San Anselmo, $600,146.30.

Bids were opened late yesterday by the State Division of Highways. The contract is expected to be awarded before the end of this month.

Construction can begin immediately after the contract is awarded by the division of highways but bad weather may postpone the starting date, the division said.

They Try To Beat Saigon Draft—More Men Needed

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP)—Two young Vietnamese sat in a coffee shop on Saigon's Le Loi Boulevard this week comparing notes on how they had evaded the horrors of war.

Both are 21 years old. Both come from good families. Both wore the tight-fitting tapered slacks that are the rage here now, and both sported ducktail haircuts.

"They almost got me," one laughed. "I got as far as the Quang Trung induction center, but I never made it through the physical. A friend had told me how you can rub metal powder into your chest and it shows up in the X-rays. It looks just like tuberculosis."

"I wasn't so lucky," the youth's companion said. "I was sworn in and all, but last month they were grabbing so many people there just wasn't room for all of us at Quang Trung. After a couple days of starvation they sent me home and told me to wait. I'll wait al lright—about 50 years. I figure I can hide out in Dalat or some place."

At an office in a big military compound in another part of town a 38-year-old captain stared listlessly out of his window at the sun-scorched street below.

"Ah, how much I would give to get out of this," he said. "I suppose I'm lucky I don't have to fight, and in the last year I have been promoted twice, but I'm sick of it all the same. For the enlisted men it's only three years, if they're lucky. But for the officers it's forever. Once they get you as an officer you never get out until the end of the war or until you're too old to work. As for the war, my children will be fighting it and their children too."

The sun also was beating down on a grimy yellow stucco building about 30 miles south of Saigon. The concrete supports under the building left a space of about three feet between the floor beams and the ground and about 40 troops were camped in this space. It afforded protection from the sun and rain if not from the rats.

The building had been taken over as a headquarters for a unit involved in pacifying the Mekong River delta. It was siesta time and hammocks were strung under the building, in the building and from trees all around.

In a cubicle in the building an officer was dozing on a cot, a cloud of mosquitoes droning over his head. A U.S. adviser strode in, his face hard with irritation.

"I realize you need your beauty sleep, lientenant," the American said, "but we have some fire missions coming up this afternoon and those guns need to be moved. Let's go, huh?"

The Vietnamese stirred, "Oh I'm sorry but I go My Tho this afternoon. Capt. Thanh said OK I go."

"I know many pretty girls in My Tho but we gotta war to fight. Can's you go tomorrow?" the American asked.

The lientenant smiled and shrugged and the American knew he would have to find someone else to take care of the guns.

War in South Vietnam is like that. War is also a mob of soldiers with fire in their eyes storming a line of Viet Cong bunkers, fighting and dying with courage that would be a credit to any army.

But it is a long war and the times for courage are rare. The main thing is just to last it out, somehow, without getting killed.

It is hard to measure the morale of the South Vietnamese fighting forces and the fighting spirit of the people who support them. Morale never seems to be so low that soldiers just stop fighting. But morale never seems to be high enough to satisfy American standards of what is necessary to win.

Since Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh seized power as premier last Jan. 30 a lot of things have been done to boost the welfare of the 615,000 fighting men under his command. The draft was stepped up to get replacements for exhausted line veterans. Last year the draft practically stopped. Last month 12,000 recruits were hauled into induction centers.

Salaries were increased for all ranks of all services. Now a private with two children earns the equivalent of nearly $30 a month and a major general about $259. Promotion and decoration policies were liberalized.

Life was also made a little easier for the quarter million men in the "paramilitary forces" — the regional militiamen who have been carrying the brunt of the war—and the casualties—against the Viet Cong for the past four years.

Vietnamese soldiers are not issued food and they must buy or steal and prepare everything they eat. The money issued for buying food became a little freer this year.

But despite these benefits the war has not been going any better. The armed forces wreck one Viet Cong unit after another but the enemy keeps growing in strength and continues to sap the blood and energy of the troops.

And in a continuous undertone the enemy keeps preaching peace to the soldiers. For example, weeping old women walk into a Saigon hospital to talk to wounded soldiers, telling them how the National Liberation Front—Viet Cong—only seeks peace for the nation and an end of 20 years of bloodshed. Some of the men listen before the old women are arrested.

It is a hard, frustrating life. Desertions from the regular army average about six per 1,000 men per month. Police currently are looking for about 8,000 deserters but punishment for desertion is only a few months in jail and then reinstatement in the army.

Viet Cong forces of all types, whose numerical strength has been rocketing during the past four years despite heavy battle losses, now number up to 114,000. This gives the government a six-to-one numerical edge, but experts on guerrilla warfare from Malaya and elsewhere maintain the government must have an edge of 10 to 15 regular troops for every guerrilla to start winning.

High Style Is Out For Inauguration

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The inauguration of President Lyndon B. Johnson is going to be a relatively informal affair—at least from the standpoint of what to wear.

The chief executive plans to wear a plain black business suit instead of the traditional cutaway and striped trousers for the Jan. 20 ceremonies.

The White House said last night that Johnson would carry the informal note to the inaugural ball that night by wearing a tuxedo instead of the usual white tie and tails.

No particular reason was given for the change. It has been the custom for many years for the president to wear the formal morning coat for the inauguration. A top hat usually goes with this outfit, though former President Dwight D. Eisenhower decided on a homburg in 1953 and 1957.

Six More Yanks Die In Vietnam Fighting

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP)—Six Americans have died during the past two days of hard fighting in South Vietnam as the Communist Viet Cong intensify their effort to overrun the country. Another American is missing.

South Vietnamese military officials believe the Viet Cong has launched its winter-spring offensive. Beginning last weekend, Communists attacks increased sharply.

Communist raids and ambushes at scattered points in mountainous central Vietnam aroused belief that the Viet Cong hopes to drive government forces from that area adjacent to Communist North Vietnam.

A U.S. Army officer killed yesterday in a battle to retake a hill raised to 232 the number of Americans who have died in combat in South Vietnam since December 1961.

A U.S. spokesman said an American enlisted man and an Australian officer were wounded in the same battle about 350 miles northeast of Saigon.

King Pledges $54,600 Prize To Aid Civil Rights Cause

OSLO, Norway (UPI) — Rev. Martin Luther King today received the $54,600 Nobel peace prize for 1964 — an award he pledged to contribute to the cause of civil rights in the United States.

"I accept this award today with an abiding faith in America and an audacious faith in the future of mankind," the Negro clergyman said.

"I refuse to accept despair as the final response to the ambiguities of history."

The check and a diploma emblematic of the prize were presented to King by Gunnar Jahn, chairman of the Norwegian Nobel Committee, at a ceremony at Oslo University.

King is the third Negro in history to receive the award. He was cited for "non-violent" leadership of the civil rights movement.

MARTIN LUTHER KING
Faith in mankind

"Martin Luther King's name will endure for the way he has waged his struggle, personifying in his conduct the words that were spoken to mankind: 'Whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also,'" Jahn said in his presentation remarks.

"Martin Luther King's unarmed struggle has been waged in his own country. Its result has been that an obdurate, centuries-old and traditional conflict is now nearing its solution."

"Sooner or later all the people of the world will have to discover a way to live in peace," King said.

"If this is to be achieved, man must evolve for all human conflict a method which repects revenge, aggression and retaliation.

"The torturous road which has led from Montgomery, Ala., to Oslo bears witness to this truth.

"This is a road over which millions of Negroes are traveling to find a new sense of dignity."

"It has led to a new civil rights bill and it will, I am convinced, be widened and lengthened into a superhighway of justice as Negro and white men in increasing numbers create alliances to overcome their common problems.

"I refuse to accept the cynical notion that nation after nation must spiral down a militaristic stairway into the hell of nuclear destruction."

Red Czech Praised

Atomic Power Water Saving Is Predicted

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Nuclear power to energize pumps would save 1.5 billion dollars in the cost of State Water Project service for Southern California duringt he next 75 years, William E. Warne predicts.

The director of state water resources said yesterday that his estimate was calculated by comparing nuclear power costs with the estimates of energy costs which the state used in negotiating with 14 water service contractors.

These contractors are located in Los Angeles, Ventura, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, San Diego and Imperial counties.

For the project's largest contractor, Metropolitan Water District, the savings for the life of the contract would be 1.25 billion dollars, Warne said in addressing the MWD directorate.

LeMay To Manila

MANILA (UPI)—Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, U.S. Air Force chief of staff, flew into Manila today on the last stop of a Far Eastern tour.

Mother, 26, Admits Drowning Children

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Mrs. Marjorie Spruance, 26, daughter-in-law of world famous artist Benton Spruance, was to be arraigned today on homicide charges in the bathtub drowning of her two children.

Homicide Lt. Charles Lockhart said Mrs. Spruance signed a statement in which she admitted she held the heads of her daughter Stephanie, 6, and her 3-year-old son, Benton II, under water yesterday until they stopped struggling.

Mrs. Spruance then got two presents she had purchased for her daughter's sixth birthday tomorrow, drove to a Germantown store and returned them for cash, police said. She returned to her home and telephoned a neighbor that Stephanie's birthday party had been canceled because she had killed her.

The tall, blonde mother, who had been undergoing psychiatric treatment since September, could give no reason for her actions, police said.

Conrad Sets Flight

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (UPI)—Max Conrad, 61-year-old "flying grandfather," said yesterday he will take off for New Orleans on Saturday in his Piper Twin Comanche. The plane was the third of its kind to come off the production line, he said.

Death Sentence Is Recommended

SAN DIEGO (AP) — A Superior Court jury recommended the death sentence yesterday for Robert Goedecke, 18, found guilty of the knife and bludgeon slaying of his father last Aug. 15.

Goedecke was also convicted of slaying his mother, brother and sister as they slept in their Chula Vista home.

The jury convicted him of first degree murder for the death of his father and second degree murder in the deaths of the other three members of his family.

Embezzle Case Figure Held Dead

A short-time Tiburon resident who returned to Houston, Tex., recently to face a charge of grand embezzlement was reported today to have died there.

She is Lillian Henrietta Kaatz, 44, of 45 Redhill Circle Drive. Marin County sheriff's officers said an acquaintance of hers telephoned from Houston early today in an attempt to notify the husband, Gilbert, of the death.

Further details were not immediately learned. Mrs. Kaatz was arrested by Marin County sheriff's officers Nov. 5 on a warrant from Harris County in Texas alleging she embezzled over $50 from one Donald Tomasco on or about Dec. 7, 1963.

She first legally resisted extradition from California to Texas, then later voluntarily traveled to Houston to face the charge, officers said.

A native of Austin, Ore., she had lived in California and Marin 11 years and was a member of the Women's Guild of the Blessed Sacrament Church, Santa Venetia.

A Requiem Mass for Mrs. Boyce is scheduled for 9:30 a.m., Saturday att he Blessed Sacrament Church, with Rosary to be recited at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael. Burial will be at Mount Olivet Cemetery, San Rafael.

BUSES

United States and abroad are watching its development.

The Peoria project, spurred by the "miserable state" of bus transportation in the United States, has the backing of the Federal Home and Housing Administration, the applicants said.

It is aimed at finding a way to reverse the trend away from urban bus patronage. The university said its research indicated that in some U.S. cities the number of bus riders has declined by 90 per cent since 1949.

Michael A. S. Blurton, a research associate at the university and the project director, said plans call for putting computer-carrying buses into operation by Jan. 15. The computers would figure the fares on the distance traveled basis for short-haul passengers and would make change.

Blurton predicted the individually calculated fares would reduce costs for short distance passengers who now pay a flat per capital rate not geared to distance. This, Blurton said, "doesn't make economic sense."

A unique feature of the proposal was door-to-door service envisioned for long distance commuters.

Boy, 3, Drowns In Pool At Motel

OAKLAND (UPI) — Arthur Lind, 3, drowned yesterday after he managed to work open the gate in a fence surrounding a motel swimming pool near his home.

The boy and his brother, Mark, 2, had apparently strayed from home, police said. Their mother, Mrs. Marliese Lind, 27, told officers Mark came back and told her "Art is in the pool with his clothes on."

De-annexation Set

Alto Sanitary District directors last night passed a resolution to publish a notice for the de-annexation of the Edna Maguire School playground. The playground and the school are now within the city limits of Mill Valley, according to director Carl O. Heynen Jr.

education funds to finance driver education.

Driver training, he added, is paid for, via the state, with funds collected as fines for moving traffic violations.

Cox said that under present legislation no funds are now available for adult education. Board member William A. Norris, legislative committee chairman from Los Angeles, told fellow members he and Cox would attempt to work out some way in which driver education and training could fall in adult education programs and still be eligible for state education funds.

Dorman L. Commons, another Los Angeles board member warned of financial repercussions if any action were immediately taken on the matter, which the board originally had intended to submit to the legislature sometime after the first week in January.

He noted that a part of the proposed legislation recommended school districts be allowed to determine whether they wanted to offer driver training. He said such a provision could not be reconciled with saying that everyone should have this training before being issued a driver's license.

Cooper said the committee cided over his protest that the "party girl" issue would be dropped. He referred specifically to FBI files obtained by the committee on Mrs. Ellen Rometsch, a West German beauty who has been linked to the Baker circle.

Cooper said he tried unsuccessfully to have a decision on this issue deferred until the two other Republican members of the committee, Sens. Carl T. Curtis of Nebraska and Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, could be present.

lege has not had difficulty filling vacant positions, except at top level jobs, so far teacher recruiting is done mainly through statewide organizations, he said.

But Becklund said that some junior colleges are now beginning to recruit actively on neighboring campuses, stealing faculty members away.

The reason for allowing a high starting salary, Becklund added, would be to allow the College of Marin to do some stealing of its own, perhaps from high school campuses. He said that some high school teachers with good experience would like to work at the college but cannot afford the pay cut.

"While we understand and appreciate the board's concern with the need for increased classroom facilities, we also submit that the faculty need is equally important," the faculty committee report on salaries says.

"Whereas the advantage to the community and the students of buildings is readily apparent, we are firm in our conviction that the quality of this college will be determined by the faculty it assembles rather than by the structures it erects."

Meeting Shifted

The Sausalito Citizens Council now meets the second Wednesday of the month, having changed from the first Monday due to the fact the Sausalito Citizens Advisory Committee studying racial imbalance in the school district meets on the first Monday. The change was reported by Carl W. Spring, council corresponding secretary.

Quorum Lacking

No meeting was held last night by the Stinson Beach County Water District board due to lack of a quorum. It was postponed to Saturday at 10 a.m. at the district office, according to Mrs. Harriet M. Greene, secretary.

Imperiale Slaying Trial Set

A 20-year-old resident of the Geyserville Indian Rancheria in Sonoma County has been held for Superior Court trial on a charge of murdering Guido Phillip Imperiale, 64, Nov. 25.

Santa Rosa Municipal Court Judge Joseph P. Murphy held young Loomis Jackson for Superior Court trial yesterday after hearing testimony from the suspect's mother and sister that Jackson had been in a fight with Imperiale, brother of Mill Valley Police Sgt. John Imperiale, Nov. 23.

Their testimony indicated the fight resulted when Jackson apparently tried to protect his retarded 17-year-old brother in their home when Imperiale, a Cloverdale ranch foreman, had allegedly tried to chase him out of the house.

hearsay because Barnette himself was not in the room. Owen told Miss Carter, "Agents' testimony is used in every district in this country. We feel this ruling is wrong."

Barnette was picked up in Shreveport, La., and his attorney, Robert J. Donovan Jr., said Barnette told him that he had not made any statements about the crime.

All of the men were free on bond but today's ruling by Miss Carter freed them on the charges and the bonds were dismissed.

Free Speech Group Backed

STANFORD (UPI) — A newly formed student organization at Stanford University is backing the Free Speech Movement at University of California.

The Graduate Coordinating Committee said yesterday it has sent telegrams to Gov. Edmund G. Brown and U. C. President Clark Kerr endorsing the FSM position.

The committee's president Ilmar Waldner said the Stanford unit will "actively support the continued efforts of students and faculty if the board of regents fails to approve the academic senate resolution to give students freedom of political action."

Titan Rocket Scores Success

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI)— The new Titan-3A rocket, key to an Air Force bid to orbit the first U.S. space station, today apparently scored its firmst success in two tries to orbit a dummy satellite.

The 124-foot booster apparently overcame troubles encountered on its maiden test flight Sept. 1 and shot its third stage and a 3,750-pound lead payload into a 17,500-mile an hour path about 115 miles above earth.

The success was an important step in an Air Force effort to develop a more powerful Tita-3 version, called the Titan-3C, to give the nation the ability to cope with any future military threat in space.

"We interpret any such arrangements as an attempt to influence our office," he said. Such attempts are regarded as "negative factors" in deciding whether a charter should be granted.

"In the Redwood case, the action of several officers and counsel appears grievous and is so being dealt with," Saxon declared.

Possible law violations, he indicated, are the failure to disclose the payment to Bromley and the attempt to use infleunce to obtain a charter.

He called it "an intolerant type of management situation" and said it "destroys confidence in the bank's direction and management."

The Redwood National Bank is financially sound, Saxon noted, but "no amount of capital will substitute for integrity."

Bank president Leydecker called his directors into session yesterday, as federal examiners moved in to investigate yesterday morning.

Leydecker said he was not with the bank until after the transaction involving the $5,000 check. After an all-day session with the directors, Leydecker said he had relayed Saxon's message to the directors. Beyond that, he had no comment.

Reserve Merger Probe Wanted

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A top congressional leader on military affairs demanded today that a full review be made by Congress of a plan to merge many reserve and national guard outfits.

Rep. F. Edward Hebert (D-La.), chairman of the House armed services subcommittee on reserve and national guard affairs, said he had heard nothing official about a merger but "if there is any substance to this I am very much concerned."

Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara is reported prepared to give his approval to a consolidation program which would scrap 21 of the present 29 civilian reserve divisions.

Nevada Senator Gains In Court

CARSON CITY (UPI) — The Nevada Supreme Court ruled today it was without jurisdiction in the disputed general election U. S. Senate contest between incumbent Democrat Howard Cannon and Lt. Gov. Paul Laxalt.

The court heard arguments from both sides, recessed briefly, and then delivered a unanimous oral opinion.

OBITUARIES

C. McIntosh, Long-Time Novatan Dies

A long time Novato resident and volunteer fireman, Charles H. (Curly) McIntosh, 91, of 1195 Simmons Lane, Novato, died yesterday in a local hospital after a long illness.

He was born Dec. 25, 1872, in Haliburton, Ontario, Canada. He came to this country in 1920 and settled at the end of Simmons Lane, Novato. Part of his property became the Marin County Corporation Yard. He worked as foreman of the road crew for Marin County for many years, retiring when he was 70 years old. He also operated a discing and plowing service in Novato for many years.

He was one of the original volunteer firemen of Novato, but had been on the inactive list for many years.

He was a member of the Shrine while living in Alaska prior to coming to Novato and was master of Masonic Lodge No. 46 in Whitehorse, Alaska.

He is survived by his wife, Amanda, of the home; a sister, Mrs. Anthony Elston of Haliburton and three brothers in Australia.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m., Saturday at the Red-Chapel Funeral Home, Novato. Interment will be in Marin Memorial Gardens in Novato.

JOSEPH RYAN

Joseph J. Ryan, owner and operator of the Valley Mercantile in Tamalpais Valley until the grocery's closing about two years ago, died yesterday at his home following a long illness.

Ryan, 64, had lived in Tamalpais Valley 29 years, last residing at 507 Northern Avenue, At. 1. He operated the store for 19 years.

His store was in the path of the Coyote Creek Flood Control Project and for this reason Ryan closed it. He was a veteran of World War I and had lived 34 years in California.

He is survived by his wife, Eula V. Ryan, and a son, John L. Ryan of Stateline, El Dorado County.

Ryan was a native of New York.

Requiem mass will be celebrated for Ryan at 9:30 tomorrow at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, Mill Valley. Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. today at Russell and Gooch Mortuary. Interment will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery, San Rafael.

TED GARRETT

Ted Garrett, 57, of 73 Orchard Way, Novato, died today in a local hospital of an apparent heart attack.

He was born July 20, 1907 in Redwood City. He served in the Navy for 31 years, retiring as a warrant officer. He has been a medical technician at the San Quentin Prison Hospital for the past three and a half years.

He was a member of the Fleet Reserve Assn.

He is survived by his wife, Georgia V. Garrett and two sons, Michael and Dennis of the home; a stepson, S/Sgt. John E. Tatum of the Air Force stationed in Alabama; three sisters, Mrs. Mae McKillop of Diamond Springs, El Dorado County, Mrs. Sue Pace of El Dorado Springs, Mo., and Mrs. Bobbie Spencer of Los Gatos and two brothers, Francis Garrett of Carmichael and Charles A. Garrett of Alameda.

Funeral services will be held at 12 noon Monday at the Chapel of Marin in Novato. Interment will be at Golden Gate National Cemetery in San Bruno.

OLITA FERRARI

Olita (Ollie) Aurora Ferrari, 45, of Auburn, Placer County, a native of San Anselmo who lived in Marin County until five years ago, died Monday in a Sacramento hospital after a long illness.

She was a member of the Native Daughters of the Golden West and a former employee of the American Trust Company in San Anselmo. She moved to Auburn in 1959.

Surviving are a brother, Albert Ferrari of San Rafael; two sisters, Mrs. Norma Weber of Citrus Heights, Sacramento County, and Mrs. Elvera Corwin of Carson City, Nev., and many nieces and nephews.

MANUEL ANGELO

Manuel Angelo, 70, a dairy worker in Marin County for 50 years, died yesterday in a hospital in Napa after a year's illness.

Angelo came to Marin from Portugal when he was 20 and spent the rest of his life working on ranches in the county. Until recently he had lived at the Marin County Farm. 1450 Lucas Valley Road.

Private funeral services were held today at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael.

MRS. BOWDITCH

Mrs. Ingersoll Bowditch, 89, mother of Mrs. Sylvia Newsom of Mill Valley, died Tuesday after an illness of several months at her home at Jamaica Plain, Mass.

Funeral was held today in Massachusetts. Her husband was a descendant of Nathaniel Bowditch who wrote "The Navigator."

JACK WATTERS

Jack Clarence Watters, 62, of Mill Valley, club attendant at Las Gallinas Golf Course and driving range in San Rafael for the past seven years, died yesterday at a local hospital following a heart attack.

Watters was admitted to the hospital at 7:20 a.m. and died at 12:10 p.m.

He was the husband of Florence K. Watters, ticket clerk at Greyhound depot in San Anselmo and ticket salesman at the box office of Sausalito's Gate Theater.

Born in Norwalk, Ohio, Watters had lived 25 years in California and 22 years in Marin County, residing at 15 Locke Lane. He was a veteran of World War II and a member of the Las Gallinas Golf Club.

He is survived by his wife and by several bothers and sisters in the eastern United States.

Funeral will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. at Russell and Gooch Mortuary, Mill Valley. Interment is pending.

Leake Says Board Ready For Tax Job

If a new State Revenue Department is to become a reality, the State Board of Equalization is available to operate it.

Paul Leake, chairman of the BOE, made this clear today. He so testified before the Assembly Government Organization Committee, meeting in Los Angeles.

Assemblyman William T. Bagley (R-San Rafael) is a member of the committee, headed by Chairman Milton Marks (R-San Francisco).

NOT BEGGING

Leake assured the legislators his Board of Equalization is not "begging for anything — we are not thirsty for more power."

Leake said the BOE proposal could save the state as much as three million dollars a year. The plan calls for integration of the Franchise Tax Board and the controller's motor transportation, motor vehicle tax and insurance tax collections with the Board of Equalization, the members of which are elected.

The proposal calls for the BOE to absorb the controller's inheritance and gift tax operations.

BITTERLY ASSAILS

Leake bitterly assailed the long time practice of controllers, who appoint part-time appraisers drawn from other than vocational ranks.

Leake recommended the substitution of civil service appraisers for the controller's appraisers who are "chosen for what they can do to win friends and gain influence for the controller."

(Assemblyman Bagley of San Rafael has been the leading exponent of abolishing the system of political appointments of inheritance tax appraisers.)

Minimum Wage Of $2 Urged

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The California AFL-CIO Executive Council, representing 1.4 million union members, wants a minimum wage of $2 an hour.

This was one of the recommendations in its 1965 legislative program, adopted yesterday after two days of conferences here.

The $2 minimum would be the highest ever sought by organized labor in California. Previously the labor federation has sought $1.50. Now the minimum is $1.25.

Cranston Denies 'Deal' To Equalization Board

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Paul Leake, chairman of the State Board of Equalization, charged today that State Controller Alan Cranston offered the board a "deal" to get its backing for his plan for a state tax commission.

Cranston, in a statement, promptly replied that Leake's statements "are wild and inaccurate, and so is his memory."

Leake, in a statement prepared for the Assembly Government Organization Committee, renewed his criticism of a plan advanced by Cranston and Gov. Edmund G. Brown to consolidate all state tax collecting in a three-man commission.

Leake said Cranston offered this "deal" to the board:

"He would ditch the three-man tax commission program he originally sponsored and support the board's proposal if the board would continue the system of appointing the appraisers."

Leake referred to the state inheritance tax appraisers, now appointed by the controller.

Cranston, in a statement, said:

"Paul Leake's statements are wild and inaccurate, and so is his memory. I offered no deal to the Board of Equalization—a fact that the other three members, John Lynch, Richard Nevins and George Reilly, will be glad to confirm."

Alert Employee Thwarts Bank Bandit's Schedule

ATLANTA (UPI)—An alert bank employee yesterday foiled the carefully laid plans of a young gunman to rob a bank for the second time and flee to Switzerland.

The bandit, Keith Donald Moore, 24, was captured at about the time a commercial airliner on which he had reservations left Atlanta. Police found on Moore a passport and an airline ticket to Pulley, Switzerland.

The gunman's plans, as pieced together from events, were to kidnap an executive of the bank, herd employees reporting for work into a back room and wait for the vault's time device to open.

The plan worked on schedule until one of the incoming bank employees, Bob Tollson, noticed something suspicious as he approached the bank, walked on past the building and notified police.

Police began arriving before the vault was scheduled to open, so the gunman grabbed a hostage and fled. A police helicopter carrying Officer Joe Collins, who gives traffic advisories to Atlanta motorists during rush hours, picked up the trail, leading to the capture.

Grandmother, 79, In Arson Case

CLOVIS (AP) — A 79-year-old grandmother was responsible for fires that destroyed three of her rental properties and damaged another over a six-year period, Clovis police said Tuesday.

Mrs. Lucy Bradshaw, of Clovis, was charged with arson in the alleged attempt to burn a house Nov. 30. Authorities reported the felony complaint was filed after an alleged accomplice's admission and evidence of arson was found at the scene.

Police Lt. Gino Pishione said Mrs. Bradshaw had received in excess of $10,000 from insurance companies, following the three earlier blazes.

SIERRA REPAIR JOB

Southern Pacific crews begin repair work today after six cars of the City of San Francisco derailed yesterday and tore up 1,300 feet of track in the Sierra, near Emigrant Gap. Despite the fantastic jumble, only one person — Mrs. Robert L. Duling, about 55, of Elyria, Ohio, died — and she apparently was stricken by a heart attack a few minutes after the accident. "This is the luckiest train I ever saw," declared an employee of another railroad who was a passenger on the Southern Pacific streamliner. Only three trainmen suffered minor injuries. (AP Wirephoto)

Three Shot In Arrest Of Check Artist

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—An alleged bad check artist who described himself as a "Machiavellian materialist" and two other men were recovering from wounds received in a bank gun battle.

Police said Patrick Simmons, 18, of Berkeley, shot it out yesterday with Police Inspector Joseph Miles and bank official William Costello at the Market and Montgomery Street branch of the Wells Fargo Bank.

None was wounded seriously. Simmons was grazed in the throat and Miles was shot in the stomach. Costello was also wounded in the stomach.

Simmons, a former Burlingame resident, was wanted in San Mateo County for violation of parole, according to police.

He told officers he was taking extension courses in philosophy and child psychology from the University of California.

"I'm a Machiavellian materialist—I'm no humanitarian," officers quoted him.

Costello said Simmons pulled a .38-caliber revolver when he was asked to lean against a filing cabinet to be searched after he tried to pass the check. He fired three times.

Costello fired as he went to the floor but police were examining the bullets to see if Simmons was hit by Costello's gun or his own.

Ike, Nixon Spell Out Burch Stand

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon have told Sen. Barry M. Goldwater that his hand-picked GOP chairman must have a mandate, not just a majority, to stay at the helm of the party.

Nixon relayed that word after a summit talk yesterday with the former president and the party's defeated nominee for the White House. The three party leaders met for an hour in Eisenhower's Waldorf Towers suite. Then Nixon and the former president talked separately.

Goldwater said the three all hope the rift between GOP moderates, some of them out to oust Republican National Chairman Dean Burch, and the party's conservative wing can be healed before the National Committee meets in Chicago Jan. 22 and 23.

The committee will decide then whether to keep Burch as chairman.

Both Eisenhower and Nixon said they told Goldwater the party needs a broadly based leadership in the months ahead.

Nixon said neither he nor Eisenhower will say or do anything publicly to influence the committee's decision.

The three GOP leaders spoke separately after their meeting while Burch waited across the hall from the Eisenhower suite. The chairman said he had wanted to be on hand in case he was needed.

Goldwater spoke to newsmen first, standing on a chair in the packed lobby of the hotel to make a statement with no questions accepted.

"We see no impossible task ahead," he said. "We feel that unity can be achieved by both sides giving in this case, and that is what the three of us dedicated ourselves to achieving in the months ahead."

Woman Premier Loses On Ballot

COLOMBO, Ceylon (AP) — Gov. Gen. William Gopallawa announced Wednesday night that Parliament would be dissolved Dec. 17 and a new legislature will be elected March 24.

Dissolution of Parliament was made necessary last Thursday by its vote of no confidence in the government of Prime Minister Sirimavo Bandaranaike, the world's only woman to head a national government. She has been in office sincee July, 1960.

Word Is Out That Johnson Against Demo Foes Purge

WASHINGTON (UPI)— Word is being passed on Capitol Hill that President Lyndon B. Johnson does not favor the proposed purge of two Southern Democratic congressmen who opposed his election.

Officially, the president hasn't said what his stand is — and he isn't likely to do so.

But key House members in a position to know are saying that he is against a move to oust from the party Reps. John Bell Williams (D-Miss.) and Albert W. Watson (D-S.C.). The two supported GOP presidential nominee Barry M. Goldwater during the election campaign.

Liberal Democrats in the House let it be known today, however, that they would press for the purge whether Johnson wants it or not. They will make their move at a party caucus Jan. 2, two days before the new 89th Congerss convenes.

Spokesmen for the liberal bloc say the votes now are assured to deprive Williams and Watson of their membership in the party caucus and — more important — their positions in the Democratic seniority scale which largely determines congressional power.

The liberals concede that any overt drive by Johnson to block the purge could shear away some of their support. But one key member of the Democratic study group, which is sponsoring the disciplinary action, said he did not believe Johnson could stop the move.

U.S. Denies Soviet Deal On Defense Budget Slash

WASHINGTON (AP)—Was there an agreement between the United States and Russia to cut down on defense spending?

"No agreement whatsoever," White House press secretary George Reedy said Wednesday after Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin announced in a Moscow speech that Russia was cutting its defense spending by 555 million dollars. He also said Washington was expected to reduce its military budget.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara has said he hopes to hold defense spending next year below 50 billion dollars—at about the level for the current fiscal year. That would be about 1.25 billion dollars below the previous fiscal year. Reedy said these figures may have been the basis of Kosygin's statement.

African Leaders Flay U.S. In U.N. Debate On Congo

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI) — The foreign minister of Mali today linked the assassination of President John F. Kennedy with the killing of Congolese leader Patrice Lumumba and the death of U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold.

Mamadou Ba, speaking in the vituperative Security Council debate in which 22 African and neutralist countries have accused the United States and Belgium of aggression in their mercy airlift to rescue hostages held by Congolese rebels, said:

"Those who with premeditation and cynicism carried out the assassination of Lumumba, who were responsible for the death of Hammarskjold, who did not hesitate to assassinate John Kennedy — those voices of war who silenced the great voice of John Kennedy, yes, they are the same forces of obscurantism."

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson stared at Ba in shocked disbelief as the African made his statement.

Foreign Minister Louis Beovogui of Guinea paralleled Ba's line.

"The assassins of Lumumba, the murderers of thousands of Balubas in North Katanga, those responsible for the death of Hammarskjold, those responsible for the blockade of Cuba and hundreds of deaths in Stanleyville cannot be trusted to keep their word in the Congo," he said.

"It was precisely the American-Belgian intervention in Stanleyville that provoked the massacres there."

Both Beovogui and Ba said the U.S.-Belgian paratroop rescue mission was only a pretext for wresting Stanleyville, the capital of Oriental provice, from rebel control. Ba charged that it was "body blow" to efforts of the Organization of African United (OAU) to settle the Congo situation on a regional basis.

"They say the whites in Stanleyville were being held hostage and their lives were in danger," Ba said. "But the American and Belgian governments have undertaken against the innocent population in Stanleyville and the surrounding areas one of the most murderous operations since the beginning of the Congo problem. . . .

"The press has spoken of the exhistence of cannibalism. Were it to have existed, it would have been nothing compared to that giant and titanic cannibalism committed by the destruction of hundreds of thousands of human beings by the mercenaries."

Joblessness Up Slightly For Marin

Payments of unemployment insurance benefits rose last month by more than a third over November, 1963, in Marin County, the state employment department reported.

Job placements were also down slightly from last year, 423 placements compared with 418 last year.

The department said that increase in jobs has not kept up with an increase in the work force in the county. The unemployment benefits payments totalled 1,082 last month, compared to 775 the previous November, and 805 in October of this year.

Student job placements were 106, compared to 153 in October and 112 in November last year.

The department also reported that 21 typists completed a 30 week course, 18 secretaries completed a 26-week course and 14 nurses completed five weeks of study last month, all under the auspices of the department.

Wrong Teacher Listed In Story

George H. Matthews of Novato, vice principal and eighth grade teacher at Neil Cummings School in Corte Madera, was not one of 21 Marin County teachers calling for freedom to organize and speak on the University of California campus as was incorrectly reported yesterday in the Independent-Journal.

It was George Matthews of Fairfax, social studies teacher at Terra Linda High School, who joined with other teachers in sending a letter to Clark Kerr, president of the University, deploring the use of non-campus police officers during recent demonstrations at the school.

The Independent-Journal regrets any embarrassment the error has caused.

U.C. Rebel Leader Carrying Cause To Other Universities

Savio Drops Out After Cal Victory

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Mario Savio, young leader of students' battle for more political freedom at the University of California at Berkeley, left San Francisco to carry the cause to other universities.

Savio, lanky philosophy student who turned 22 on Tuesday, and three other members of the Free Speech Movement's steering committee left for Ann Arbor, Mich., and New York City for university rallies and a national television show.

The general of the militant Free Speech Movement — the organization that staged four massive rallies at the university's 27,400-student Berkeley campus — expressed confidence that students will win out.

Savio said yesterday he is dropping out of school for the balance of the semester because his battle has put him hopelessly behind in his work. A junior, Savio said he planned to reenter the university next semester.

At an airport news conference, Savio dismissed claims by a state legislator and others that the FSM was Communist-inspired:

"I resent the Communist Party getting credit for the Free Speech Movement's action . . ."

He also commented on a resolution adopted Tuesday by an 824 to 115 vote of the University Academic Senate that backed the students' demands. The five-point resolution would give stuwents almost complete political freedom on-campus and place disciplinary responsibility with the faculty instead of the Berkeley administration and board of regents.

"I am inclined," Savio said, "to think that the regents will go along with the recommendations of the academic senate. But, I can't be put in the position of prejudging the board."

Regents must approve the academic senate's resolution before it becomes effective. Edward W. Carter, regents chairman, said yesterday that regents would "consider the full matter" at their Dec. 18 meeting in Los Angeles.

"It now appears," Carter said, "that on the Berkeley campus the traditional methods have proved inadequate to deal effectively with the extraordinary problem created there by regrettable incidents . . ."

Savio said the purpose of his tour was to build support for the Free Speech Movement.

FSM's position, Savio said, "is the traditionalist position in which a university is a congregation of scholars and students." One main issue in their attack, he reiterated, was against "the concept of factory education."

The FSM revolt began in mid-September when the university enforced a long-standing — but unenforced—regulation on political activities. Savio led the four massive rallies, including the Dec. 2-3 university administration building sit-in which resulted in 814 arrests.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown said yesterday that he would not intervene on behalf of students arrested. Savio had comment on this, also:

"I consider the governor's statement unfortunate. We have been building support in the legislature, however, and hope that the state's action will eventually be greatly mitigated."

AFTER VICTORY, DROPOUT—Mario Savio, 22, leader of the Free Speech Movement, pauses to smile yesterday during rally on campus to celebrate victory for political freedom. He has dropped out of school for the rest of the semester because the battle has put him behind in his classwork. (AP Wirephoto)

CALIFORNIA VOTE CAMPAIGN COSTLY

Murphy, Salinger Forces Together Spent $1.1 Million In Senate Campaign

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The Secretary of State's office reports that 1964 was an expensive year for election campaigns — for winners and losers.

Campaign receipts and expenditures for candidates in the Nov. 3 election, listed with Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan by the Dec. 8 deadline, amounted to over 3 million dollars.

Salinger listed $491,327.35 in contributions and $491,018.65 in expenditures.

Under the elections code, Jordan could not issue a certificate of election to any successul candidate whose statement of receipts and expenditures was not filed by the deadline.

In the congressional races, 62 candidates showed contributions totaling $798,965; in state assembly races, 70 candidates listed $596,859 in contributions; in state senate races, 15 candidates listed contributions of $189,558.

The secretary of state's office said the totals were not yet complete and that some statements might still be in the mails.

One of the costliest congressional campaigns was that of Republican Robert C. Cline of Canoga Park, Los Angeles County, whose supporters reported receipts of $57,609. Cline failed in his effort to unseat Democratin Congressman James C. Corman.

Another heavily financed contest was that of the 38th district of Riverside County, Republican Congressman Patrick Minor Martin, the loser, listed contributions of $32,240. Democrat John V. Tunney reported receipts of $18,539.

In the state Senate races the largest amount reported thus far was $36,373, which went into the campaign of Republican Sen. Robert J. Lagomarsino of Ventura County, who was re-elected.

In the Assembly races large amounts of Republican currency went into the districts in which the party captured seats from the Democrats.

Special Joint Rec Meeting Is Called

A special meeting of the Larkspur-Corte Madera Joint Recreation District has been called for 8 p.m. tomorrow at Larkspur-Corte Madera School, member Albert E. Kogler announced today.

Kogler, a member of the Corte Madera Town Council, was present when that city's approval of a budget for the second half of 1965 was stymied by a 2-2 vote. The town council had earlier voted to pull out of the two-city arrangement at the end of this fiscal year.

Mayors, Councilmen Unanimously Approve County-Wide Planning

The Marin County Council of Mayors and Councilmen last night voted unanimously in favor of a county-wide planning effort that would recognize the goals of both unincorporated areas and the cities.

The action came on the motion of San Rafael Mayor John F. McInnis who asked Marin County supervisors "be invited to direct their planning people to work with city planners on a staff level."

He emphasized that this should be done with "legislative support" of the city councils and the county supervisors.

"If there is any method of saving Marin County, I am convinced it will be based on this approach," McInnis said.

McInnis explained that he was not endorsing an all-powerful planning body that would make future developments follow a similar pattern throughout the county.

He said part of the charm of the county is the difference between communities. "We should certainly capitalize on those differences."

But without some coordinated effort, McInnis predicted, the county will become one mass of "wall-to-wall" housing such as can be found on the San Francisco Peninsula.

McInnis' motion for a "unified effort" on planning was promptly seconded by Cornelius van Vliet, mayor of Fairfax. The voice vote was unanimous.

As a second motion, McInnis said members of the board of supervisors should be invited to attend the council of mayors and councilmen meetings "as equals."

This was also approved unanimously.

Last night's meeting, held at the Blue Rock Inn in Larkspur, had Richard Zettler, study director of the Bay Area Transportation Study Commission, as speaker of the evening.

The evening was getting late by the time Zettler rose to talk, however, and he kept his remarks brief. He did approve of the group's stand on planning and said that many other counties of the Bay Area have already begun coordinating planning efforts.

Zettler told the group that the commission will study first the problem of moving goods and people and then talk about the modes of solving the problem.

The trouble until now has been that efforts to solve the transportation problem has always started with a mode of transportation, trying to fit it in as a solution.

He said the line between local and regional transportation problems is a thin one and the commission recognizes that much of the congestion is caused by local movements of traffic.

He further stated that the commission, with 37 members, will not be developing its recommendations in a political "vacuum."

The council of mayors and councilmen also:

1. Endorsed a forum on underground utilities slated for Feb. 4 at the San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo.
2. Accepted with regret the resignation of Robert Souza, Fairfax councilman, from his post on the Marin County Human Rights Commission. He resigned due to the press of business. A replacement is to be named at the Jan. 27 meeting.
3. Voted to study a resolution adopted by the Tiburon City Council urging solution of the boat docking problem at the Oceanographic Research Facility, formerly the Navy net depot. Tiburon Councilman Anne L. Ellinwood said the facility might move elsewhere if the problem is not solved.
4. Adopted a resolution in memory of Sausalito Councilman Carl W. Gabrielson, expressing sorrow at his unexpected death Dec. 1.

TOO MANY CHILDREN

Mother, Five Youngsters Facing Homeless Holiday

Mrs. Maxine Musick of 162 Belvedere Street, San Rafael, the mother of five youngsters, is facing a tough problem this Christmas season.

She must move from her apartment to find more reasonable rent, but search as hard as she can, she has been unable to find a landlord who will take five children.

Mrs. Musick, whose husband left her this summer, is receiving aid from the Marin County Social Services Department. She has been looking for another home in Marin for two months without success.

Anyone with any leads or suggestions should call the county social service department.

Miss Betty L. Presley, head of the department, said Mrs. Musick's problem is a typical one in the county. Welfare recipients with children have a very difficult time finding low-rent housing.

"We dont' feel that our department should be in the house hunting business," Miss Presley said. But she added that lack of reasonable housing is a serious county problem.

House Justice Probe Takes Wider Scope

WASHINGTON (AP)—A House subcommittee has decided to pursue a broad investigation next year into the administration of justice. It will examine, among other things, wiretapping, bail procedures and the press, radio and television's effect on trials and pretrial examinations.

The subcommittee, meeting yesterday, scrapped the terms of the earlier resolution that fixed the scope of its inquiry as an investigation of the Department of Justice, particularly the prosecution of Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa.

Aide De Camp

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—King Baudouin of Belgium has named Col. Charles Laurent, paratroop commander, as his aide de camp for Laurent's action in leading paratroops who freed white hostages in Stanleyville and Paulis.

Drink Called Highway Peril

ATLANTA (UPI) — The head of the California Highway Patrol said yesterday that drinking while driving is his state's No. 1 highway peril.

B. H. Crittenden, commissioner of the California Highway Patrol, spoke to some 2,000 highway officials attending the 50th annual convention of the American Assn. of Highway Officials.

Crittenden said he estimated for his state that nine out of 10 drivers on the roads after 11 p.m. had "something" to drink.

Larkspur Park Unit Approves Fill Plan

The Larkspur Park and Recreation Commission last night approved a plan presented by Street Supt. Warren Mistron setting limits to future filling of the dump area, and showing projected development of the area as a park and civic center.

The plan calls for allowing a natural area to remain near the boardwalk and also allows room for a boat harbor development.

Loan Shark Racket Plagues Waterfront

NEW YORK (UPI)—Longshoremen and pier guards steal cargo to pay off waterfront loan sharks, the State Investigation Commission was told today.

Thomas F. Jones, chief investigator for the Waterfront Commission said the loan shark racket is "a major problem on the waterfront."

He said that while loans to longshoremen usually are modest sums, the total volume of loans is "very substantial." He added that there is a standard 15 per cent interest rate in the racket.

Jones said racket bosses with large amounts of money usually make sums ranging from $1,000 to $25,000 available for an underling to establish a "book."

Jones said that with the "book" goes "a concession to operate without competition in designated areas of the port."

Jones said dock workers who fall behind in payments are encouraged to steal to pay off and that pier watchmen are encouraged to turn their backs while the thievery goes on.

Jones was one of the last witnesses heard as the commission began winding up six days of public hearings on the money-lending racket.

Fire Board Vote Joined With School

The Novato Fire District board last night approved holding an election for fire commissioner at the same time as the School Election in April.

The moard received word from Douglas J. Maloney, Marin County counsel, that the district could hold its election either at the regular time, which is the second Tuesday in April, or at the same time as the schools, which is the third Tuesday in April, according to Fire Chief George Cavallero.

"The board went for holding it at the same time as the school election because it would get more people out to vote," Cavallero said.

The term of Joseph Wright, fire commissioner, will expirfe in April, Cavallero said.

The board invited architects to submit estimates on their costs of designing a new fire station for the San Marin site.

Operation Trial Hears From FBI

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO — The jury in a federal court abortion trial yesterday learned that Dr. Robert K. Corbett told an Federal Bureau of Investigation agent that he refused to perform an abortion.

Doctor Corbett, brother of Donald Corbett who was murdered in his Sausalito apartment March 24, also reportedly told the agent that Lupe Alice Estrada had threatened to claim Doctor Corbett as the father of her child if he did not do something.

The defense was to begin presenting its case tomorrow. The jury was not expected to get the case until the middle of next week.

Yell Group Tries Drake Election Write-In Drive

Five energetic students at Sir Francis Drake High School are conducting a whirlwind campaign designed to persuade student voters to write in their names and vote for them as yell leaders.

The candidates are Kathy King, Carol Morgan, Eileen Jennings, Rich Cohen and John Boothby. Having failed to offer their candidacies by the deadline last Friday, they decided on Monday to conduct a write-in campaign such as has never previously been attemped at the school. There are four regular ballot candidates.

"Why not be right?—write in!" is one of several slogans appearing on posters, pencils with tags attached and similar gimmicks. The group conducted a noon rally yesterday to draw attention to its effort.

Dame Edith Sitwell, English Poetess Dies

LONDON (UPI) — Dame Edith Sitwell, the "first lady of English verse," whose poetry and personal eccentricities sparked literary controversy over a period of four decaeds, died last night. She was 77.

"Dame Edith died of heart failure," said Elizabeth Salter, secretary to the poetess. "Her spirit was stronger than her body."

A tall (six feet), gaunt and imposing woman, Dame Edith shunned the conventional in her behavior as well as her verse. She was wont to wear long, flowing Victorian gowns, flamboyant hats, and large rings and brooches.

Dame Edith said she was adverse to noise, and in "Who's Who" one of her recreations was listed as "silence."

Dame Edith never married, but she said, "I am never lonely."

She first startled the literary world in 1923 with a reading in London of "Facade." The poetess read the work to musical accompaniment, speaking to the audience through a mask from behind a curtain.

The performance baffled and outraged the critics. "Facade" since has become familiar and oft read, and other of Dame Edith's works have been read with musical accompaniment.

Shortly before the first World War, Dame Edith and her brothers Osbert and Sacheverell emerged prominent in London's literary and social circles.

Dame Edith's first published poem was in 1913. Her first volume of verse, "The Mother and Other Poems," appeared two years later.

Dame Edith became a focal point of the London literary world which included Virginia Wolff, William Butler Yeats, T. S. Eliot, George Bernard Shaw, and other luminaries.

Speaking of war poems such as "Still Falls the Rain" and "Lullaby," Dame Edith said, "I wrote of the world reduced to the ape as mother, teacher, protector."

In 1954 Queen Elizabeth named the poetess Dame Commander of the Order of the British Empire. In April, 1962, Dame Edith was elected a Companion of the Royal Society of Literature. Never are there more than ten living members in the Society.

Lot Split Given Approval

Sausalito planning commissioners last night approved an amended lot split to enlarge a lot of 18,375 square feet by about 12,000 square feet.

The request was made by Marin County Abstract Co. which intends to build a motel on the site which is located adjacent to Shades Inc., 3001 Bridgeway.

Commissioners continued discussion on commercial use of the city bus depot until Wednesday and acknowledged receipt of a proposed subdivision ordinance from City Engineer B. J. Whitlow, referring it to the subdivision committee for study, reported Robert L. Nissen, chairman.

Sandberg Paintings Hanging In Library

Ten oil paintings by Oke Sandbreg, formerly of Tiburon and now residing in Marshall, are on display at the Belvedere-Tiburon Branch of the Marin County Library.

The paintings depict beach and sea scenes and Yosemite National Park. They are for sale. Sandberg recently moved to Marshall to open a restaurant next to the Marshall Hotel.

Mill Valley Planners Vote Sports Car Shop Permit

Use permit for the S and A Sports Car center was approved Tuesday night by the Mill Valley Planning Commission subject to addition of sidewalks, curbs and gutters being provided as determined by the city engineer.

The center, to be established by Mrs. Annabelle Garret, will be at 507 Miller Avenue in an existing building.

Commissioners denied, pending a study, a minor subdivision and exception to Mrs. G. E. Thomas of 40 Lovell Avenue, saying subdivision would have caused two substandard lots.

Jan. 12 was set to hear zoning and subdivision ordinance revisions relative to publication and courtesy notices and the same date set to discuss amending zoning ordinance section covering penalty fees for variances for illegal non-conforming buildings. Changing the present penalty fee from about $200 to $500 will also be taken up.

The commission recommended to city council that commissioners Norman Black and John K. Robinson be reappointed for another term. Planning director Harvey Bragdon reported that the county planning commission Monday set for hearing rezoning of Fern Canyon Road from an interim zone allowing single family homes and duplexes to single family.

Driver Booked After Accident

One driver was arrested and one cited in an injury accident at 5:19 p.m., yesterday at Grant Avenue and First Street, Novato, according to Novato police.

Anthony James Valim, 35, of 648 Canyon Road, Novato, was southbound on First Street in his pickup truck when he collided with a sedan westbound on Grant Avenue, driven by Grant Rice Donnelly, 34, of Sacramento, police reported.

Valim was treated at Novato Hospital for a bump on the head and released. He was cited by Novato police for failure to yield the right of way.

Donnelly was booked into Marin County Jail for being drunk in and about an automobile, with bail set at $110, police reported.

Punch Card Plays Stool Pigeon In Bank Robbery

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Detectives credited automation today with cracking its first case. A punch card was a stool pigeon.

The case began when a man handed Floria Ferguson, a cashier in a telephone company office, this note:

"I have a gun in my belt. Don't make me use it. Give me all the bills at once. . ."

She gave him $76 in bills but, as it turned out, he gave her a bill, too. A telephone bill.

That's what the threatening note was written on. But the name of the person billed had been torn away.

That was last month. In jail today, booked on suspicion of robbery, is Arthur C. Moore. Police say Miss Ferguson identified Moore from photographs as the man who robbed her.

What led detectives to Moore's door? The telephone bill, officers said.

They explained that although the name was torn off those little punch-card holes remained.

Detectives took the bill to the telephone company computer, and, with a buzz and a whirr, it clicked out the name and address that had been torn away.

Officers picked up Moore Tuesday night.

Moore denied robbing Miss Ferguson.

Detectives said he told them: "When my wife left me, she even took the telephone. But she left me with the bill."

Union Ordered To Pay Damages

QUEBEC CITY (UPI) — The United States Steel Workers of America union has been ordered to pay nearly $2,300,000 in damages to Gaspe Copper Mines as a result of the bloody strike in 1957 at Murdochville, Quebec.

The damages were awarded yesterday by Superior Court Judge Antoine Lacourciere, who termed the seven-month long strike "illegal." It was less than half the amount asked by the mining firm.

Gaspe Copper Mines had originally instituted an action of 5.3 million dollars in damages against the union for a strike during which Quebec provincial police and strikers fought pitched battles. One man was killed when a company building was blown up by dynamite.

Larkspur Woman Injured In Crash

Matilda P. Dunn, 42 of 5 Garden Way, Larkspur, was slightly injured at 2:40 p.m. yesterday when her automobile collided head-on with one driven by Christian Schlag, 62, of 20 El Cerrito Street, San Anselmo, on College Avenue at Kent Place in Kentfield.

The California Highway Patrol reported Schlag had started a left turn into Kent Place as he was headed north on College. Mrs. Dunn recieved a cut but refused hospitalization.

Child Neurologist Will Present Address

Dr. Douglas L. Crowther, assistant professor of pediatric neurology at University of California Medical Center, San Francisco, will speak at a public meeting at Davidson Junior High School at 8 p.m. today.

The talk is being sponsored by the Marin chapter of the California Assn. for Neurologically Handicapped Children. Dr. Crowther is consulting neurologist for the Northern California School for Cerebral Palsy and Related Brain Disorders.

'Mum Society Will Install

Lt. Col. J. Paul Sibbitt of Novato will be installed as president of the Chrysanthemum Society of Marin at 7 p.m. today at Deer Park Villa, Fairfax.

Other new officers who will assume their posts are vice president Lafayette Noah of San Rafael, treasurer Homer F. Crowell of San Anselmo, and secretaries Mrs. Paul Sibbitt and Mrs. George Whitten of Novato.

Trophies will be presented to winners in the society's 15th annual show, held in October.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Viral Hepatitis Continues As Most Common Infection

VAN DELLEN

VIRAL hepatitis continues on its merry way. It is one of our oldest and most common infections, yet there is neither a specific remedy nor a preventive. The best thing we can say about this liver disorder is that virtually everyone recovers.

Encouraging reports on the disease have appeared from time to time. The West Germans are said to have a skin test to aid in diagnosis. A few years ago experiments were conducted on a vaccine but the practical aspects of this study never were solved. As a result, good hygiene and gamma globulin remain our best preventive measures.

THE CAUSATIVE virus has been isolated but the infection could not be transmitted to any animal species except man. Recently, typical hepatitis developed within 48 hours in red monkeys from West Africa after the causative micro-organism was injected.

The viruses responsible for hepatitis in humans are present in the blood and intestinal tract and can be transmitted via contaminated water, food, and milk. Poor sanitation also plays a role. The agents remain viable in the blood for more than year after the acute attack subsides.

BLOOD FROM a carrier of the virus may be infective in infinitesimally small amounts. Physicians, nurses, and dentists can develop hepatitis by accidental inoculation of infected material into scratches and other trivial wounds of the skin.

The disease also is acquired after receiving a transfusion or other blood products containing the virus (serum hepatitis). This disorder is similar to the infectious type except it develops two to six months after receiving blood or serum. This form of hepatitis is said to be more serious, possibly because most of the people needing transfusions are older and sicker.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

TAKE A WALK

F. H. writes: My husband is housebound with arthritis, which makes me nervous. A tranquilizer didn't help. A friend suggested I get a dog and daily walks with the animal would relieve my tenseness. I am 69 and take medicine for angina. Do you think these walks advisable?

REPLY

Yes, except on cold, windy days. Take it easy. A dog at your age may prove an additional responsibility.

INSULIN OR PILLS

A. A. writes: Would it be dangerous for a diabetic to switch to pills after taking insulin shots for 25 years?

REPLY

Not necessarily, as many diabetics can be changed from insulin injections to tablets. Success or failure depends upon the severity of the disease. No one ought to switch unless his physician believes it worth the try.

MONILIASIS

Mrs. V. writes: I have been taking pills for monilia for four months. Why is it so hard to get rid of this infection?

REPLY

This yeast infection usually responds to Nystatin or amphotericin B. You neglected to mention whether the mouth is involved (thrush) or the fungus is in the skin or disseminated throughout the body.

Today's Health Hint — Numbness of hands and feet calls for a checkup.

More Nikita Job Stripping Is Planned

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Kremlin intends imminently to strip Nikita Khrushchev from a post which could have made him something of a crusader to citizens, reliable sources said today.

As the Supreme Soviet (Paliament) wound up its second day, the sources said plans were ready for the body to approve Khruschev's retirement as chairman of its 97-man constitution committee.

The Supreme Soviet's two chambers—the council of the Union and the council nationalities—today were deep in discussion of the nation's 1965 budget and economic plan announced by Premier Alexei N. Kosygin yesterday.

But there was no word in the dark panelled coridors outside the vast Kremlin meeting halls about who is officially in line to succeed Khrushchev as chief of the constitution makers.

Four Teeners Hurt As Car Hits Ditch

Four teen-agers were injured at 7:15 p.m. yesterday when a car failed to make a curve on San Geronimo Valley Drive, east of San Geronimo-Nicasio Road, and ran into a ditch.

The California Highway Patrol reported the driver, Mary Pla, 16 of 17 Manor Road, Fairfax, did not have a driver's license and attributed the mishap to lack of driving experience.

She was treated at Marin General Hospital for cuts on her chin and knees and sent home.

Also treated were William Relihan, 18, of 1625 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Fairfax, for a cut right leg, and Richard Klaes, 17 of 82 Redwood Road, Foirfax, for a cut leg.

The owner of the car, Edward Coel, 19 of 151 Tamalpais Road, Fairfax, was the only one Hospitalized, taken to Hamilton Air Force Base Hospital and reported in good condition with a cut forehead.

San Anselman Held Check-Writing Case

Lloyd G. Ruhl, 42, of 21 Florence Avenue, San Anselmo, was arrested on a charge of writing ficticious checks in Lake County by San Anselmo police yesterday.

The arrest was made at Ruhl's home on a warrant sent to Marin County by teletype from Sheriff E. L. Anderson of Lake County, San Anselmo police reported today.

Ruhl, a construction worker, posted $1,100 bail and is scheduled to appear in judicial court in Lakeport Dec. 21.

GUESTS SOLOISTS

Sylvia Davis, soprano (left), and Ann Graber, contralto, will be among the soloists at a performance of Handel's oratorio "Samson" Sunday at 8 p.m. by the College of Marin Community Chorus, accompanied by organ and professional orchestra. Dr. S. Drummond Wolf will direct the 120-voice chorus and orchestra. The orchestra for the free concert is to be provided by the San Francisco local of the American Federation of Musicians and a grant from the Recording Industries Trust Fund. Other soloists will be Edward Jameson, tenor, and John Dyar, bass.

Bolinas-Stinson Trustees Study Classroom Shortage

Two classrooms were recommended to be added to schools in the Bolinas-Stinson Union School District in a review of building needs made last night to the school board by Robert Stannard.

Stannard, assistant superintendent in the Marin County Superintendent of Schools Office, suggested an added classroom at Bolinas, lavatories for pupils and staff at Bolinas, and second classroom where the proposed kindergarten is to be.

He also recommended remodeling and refurnishing Bolinas School administrative offices, repainting Bolinas classrooms and landscaping at Stinson Beach School.

Irving E. Levine of 340 Seadrift Road, Stinson Beach, was appointed to fill the position of trustee Henry B. Lacaze who has resigned due to personal reasons. Levine is vice president of the California Research Corp., San Francisco. A chemist, he is also a director of the Stinson Beach County Water District.

Formation Unit Acts On Mill Valley Plan

The Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission decided today to proceed with its hearing on Mill Valley's 137-acre annexation bid despite a request to delay proceedings.

Atty. S. J. Hugh Allen, representing George Leo Zaro, asked the commission to wait until he has a chance to appeal the superior court decision that opened the way for the hearing.

Judge Richard M. Sims Jr., ruled Monday that Mill Valley's petition to annex the 137 acres adjacent to the southwestern boundaries of the city could be submitted to the commission.

Leland H. Jordan, Mill Valley city attorney, asked the commission to proceed on the merits of the case at the earliest possible date.

The commission then denied Allen's request and set the hearing for 8 p.m. Monday at the Civic Center.

The commission also approved the annexation of 206 acres of the Fagundes Ranch, south of Lucas Valley Road and West of Highway 101, to the Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District. The commission formerly approved annexation of the area to San Rafael.

Commissioners also approved annexation of a 1.7 acre area, between Shoreline Highway and Morningsun Avenue in Tamalpais Valley, to the Almonte Sanitary District.

Tiburon Pupils Will Have Yule Programs

Pupils in the first grades of the Bel Aire School, Tiburon, will participate in a Christmas Sing at 1:15 p.m. Tuesday in the school's multipurpose room.

The Bel Aire Chorus, the Bel Aire Quartet and Reed Union School District Orchestra will join in another Christmas program at 2 p.m. next Thursday in the same room. The chorus comprises pupils of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades and is conducted by Dr. Hyman Krongard. Lee Lincoln will direct the orchestra in carols.

Millionaire Twin In Hiding After Murder Charge

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Timothy W. Nicholson, 22, accused of murdering his twin, is free today on bail, his whereabouts a secret. But two appointments await him here:

At 2:30 p.m. Friday, his brother's funeral.

At 10 a.m. Monday, his preliminary hearing—on a charge he "wilfully, unlawfully, and with malice aforethought did murder Todd F. Nicholson."

He appeared with red-rimmed eyes at his arraignment Wednesday, hid his face from cameramen, and readily produced the $27,500 bail asked by the court to permit him freedom.

Gerstle Park Amphitheater Plans Passed To Council

Plans for a $3,000 amphitheater at Gerstle Park were approved at a meeting of the San Rafael Parks and Recreation Commission last night.

The commission recommended that city council approve the project, to be financed by contributions from the Caesar Bettini Memorial Fund and the Marin Dance Council.

The amphitheater, to be built on the site of the park's one tennis court, would consist of a 2,000 square foot wooden dance platform with a band shell at one end, forming a stage. Benches would be built on slopes around the platform. The platform could be used for seating during performances in the stage area.

Recreation director Joseph D. Rodota said that the site of the present tennis court forms a natural amphitheater and that the court, now in rundown condition, would cost $7,000 to rebuild and preserve. The commission said it hopes to build another court at some other site.

The Marin Dance Council would contribute $500 cash and $1,000 in labor, and the rest of the cost of the amphitheater would come from the fund set up after the death of the park caretaker, Caesar Bettini, said Rodota.

Belvedere Annex Plan Is Delayed

Directors of the Tiburon Sanitary District came to no decision last night on whether they would approve annexation of Belvedere to the district.

Directors agreed to hold a special public meeting, probably after the holidays, to gain further public opinion and facts on the question.

Directors last night discussed various financial and engineering aspects of the sewer system during a two and one-half hour meeting at the treatment plant on Paradise Drive.

A letter from Tiburon councilman Anne L. Ellinwood asked directors to hold off a decision at the meeting as it had been called on relatively short notice. Directors at their regular meeting Monday decided to hold the extra meeting last night.

Cavalli asked that sanitary district directors consider the annexation as "most economical" or that they at least consider a contract for maintenance of Belvedere sewers. Belvedere last summer approved a contract for maintenance of the sewers by the district at $25,400 yearly; the sanitary district board turned down the proposal. The district now treats all Belvedere sewage at its district plant outside the city.

If the sanitary district directors were to agree to a motion of intent to annex Belvedere to the district, the next step would be up to city residents, Cavalli explained today.

It would be necessary to have a petition with 75 per cent of the property owners asking the sanitary district board to annex the city to the district. The sanitary board would have the final say.

Or 25 per cent of the freeholders (property owners who are registered voters) could petition the city council to hold an election. If voters approved annexation, the question would then go to the sanitary district board which would have the final say.

Board Votes Blue Cross Coverage

Directors of the Marin Hospital District last night awarded a contract to Blue Cross for medical coverage for hospital employee but held up action on life insurance coverage after learning consultant had apparently made an error in reading the bids submitted.

The board also approved a contract with Dr. Calvin Plumhof for operation of the hospital's laboratory.

Hospital Service of California, or Blue Cross, was selected over California Physicians Insurance Corp., although the cost to the hospital for its share in the employee benefit will be slightly higher, computed at $2,467 a month, rather than $2,413 a month.

The plan was chosen because the cost to the employee would be less, under Blue Cross coverage, for coverage for dependents, a service paid for by the employees.

Administrator William W. Turner explained that men would gain from the California Physicians Plan, but that the hospital had many more women employees.

On the life insurance coverage, brokers Harry C. Duncan of Belvedere and Edward K. Wachsman of San Rafael each claimed that their bids were actually well below that stated by consultant Barrett N. Coates Jr. The question was put over until the Dec. 22 meeting.

The Plumhof contract, worked out over a year of committee meetings, calls for all patient billing for laboratory services to be made by the hospital, with Plumhof receiving 66 per cent for operating the laboratory.

He, in turn, will have to supply personnel, equipment and supplies for the laboratory operation.

In a meeting of the hospital operations committee after the board session, the committee, urged by board member Marion Ibach, voted to request quick work by consultants on finding more office space at or near the hospital.

Mrs. Ibach said the hospital would have to provide classroom space for the nursing training programs by September, and would also need office space for the proposed home care program.

Congo's Tshombe Visits Pope, Under Heavy Guard

VATICAN CITY (AP) — With a heavy police escort to protect him from possible Communist demonstrations, Congo Premier Moise Tshombe came to the Vatican today for a 20-minute audience with Pope Paul VI.

"In this painful moment," the Roman Catholic pontiff told Tshombe, "we implore our sons and all mankind to employ all their means and powers to carry on this work of peace."

Communist tirades against him and a demonstration in downtown Rome Wednesday night protesting his visit caused the special security measures.

The controversial Congolese stopped in Rome en route to the United Nations for the Security Council debate on the rebellion in the Congo and the U.S.-Belgian paratroop operations.

A Methodist educated by American missionaries, Tshombe said he would ask for the Pope's advice and prayers for the turbulent Congo.

Water Board Asks Utility Bids Study

All bids for the Marin Municipal Water District's proposed utility building came in well above the $400,000 architect's estimate yesterday, and the district board asked that they be studied closely before any is accepted.

The building is scheduled to be constructed behind the district office in Corte Madera, replacing the building in San Rafael being removed to make way for Highway 101 off ramps.

Low bidder on the base bid was Jacks and Irving, Inc., of San Francisco, at $498,000, followed by William McDevitt Construction Co., San Rafael, at $498,628.

However, two alternates allow deductions if certain items are cut out of the project. If the deductions are taken, McDevitt is low at $465,414, compared to $466,511 for Jacks and Irving.

Other base bids were Olsen Construction Co., Santa Rosa, $499,999; Harvis Construction Co., South San Francisco, $511,000; Peter Sartorio, Inc., Colma, $518,241; Merritt Building and Construction Co., Berkeley, $521,600; F. P. Lathrop Construction Co., Berkeley, $529,900; W. J. Kubon Co., San Rafael, $535,822, and Homan and Lawrence Engineering Co., San Francisco, $586,000.

Film Maker Files Law Suit

A Sausalito film maker has field a $300,000 law suit in San Francisco Superior Court charging that films his firm made of at Squaw Valley were illegally shown over television.

Marvin E. Becker of 515 Pine Street, brought the suit against John Jay Films, Walter Read-Sterling, Inc. and ABC-Paramount Theaters.

LIKE BUSH PILOT

Ferry Boats Doing Big Job Along Alaska Coast

By PETER J. HAYES

JUNEAU, ALASKA (UPI)—What the bush pilot has done for the interior of Alaska, the ferry boat captain is doing for coastal areas.

Air transportation provides the only access to the outside for scores of interior Alaska villages.

Now this vast, underdeveloped state is moving ahead on a program to link seaports along parts of a coastline which is longer than that of the entrie "lower 48" states.

Last August the sleek motorship Tustumena went into service linking historic Kodiak Island with Seward, Seldovia, Homer and Anchorage and the Alaska highway system. The brand new vessel carries 200 passengers and 67 cars.

"It's bringing over a lot of people who want to drive their cars or camper trucks to the island," Kodiak Mayor Pete Deveau said. "And the fair is only about half as much as it costs to fly."

The Tustumena joins three other Alaska state ferry system vessels that last year inaugurated a "marine highway" past forest-covered islands and the glaciers of southeastern Alaska.

The 450-mile route through the inland passage connects Skagway, Haines, Juneau, Sitka, Petersburg, Wrangell and Ketchikan with the Canadian port of Prince Rupert, B. C. From either end travelers may continue their trip by auto.

Mike Miller of the Alaska Travel Division said the southeastern system ferries handled 80,000 passenger boardings in its first year, more than had been predicted for the fourth year of operation.

"This year the ferries are doing better than last," he said.

A third state ferry plies between Cordova and Seward in Prince William Sound.

The brisk ferry business helped offset tourism losses suffered as a result of the March 27 earthquake. Tourism is big business in Alaska as travelers spend an estimated 20 to 30 million dollars in the state annually.

"Around 20 per cent of planned package tours to Alaska were cancelled after the 'quake," Miller said. "People saw pictures of the heavy damage and decided there would't be many accommodations. Actually, we have more hotel rooms now than we had before the quake."

Miller said travel bookings picked up during the summer and are coming in already for next year. Traffic over the Alaska Highway also increased last summer.

The earthquake and tidal wave are a tourist attraction in themselves.

"We've had some visitors who think it's the chance of a lifetime to see the crevasse formed by an earthquake," Miller said. "The U. S. Forest Service is preserving a crevasse inside a fence in a parking lot at Portage Glacier in Chugach National Forest near Anchorage."

The oldest known apple orchard in America grows in Manzona, N.M. Originally planted in 1676, when New Mexico was Spanish territory, the orchard has 150-year-old trees than still bear fruit.

OTHER PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

By HARRY CRAFT

British, Foreign Car Service Firm Opens Doors In Fairfax

Newly opened at 1610 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Fairfax, is British and Foreign Cars Service, a project of Colin G. Nock of San Rafael. Name of the business tells the story, but though this is his specialty, Nock also works on American cars.

He has only been in this country from England about eight months and has the accent to show for it.

AN EXCLUSIVE foreign distributorship has been given to Electronic Properties International Corp., 1363 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael, by Edex Corp. of Palo Alto for its electronics teaching systems.

Electronic Properties is headed by Hal Fenton as president, who is also head of Food Merchandisers Corp. and recently organized American Group Tours, both located at the same address. Fenton was formerly an executive of a New York firm supplying electronic entertainment programs to ocean-going vessels.

Basis electronic teaching system consists of a teacher's console and individual student stations fitted with multiple choice response keys. Display lights, digital counters or a paper record identify the performance of each individual. A two-way system of questions and answers between teacher and student corrects his performance.

MARIN COUNTY'S average family income of $10,770 is well over the national average of $6,800. But if the same percentages hold true as analyzed by Prudential Insurance Co., this is approximately how the money will be spent:

All taxes $1,185; insurance and savings $646; housing $2,692; food $2,262; transportation $1,400; clothing $861; personal care $646; medical care $539; recreation $431 and education $108.

IF OUR FAIRGROUNDS were ready, we might have brought something like this into the county:

The first "Teen-Age Fair" to be staged in Northern California will be presented at the San Mateo Fairgrounds April 9-18, 1965. It is expected to attract over 200,000 teen-agers, sub-teen-agers and young adults from 12 to 25 years of age. Offices have been opened in San Francisco by Teen-Age Fair, Inc. which has produced similar affairs throughout the country over the last four years.

National and international manufacturers of automobiles, motorcycles, radio and television sets, shoes and clothing will be among the major exhibitors.

You'd normally expect something about shovels, barbecues or lawnmowers here, and the price. But not Weiss" texts.

They usually run to something like this: "Unless information disbursed freely," "Our cash register gladly demonstrated" (when a customer evinced interest in this, Weiss gaily announced that it didn't work very well without ringing up a sale)—and his latest: "Doorknobs and latches-keyholes free.

FOREST KNOLLS FOOD MARKET has been taken over by Lawrence A. and Mary N. Moulton of that community. They have already made a few changes and added more stocks. Mrs. Moulton previously operated the Forest Knolls Beauty Shop which she has closed temporarily due to an injury to her hand.

NEW TO the janitorial and maintenance field is Edwin L. Lein, 304 First Street, San Rafael, who was previously doing interior decorating work. He has secured his license, but office and phone not yet established. Word can be left at the realty office of John Morosoli, San Rafael.

PROJECT UNDER WAY — Checking plans for 56 relocation apartments at Marin City are Alton Lerch (left), chairman of the Marin County Redevelopment Agency, and W. W. Newton, superintendent for Barrett Construction Co. Within 30 days, 30 houses will also be started, which with the apartments will accommodate all of the 64 Marin City families now living in temporary structures.

Corn Is Big U.S. Business

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Indians called it maize. The first settlers called it corn because back in England all grains were called corn. By any name, it adds up to America's biggest crop, far greater than all other grains combined: 4,082,000,000 (b) bushels last year.

It takes 90 days to grow but as little as 90 minutes to process and pack. A vast processing plant in Fairmont, Minn. turns out more than 1,000 cans of corn a minute.

Corn fields take up nearly 60 per cent of all U.S. crop acreage. In addition to being a staple of the food and beverage industries, corn is important in scores of other areas, including textiles, laundry, explosives, paper, leather, foundry and pharmaceuticals.

Marin City Development Under Way

Construction was started at Marin City this week on building 56 apartments to meet the needs of families now living in temporary housing.

Alton Lerch, chairman of the Marin County Redevelopment Agency, said that the apartments, and 30 houses which are to be started within the next 30 days, will offer accommodations for all of the 63 families now in temporary structures.

When completed in about eight months, the apartments will be offered for rent from $105 to $140 a month, he said.

Investment in the construction which is being done by Barrett Construction Co., will amount to $965,000. Lerch said that when apartments and houses are completed, private investment will have reached about 3.1 million dollars of the total 17 million dollars estimated for Marin City.

The Marin County Housing Authority has also announced the award to Abraham Lumber Co. of Richmond of a contract to demolish three temporary apartment buildings in Marin City at a price of $1,170. Donald O. Stutsman, executive director of the authority, said the contract brings the total number of apartment units to be demolished this year to 110, with the remaining 66 to be cleared during 1965.

Market Closes Mixed During Active Trading

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed mixed today in active trading.

The market was slightly higher in the morning but trimmed prices.

Volume for the day was estimated at 5 million shares compared with 5.1 million yesterday.

Gains and losses of fractions to about a point peppered the list of key stocks.

The averages were dampened by Du Pont, down 2. On the other hand, gains of more than a point were made by IBM, Westinghouse Electric, Jones and Laughlin and U.S. Smelting. Up about a point were United Aircraft, Control Data and International Harvester ex-dividend.

Steels were generally higher with most gains small. Rails headed irregularly lower after an early rise. Motors were fairly steady.

Comsat was the volume leader, showing a gain of about a point after digesting an early loss.

Down about a point were Eastman Kodak, Canadian Pacific, Abbott Laboratories, National Dairy, Riegel Paper and West Virginia Pulp.

Gains of a point or so were scored by Time Inc., Seiberling, American Export Lines, Cox Broadcasting, General Foods, Jewel Tea, Motorola, Newberry, Parke, Davis and Pennzoil.

Prices on the American Stock Exchange were generally higher in moderate trading. Syntex gained 3, Fotochrome Debentures 4. Up a point or so were Savoy Industries, New Mexico and Arizona Land, Hygrade Food and Barnes Engineering. Sinclair Venezuelan Oil lost a point. Down fractionally were Goldfield, Continental Telephone, Tel-A-Sign and Victoreen Instrument.

Corporate bonds were mixed. U.S. government bonds were slightly stronger.

Yule Cards Go First Class

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — Sending Christmas cards by first class postage is becoming increasingly important and a good investment, say authorities. By spending five cents on postage, you may include written messages, seal your envelope, and the cards will be delivered quicker.

Most important, your carefully selected cards and personal messages will be forwarded or returned to you, if undelivered, without additional postage. And the colorful new five-cent Christmas stamps issued by the Post Office add to the gaiety of the envelope. It is both proper and practical to put your full name and address on the envelope along with your ZIP code number.

Mariner On Course To Pass 5,400 Miles From Mars

PASADENA (AP) — Mariner 4 will pass within 5,400 miles of Mars next July 14, Jet Propulsion Laboratory scientists said today after studying the spacecraft's course after a direction-changing maneuver Dec. 5.

Without the maneuver, Mariner 4 would have missed Mars by 151,000 miles—too far for the camera-carrying vehicle to take good pictures.

At a news conference today scientists at the laboratory, which built and is guiding Mariner 4 on its 325-million-mile curving flight through space, said accuracy of the course change will allow the spacecraft to perform an important scientific experiment.

Mariner 4 now will fly behind Mars instead of in front of it, which means radio signals from the spacecraft will travel through the Martian atmosphere en route to earth.

Changes in the signal due to the atmosphere are expected to yield new information on density of the Martian atmosphere and thus provide a clue as to whether the mysterious planet could support any form of life.

On its new course, Mariner 4 will fly past earth's neighbor from above the Martian equator on the leading edge to below the equator on the trailing edge.

Firemen Elect In Belvedere

Jerry Gillin, who last year was vice president of the Belvedere Volunteer Firemen's Assn., was elected president of the group at its meeting last night.

He succeeds David D. Imre. Others elected were Mike Shea, vice president; Bob Holm, secretary; Tim Harris, treasurer.

Grandmother Seeks Custody

Petition for appointment as guardian of the 4-year-old son of murder victim Mrs. Mary L. Jones, 21, has been filed in Marin Superior Court for the maternal grandmother.

Hearing on the petition by Mrs. Ola B. McLin, 243 Drake Avenue, Marin City, is scheduled for 10 a.m. Jan. 11.

The woman, mother of the victim, seeks guardianship of James Davis Jones Jr. The father, J. D. Jones, 31, also of Marin City, has been charged with the hammer-slaying of the wife and mother. She died Nov. 16 in Marin General Hospital.

Birds Bother Jets

SAN BRUNO, Calif. (UPI)—Rainy weather brings birds flocking to San Francisco International Airport. They think rain pools on the runways are lakes, and have to be chased away with explosive charges to prevent danger to jet planes.

Woman Driver Hurt In Crash

Demia G. MacDonald, 46, of 19 Arguello Circle was injured yesterday when her weaving car ran off the road and hit a concrete retaining wall in San Rafael.

Witnesses told police that Mrs. MacDonald's car went off San Pedro Road and ran along a ditch for about 20 feet before hitting the retaining wall.

Mrs. MacDonald was in good condition with a concussion and scrapes and bruises at Ross General Hospital today.

Collector's Item

LONDON (UPI)—An 1827 matchbox label fetched a record 32 pounds ($89.60) when it came up at a sale organized in London by the British Matchbox Label and Booklet Society.

Bandits Rob Woman At Ozarks Motel

JOPLIN, Mo. (UPI) — Two masked men today robbed a woman guest at the Mickey Mantle Holiday Inn of nearly $12,000 in jewelry, furs and cash, police reported.

Officers said the men seized Mrs. Aleene Kerr of Huntington Park, Calif., when she emerged from her room late last night "for a breath of air."

Joe Kuharich Signs 15-Year Contract With Eagles

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Joe Kuharich said today his new 15-year contract as general manager and coach of the Philadelphia Eagles—believed unprecedented in the National Football League—would help provide a solid basis on which to build the team.

Eagles' owners Earl Foreman and Jerry Wolman announced the elevation of Kuharich to general manager yesterday and the signing of the long term contract.

In a statement they said: "It is our belief that the most expedient way to build and maintain a winner in the NFL is to place authority in one knowledgeable individual. The Eagles are fortunate to have such a person in Kuharich."

Kuharich, 47, has been virtual general manager since he was hired as coach to replace Nick Skorich. Former General Manager Vince McNally resigned several months ago.

Kuharich described the contract as "very thrilling," and "my finest moment in coaching." He said the contract won't prompt any immediate changes.

"We're going to proceed as we have been doing," he said. He's handled player personnel and engineered numerous trades since coming here under the new owners.

Kuharich said he thought the length of the contract was "the finest arrangement in the NFL . . . it could be a tremendous advantage."

He said there was "no doubt," that having a long-term contract is beneficial to the team. "Over a long period of time you can build solidly," he said.

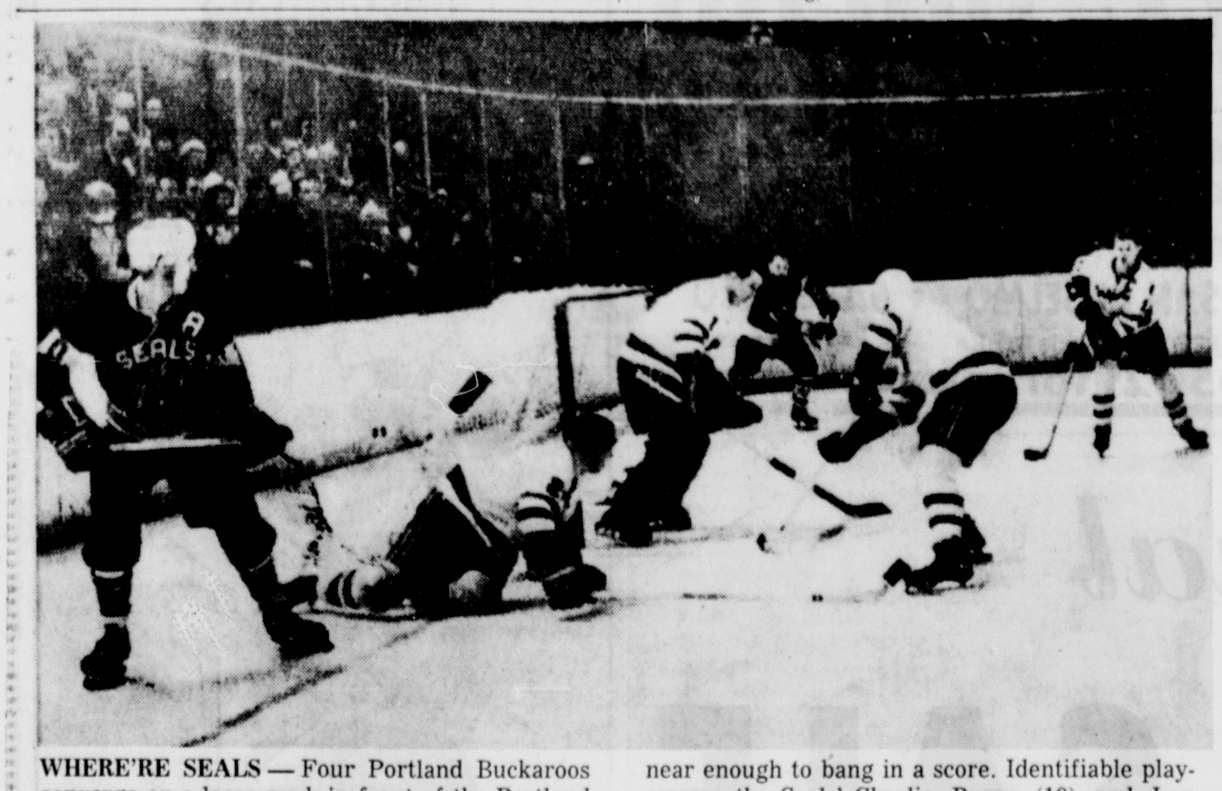
The only other NFL coach with anything approaching Kuharich's contract is Tom Landry, signed this year by the Dallas Cowboys for 10 years. The longest contract Paul Brown ever had with the Cleveland Browns was for 10 years. Vince Lombardi has a five year contract as general manager and coach at Green Bay.

In their first season under Kuharich, the Eagles have won six and lost seven, their best since 1961, and have a shot for a .500 season.

The statement by Foreman and Wolman said they felt Kuharich had done "the outstanding coaching job in the league this year," and added, "his trades and moves helped tremendously in revitalizing the team and winning six games thus far."

The Eagles also announced yesterday the promotion of Ed Snider from treasurer to vice president and treasurer "in charge of all Eagles operations." Formerly the vice president was Joe Donoghue, who is now listed by the team as assistant to the president.

Kuharich previously coached in the NFL at Washington and St. Louis, and in college at Notre Dame where he played as a student. In 1961 he left Notre Dame to become supervisor of officials in the NFL.



WHERE'RE SEALS — Four Portland Buckaroos converge on a loose puck in front of the Portland net in last night's Western Hockey League game against the San Francisco Seals, but no Seals were near enough to bang in a score. Identifiable players are the Seals' Charlie Burns (10) and Len Haley (15) and Bucks Don Head (goalie) and Art Jones (15). Haley was closer a little later and scored the winning goal. (AP Wirephoto)

Don Shula—NFL Coach Of Year

NEW YORK (AP) — Don Shula's job of leading the Baltimore Colts to the Western Conference title of the National Football League in his second year as head coach earned him recognition today as the league's Coach of the Year by an Associated Press panel.

Shula won by a landslide in the voting of the 42-man group, three from each league city. The Baltimore coach had 38 votes to three for Blanton Collier of Cleveland. One committee member did not vote in this category.

The 1963 winner was George Halas, owner-coach of the Chicago Bears.

Under Shula's direction, the Colts bounced back from an opening day 34-24 defeat by Minnesota and streaked through 11 straight games before they lost to Detroit last Sunday. Enroute they clinched the Western crown and whipped the favored Green Bay Packers and defending champion Chicago Bears twice each. The first Bear game was a shocking 52-0 rout.

SUCCEEDS EWBANK

Shula, 34, came to the Colts as successor to Weeb Ewbank after the 1962 season, following a career as a defensive back in the NFL and three years as line coach for the Detroit Lions under George Wilson.

Drafted by the Cleveland Browns in 1951 after a fine career at John Carroll University, Shula came to Baltimore in 1953 in a 10-for-5 player swap. He played with the Colts' defensive backfield through 1956 and finished his active career with Washington in 1957.

Shula's first coaching job was as an assistant at Virginia in 1958. He was an assistant at Kentucky in 1959 and moved to the Lions in 1960.

Under Shula's direction in 1963, the Colts got off to a wobbly start while breaking in rookies and filling in for injured regulars. Baltimore came with a rush at the end and won five of its last six to finish in third place.

A sensational comeback by Lenny Moore, an inspired year by Johnny Unitas and the addition of rookie Tony Lorick to share the fullback job with Jerry Hill gave the Colts a potent offense. The return of Gino Marchetti, who had announced his retirement, and fine play by Bill Pellington at middle linebacker helped solidify the defensive unit.

CRITICISM

In Ewbank's final years at Baltimore there was much criticism of the coach for playing Moore as a running back instead of using him outside as a flanker. However, Shula followed the same plan, except in emergencies.

When Shula took the job he said, "I favor one quarterback. When you've got a good one, you stick with him." He has followed that rule with unitas who is having a sensational year, now that he has some running power to balance off his passing.

Shula is an intense, active man who makes his feelings known on the practice field and along the side lines during the games. Although Shula is quick on the emotional trigger and outspoken at times he has developed poise and confidence.

Collier, also a second year coach at Cleveland, did a fine job with the Browns who are only one game away from their first Eastern Conference title since 1957.

Marin Preps Start Basketball Action

While Redwood High School's basketball team starts its play in the Del Valle Invitational tournament tonight, four other Marin Atheltic League cage teams get ready for home action tomorrow.

Scheduled for home games on tomorrow's calendar, Novato plays Montgomery of Santa Rosa at 4 p.m., Terra Linda plays Wilson of San Francisco at 7 p.m., Drake takes on Napa at 7 p.m., and Tamalpais goes against El Cerrito at 3:30 p.m.

Marin Catholic goes on the road tomorrow to play Richmond High School at 7 p.m. The remainder of this weekend's schedule finds San Rafael High hosting Montgomery Saturday at 4 p.m. and Marin Catholic greeting Poly of San Francisco, also Saturday, at 7 p.m.

Redwood will be the first MAL varsity team to get some tournament play this season, as the Marin Athletic League tourney was discontinued this year, upon the vote of the cage coaches concerned. The Del Valle Invitational, now in its third year, gets started tonight in Walnut Creke. Redwood will take on host Del Valle at 8 p.m. The tourney continues tomorrow and Saturday.

The only other Marin Atheltic League varsity team that has pre-league tournament play scheduled is Novato High School. The Hornets, currently with a 3-0 practice game record, will be playing in the Anderson Invitational in Shasta County Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week.

On the Class B cage scene, the Marin Athletic League "B" Tournament gets started today on the San Rafael High School court. In 4 o'clock games, guest DeAnza plays Drake and Redwood goes against Marin Catholic. At 5:45 p.m. Terra Linda is matched with Novato and Tam battles San Rafael.

The tourney will continue through tomorrow and Saturday, with all games scheduled for the San Rafael High School courts. Cost is $1 for adults and 25 cents for student body card holders, for each day of the tourney.

OSU Quits Sale Of Bowl Tickets

CORVALLIS, Ore. (AP) —Oregon State University quit taking Rose Bowl ticket applications yesterday. The university had an allocation of 40,000 tickets.

A. T. (Slats) Gill, athletics director, said the staff was trying to catch up with the applications and expected to have all tickets in the mail by Dec. 15.

Gill said the only uncommitted tickets are in a block being held for students and faculty. These are being sold on a basis of one ticket per applicant.

How Can You Explain The Skid Of Both The Giants And Bears?

Jack Hanley

It seems incredible that any pro team could drop from top to bottom as the New York Giants did this season in the NFL's Eastern Conference. Yet, the same thing happened to the Chicago Bears in the Western Conference.

The slide of the Bears wasn't as precipitous as that of the Giants. The Bears still haven't hit bottom but that is only because the 49ers have proprietary cellar rights in the western half of the league.

Nobody expected much from the 49ers this season. The fact that they doubled their 1963 win production with four victories was a mild surprise.

HOWEVER, New York and Chicago football fans definitely expected the Giants and Bears to do more than they did this year, even meet in another championship game as they did a year ago.

It's true that both teams were severely hit by injuries. But so were the 49ers who nevertheless managed to win four games. Injuries alone do not explain why the Giants, Eastern Conference champs in 1961-62-63, are going into the last game of the season this weekend with a 2-9-2 record.

Of course, nobody has the answer to succh riddles. If anyone did he could make a modest fortunue by sending the solution to Allie Sherman. The Giant coach is an baffled as anyone else. Perhaps it was Sherman's mistake that led to the downfall of the Giants—his decision to trade off a couple of defensive veterans, Dick Modzelewski and Sam Huff.

SOME ARE attributing the skid of the Giants to Y. A. Tittle and consequentlby are retiring YAT again. At 38 and finishing his 17th pro campaign, Tittle no longer can shake off the bumps and bruises as he once did. But to single out Tittle as the cause of the Giant collapse is ridiculous.

There is no single reason for the dismal dip of the Giants this year. But Sherman and other coaches might learn a lesson from it—don't mess with a smooth machine by replacing reliable parts before they really are worn out.

Seal Defense Shines In 3-2 Hockey Win

PORTLAND (UPI) — The San Francisco Seals have surrendered more goals than any other team in the Western Hockey League, but they looked like defensive Titans last night.

Goalie Bobby Perreault blocked 34 shots to lead the Seals to their first win at Portland in three tries in a 3-2 thriller. Len Haley's rebound goal with less than three minutes to play decided the issue.

Perreault's fine performance might have been partly caused by the Seal's acquisition of 21-year-old net-minder Henry Goy earlier this week. The roly-poly Perreault last night flashed the form he exhibited in last year's playoffs.

It was 2-1 Portland after the first period on goals by the Bucks' Arnie Schmautz and Art Jones and the Seals' Tom Thurlby. Jones was performing in his 500th professional hockey game.

Ed Panagabko evened the count in the only score of the second stanza.

It stayed 2-2 until 17-28 of the final period when Portland boalie Don Head knocked down a shot by Gerry Odrowski. Haley slapped it back through to give the Seals their eighth win in 24 tries.

The fifth-place Seals now trail Los Angeles by seven points in the battle for the key last spot in the playoffs. San Francisco has surrendered 110 goals in their 24 games. A little more of the type of defense San Francisco exhibited last night would help the Seal cause.

Oregon St. Cagers Top Arizona '5'

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Oregon State rallied in the final minutes yesterday, after dissipating most of a 23-point lead, and plucked out a 66-52 basketball victory over Arizona State at Corvallis, Ore.

With Oregon State's lead whittled to only seven points with five minutes left in the game, Oregon's Jim Jarvis and Charlie White pulled the game out of danger, leaving the team with a 2-1 season record. Arizona State now is 2-2.

In the two-day Camellia Basketball Tournament at Sacramento, the Sacramento State Hornets went into the championship round with an 80-59 night victory over Humboldt State.

In the tournament's first game, Nevada beat the University of California at Davis 71-62.

Piersalls Are Reconciled, So Says The Wife

LOS ANGELES (AP)— Baseball star Jimmy Piersall and his wife are "more or less reconciled" and expect to have their marital difficulties solved soon, Mrs. Mary Piersall said yeserday.

The Los Angeles Angels' outfielder's wife earlier had filed a suit in Superior Court here asking for separate maintenance and charged the American League's Comeback Player of the Year with extreme cruelty.

But yesterday, Mrs. Piersall, 36, said she was "sure everything will work out." Piersall's agent, Tom Bunette, echoed her prediction.

The Piersalls have been married since 1949 and have nine children. They separated a week ago.

Mrs. Piersall asked for $1,280 in monthly alimony and child support and requested that more than $200,000 in community property, including a house, be awarded her.

Craig Wins; 1 Vote For Francisco

LOS ANGELES (UPI) Craig Morton, University of California quarterback, has been named winner of the W. J. Voit Memorial Trophy—symbolic of the outstanding collegiate football player on the Pacific Coast.

Morton was named on 16 of 37 ballots cast by the Pacific Coast sports editors and radio and television broadcasters. Mike Garrett of USC and Rick Redman of Washington received six first place votes.

Other players who received votes were: Gary Garrison (San Diego State), Larry Zeno (UCLA), Paul Brothers (Oregon State), Dick Ruhl (Oregon State), Ken Berry (San Jose State), Kent Francisco of San Rafael (UCLA), Pat Brosnan (Long Beach State), Jim Allison (San Diego State), Dunn Marteen (Los Angeles State) and Craig Fertig (USC).

MICHIGAN IS BIG PICK OVER OREGON STATE

NEW YORK (AP) — Alabama, Arkansas, Michigan and Louisiana State have been made major football bowl favorites by Broadway oddsmakers.

The first betting line, issued today, had Alabama six-point favorite over Texas in the Orange Bowl, Arkansas six points over Nebraska in the Cotton, Michigan 11 over Oregon State in the Rose, LSU five over Syracuse in the Sugar, Florida State three over Oklahoma in the Gator and Georgia five over Texas Tech in the Sun.

COLLEGE BASKETBALL

Kentucky, Michigan Grab Big Victories

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The six-footer from Indianapolis exploded for 37 points to lead the ninth-ranked Kentucky Wildcats to a 100-74 victory over Iowa State last night.

"He did a tremendous job," veteran coach Adolph Rupp said after Dampier, aided by another soph, Pat Riley of Schenectady, N.Y., put the Wildcats back on the winning side after their road defeat to North Carolina Monday.

Dampier got his 37 points on 17 field goals and three fouls while Riley contributed 18 points including a three-point play that put Kentucky ahead for good at 17-15.

"I haven't the slightest idea just how far we can go this season," said Rupp last week. Glendon Anderson, the Iowa State coach, was more positive after the game in Lexington, Ky.

"Kentucky looked much better than the Minnesota team that beat us 63-53," Anderson said. The Gophers, sixth-ranked, are unbeaten in four games compared to Kentucky's 2-1 record.

Michigan's Wolverines, the country's No. 1 team in The Associated Press rankings, crushed Indiana State 102-64 and the second-ranked Wichita Wheatshockers made it two straight with a 73-55 romp over Texas Western. Both were home court victories.

Cazzie Russell's 27 points led the unbeaten Wolverines to their fourth straight. Dave Stallworth also scored 27 points and put on a spectacular defensive performance in sparking Wichita.

In a couple of one-point decisions Ohio State edged Butler 67-66 on Al Rowley's basket with 12 seconds left at Columbus, Ohio, and Cornell's Big Red invaded Syracuse and surprised the Orange 73-72. Two free throws by Jim Maglisceau on a one-and-one situation with 19 seconds on the clock won for Cornell. Massachusetts also scored a road victory over Rhode Island 79-67.

Hall Volleyball Teams Triumph

Henry C. Hall School in Larkspur won both the boys' and girls' divisions of the Redwood Elementary League's fourth annual volleyball tournament last night at Redwood High School.

Teams from the Hall school beat teams from Del Mar School of Tiburon in both division finals.

Cepeda Mum About Alvin Dark

By MILTON RICHMAN

NEW YORK (UPI) — Orlando Cepeda is nobody's dummy.

He knows when it's time to speak up and when it's time to keep his mouth shut.

He'll tell you anything you want to know about the San Francisco Giants' chances next year, but doesn't care to go into the reasons for their collapse this year.

Cepeda is coming along fine after undergoing surgery last Monday for removal of cartilage in his right knee. Yesterday he took his first steps in his hospital room since the operation.

He's cheerful and he'll gladly answer practically all questions — except a few of the more delicate ones.

Like, who was chiefly to blame for the Giants finishing fourth last season? Or, did some of the players actually let down on Alvin Dark during the final month?

"I have no comment to make on that," said the 27-year-old slugger from Santurce, P.R., to both questions.

Otherwise, Cepeda had a number of observations and they included his views on Dark's successor, Herman Franks, and the Giants' pennant prospects for the coming year.

"I think we have a great man in Franks," Cepeda says. "Everyone on the club likes him and feels he will do a fine job. I played for him in Puerto Rico. He's a good manager and I know I will enjoy playing for him because I did before."

Although the Giants have made no major deals this winter and probably will start next year's pennant race with essentially the same club they had this year, Cepeda feels they can win.

"It's a good ball club," he said. "I know we have the same club we had last season, but we're strong enough to finish first. At least I hope we will," he said.

Those two words cover a lot of territory and maybe he wanted to elaborate?

"Tough luck," he repeated.

Cepeda avoided any reference to Dark and it was obvious he didn't wish to discuss him because he said "no comment" the only time the ex-Giant manager's name came up.

Along with Willie Mays, Cepeda formed the heart of the Giants' attack last season when he hit 21 homers and drove in 102 runs while batting .304 in 142 games.

"I hope I can do even better than that next year," he said. "I think maybe I can. I played all year with my knee trouble and it bothered me, so it can't be worse next year."

The operation on Cepeda's knee took a little more than an hour. The doctors haven't told him when he'll be able to leave the hospital although it shouldn't be too long now the way he's moving around.

As soon as he is discharged from the hospital, he will head home for Puerto Rico.

Cepeda plans to take it easy this winter.

"When I get back home," he said, "I'm going to go out to the ballpark and watch some ball games."

Coach Chris Lauds S.F. 49ers' Spirit

REDWOOD CITY (UPI) — The San Francisco 49ers have already won twice as many games as last year (four to two), but coach Jack Christiansen is not satisfied.

"We've been playing good ball," he noted yesterday. "With a few breaks here and there, we could have a much better record. A fumble here and an interception there have hurt us."

"But the trouble hasn't been with our spirit," he added. "We've had a real good effort this year."

Christiansen does not plan any changes for the final contest of the year this Sunday at Detroit. He was pretty well satisfied with his team's performance in the 28-7 win over Los Angeles.

"We had good defensive line pressure," he noted, "and our defensive backs did a good job, too. Our running picked up a little bit. I'm not satisfied with it yet, but I guess there has been an improvement. You have to remember, we were playing against the best defense against rushing in the league."

The 49ers emerged from the Rams struggle with only the usual assortment of bumps and bruises. The Lions will probably still be missing defensive tackle J. D. Smith, who has been sidelined the past six weeks with an injured leg. Smith, who had been expected to be back Sunday, now has an acute inflammation of the gall bladder and will probably be out.

Redskins' Charley Taylor Voted NFL's Top Rookie

WASHINGTON (AP) — His college coach used to needle him for lack of chatter and hustle on the practice field.

Otto Graham, coach of the College All-Stars, said he was lazy.

"I'm just not built to make a lot of noise," explains Charley Taylor of the Washington Redskins. "I just run each play the best I can, then hurry back to the huddle."

But the 6-foot-3, 210-pound halfback's running and pass catching speak eloquently. Barring a near-collapse Sunday in the final game against Baltimore, he will be the first National Football League rookie in more than 20 years to finish in the top 10 in both rushing and pass receiving.

Taylor was named yesterday NFL Rookie of the Year by an Associated Press panel of sports writers and sportscasters. He received 18 of a possible 42 votes.

Tied for runner-up, with five votes each, were his Redskin teammate, safetyman Paul Krause, and Cleveland split end Paul Warfield.

"Taylor probably is the greatest natural football player I've ever seen," says Redskin Coach Bill McPeak. "He combines power, speed and fine open field moves. He is extremely coachable and is a modest, dedicated kid."

Taylor says Arizona State Coach Frank Kush liked Tony Lorick's scrappy style of play and used to urge Taylor to make more noise and show more hustle in practice.

Lorick won the starting fullback job with the Western Division champion Colts this year and finished in a three-way tie for fourth place in the rookie race with Mel Renfro, Dallas safetyman, and Bucky Pope, Los Angeles flanker.

Taylor didn't start the All-Star game, but once he got into the game he was the sparkplug in the All-Star offense and w named most valuable player.

After 13 NFL games, Taylor ranks sixth among rushers with 744 yards in 191 carries. He is eighth among pass receivers with 49 for 720 yards. He has scored 10 touchdowns.

"He's done most of it on natural ability this year," explains the veteran quarterback. "Next year he'll know more about defenses and running pass patterns. Not many men have his ability to know when to cut, or where men are in a broken field."

"He's made a few mistakes, but he learns fast."

Jurgensen says Taylor's great pass catching ability has taken the pressure off Bobby Mitchell and the other Redskin receivers and been a great factor in making the team's aerial game effective.

And Taylor, with 744 yards, has two-thirds of the 1,171 yards Washington has gained on the ground.

How Bears Landed Amazing Flanker

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO (AP) — This is the story of Papa Bear and Baby Bear.

Johnny, who stands 5-10 and struggles to keep up to 180 pounds, has shattered National Football League pass-catching records this season. With one game to go, against the Minnesota Vikings Sunday, the 28-year-old sprite has snagged 92 tosses for 1,195 yards and 10 touchdowns.

Knocked off the books was the former mark of 84 receptions by Tom Fears of Los Angeles 14 years ago.

Johnny wasn't big enough to play varsity ball at Long Beach Calif. Poly High. He didn't reach 160 pounds until a sophomore at California Santa Barbara, then he went out for the team. He became a fine running, pass-catching varsity halfback as a junior.

His coach was Ed Coty, a Halas U. alumnus. He tipped off Papa Bear. But somehow the Green Bay Packers also contacted Johnny, so Papa Bear's plans to pick him up as a free agent were discarded. The Bears drafted him on the 12th round in 1958.

"I first reported to the Bears in Soldier Field and was awed by the All-Americas around me and their size," recalled Johnny. "I was dwarfed, engulfed. I stood there not knowing what to do. I felt like an unnoticed little shrimp. Then, Mr. Halas walks up and says: 'Get on the bus, son, we're shoving off for training camp.'

"In the final exhibition game that year against Cleveland, I fumbled the first three times I got the ball and Halas told me I'd better sit out the rest of the game. I felt so down, I called my wife, Jeannie in California and told her to expect me home soon."

But Johnny was determined to pull off the "too small" tag that some had pinned on him. He proved to be a 180-pound fireball. After two years at halfback he was made a flanker.

"At first I resented it — I felt like I was out in the pasture," he said. "I thought I had proven myself at halfback. Then I found that the position was tailor-made for me. But it took me three years to feel as if I were learning anything.

"As a flanker, the quarterback asks you what you think you can do. You have got to get the feel of your quarterback and he has to do the same with you.

"You have to learn how to run pass patterns. You have to learn all the defenses against you, and they keep changing. It's like driving in heavy traffic, trying to watch defenders out of the corner of your eye while you are spotting yourself for a pass."

Johnny's third year as flanker was in 1963, when he helped the Bears win the NFL championship.

"But I knew I still had much to learn," he said. "I thought that by 1964 I should be doing everything almost automatically and I thought it would be my real big season."

It was.

Ancient Tune Wins Feature

SAN MATEO, Calif. (AP) — Ancient Tune rompe d to her third straight victory in winning the featured $4,000 Cherie Purse yesterday at Bay Meadows.

Her time was 1:09 4-5 on the six-furlong track and she paid $3, $2.80 and $2.20. Saphire Red paid $12 and $3.80 and third-place Jam N. Jellie paid $2.20.

Twin Double At Pimlico Pays $71,073

The winning combination, on which only one ticket was sold, was 8, 4, 4, 4.

Fortune's Gift paid $11.60 in winning the fifth race, Salute Steve returned $6.80 in the sixth, Prince Glory $38.60 in the eighth, and Michael P. G. survived a foul claim and won the ninth, paying $24.40.

Highest previous Twin Double in the state was $47,032 and came one week earlier, on Dec. 2.

CLAY, LISTON IGNORED

Machen Listed As Logical Contender In New Ratings

NEW YORK (AP) — Ernie Terrell of Chicago was named No. 1 contender for the world's heavyweight title by the World Boxing Association yesterday.

Former champion Floyd Patterson of New York was listed second in the latest monthly ratings. He was followed by George Chuvalo of Toronto and Eddie Machen of Portland, Ore. Clay was not listed in the top 10. Neither was Sonny Liston, whom Clay defeated for the title.

Terrell was to have fought Cleveland Williams for the WBA heavyweight title, but Williams was shot and wounded during a fracas with a policeman in Houston Nov. 29. He has been removed from the ratings for an indefinite period.

The WBA said it appears that Machen is the logical replacement for Williams in the championship bout. The Machen-Terrell winner apparently would meet the winner of the fight between Patterson and Chuvalo, scheduled for Jan. 29 in New York.

Machen fought a draw with Williams in 1962 at Houston and lost a 12-round decision to Patterson in Sweden last summer.

Light-heavyweight champion Willie Pastrano of Miami Beach, Fla., was named Boxer-of-the-Month by the WBA for his dramatic come-from-behind technical knockout over Terry Downes of London last Nov. 30.

The ratings:

The FISHIN' FOOL

By RALPH STEVENS
I-J Fish and Game Writer

Excuses Vary On Poor Fishing But Some Areas Still Produce

What a variety of excuses are given when bass production slows up. The tides are too low or too fast; high winds and rough water, and such. Yet, when the pessimistic are general, nearly always there is an area where fishing was good. Like, for example, last Tuesday. Joe Nerviani of Joe's Launching at Santa Venetia reported only three boats out of his place on Monday; one boat unloaded nine dandy bass, the other two boats had none. Considering that better than 80 bass were unloaded at Joe's Launching over the weekend, the only excuse that will account for the sudden drop in production is that the tides were very weak. Historically, fishing takes a nose dive when tidal flow is soft, and, in all sections of the San Pablo Bay, a series of minus tides dooms results.

It's a fallacy to condemn all areas during slow or minus tides, and inexcusable to judge the actual conditions by only one report. The two skiffs that pulled blanks would report fishing positively poor because they caught no fish. The three men in the third boat would attest that fishing was wonderful, so there you are.

LET'S CITE another case history. Several fishermen insisted that the upper San Pablo Bay—by Buoys 8, 10, 14—was practically vacant of bass. But, on Monday, Johnny Sivers, out of Dowrelio's Crockett harbor, didn't find it so when he boated four fine sturgeon and 15 stripers to 28 pounds.

On Tuesday the San Pablo Bay was calm and clear. Tidal flow was still lazy, but there was no minus tide. Could be that by the time you read this column conditions will have improved.

AN UNSIGNED card came in my mail on Tuesday. The message was short: "Why in heck don't you write about the fine fishing in the Delta region. It's red hot right now."

Sorry, I can't agree. To make certain, however, I contacted Mrs. Louie Patrick, of Patrick's Resort on 3-mile slough.

To my question, the very honest Mrs. Patrick said: "I know, Ralph. I've heard the same glowing reports. For the life of me I can't understand it. It has been very slow with us here for a long time. We have had boats out, testing nearly every spot in this area."

So there you are; figure it out for yourself. There is no doubt about this being the time of year that historically fishing in most of the back-country warms up. Perhaps it will by the weekend.

THE FISH and game people observed and counted three-and-a-half million ducks and almost 700,000 geese supposedly now wintering in the local haunts. But, it would appear that they weren't being shot by our local nimrods. Very, very slow in the upper San Pablo Bay, the Napa marshes, or the Suisun marshes.

It will be odd if duck and goose hunting doesn't liven up over this weekend, and chances are the catching of bass in all sections will warm up between now and the weekend.

Patriots Prep For Title Game

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Patriots have resumed preparations for their Eastern Division title came with the Buffalo Bills Dec. 20.

Despite a light snowfall yesterday, Coach Mike Holovak worked his American Football League team for about an hour and made plans to hold brief workouts daily through Friday.

"We're in better shape physically now than we have been for many weeks," he said. "Except for defensive back Dick Felt, who won't play for the rest of the season, we haven't a player who isn't running at top speed or close to it. I hope it will be that way Dec. 20."

Name Butkus Top Lineman

NEW YORK (UPI) — Crewcut Dick Butkus, an All-America selection as Illinois center the last two years, yesterday was named 1964 lineman of the year by United Press International.

The 6-foot-3, 237-pound Chicago native collected a total of 108 points to outdistance Notre Dame end Jack Snow, who totalled 20 points, by a substantial margin in the balloting conducted among 259 sportswriters and sportscasters.

Butkus, 21, the only repeating All-America, plays both ways. On defense he figures in more bone bruising tackles than any of his teammates and on offense he centers the ball.

A top draft pick in both professional leagues, Butkus chose to sign with the hometown Chicago Bears of the National Football League even though the New York Jets offered him more money. The Denver Broncos of the American Football League made him their first pick but sold their rights to the Jets.

Experiment: 3 Refs Work In Cage Game

DAVIDSON, N.C. (AP) —Few of the 4,000 fans noticed it, but three officials worked the Furman-Davidson Southern Conference basketball game Tuesday night. Two officials have been used heretofore.

The game was the first of 10 this season in which the conference will experiment with three referees.

"It definitely will give us better coverage of the game," said Bunn Hackney, conference supervisor of officials who charted the game from the press box. "Whether the extra coverage is worth the extra cost is something we'll have to determine."

The three officials, Art Capper, Jimmy Long and Harry Bushkar, called 36 fouls, 18 on each team, as Davidson won 113-82.

Centropolis Plan Drafted For Downtown Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The City Planning Department and businessmen's groups have introduced plans for changing downtown Los Angeles into a Centropolis — a centralized city with skyscrapers, malls, subways and double-decked pedestrian walkways.

The planning department and the Central City Committee worked for six years on a master plan unveiled Wednesday at a luncheon attended by 100 business and civic leaders.

Robert L. Gordon, president of the Downtown Business Men's Assn., told the gathering that in the past six years 600 million dollars in new buildings and renovations have gone into the Central City area.

The master plan calls for creating a mall along Broadway for almost six blocks and along Seventh Street for nine blocks.

Ways of implementing the plan are now under study.

Human Rights Day Declared In California

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown, in connection with Human Rights Day today has declared that all Californians should 'practice tolerance and live together in peace with one another as good neighbors."

In a statement yesterday, Brown said.

"For all Californians, Human Rights Day . . . has a specific significance this year. It commemorates the adoption of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights by the United Nations in 1948 . . .

"Here at home we will work to make California the leader in achieving a society which is consistent with the principles of the Declaration. I ask all Californians to become familiar with the Declaration, and to practice tolerance, and live together in peace with one another as good neighbors."

HONORS FROM SANTA CLAUS

Santa himself in the person of Robert Huber highlighted yesterday's Christmas tea for the Social Service Auxiliary of Marin by presenting flowers to Mrs. M. J. Cordone, left, for her work with United Crusade and Mrs. Lawrence Walsh, a charter member. At the tea table is Mrs. Edward Ravizza, president. "The Twelve Days of Christmas" was the theme for the event held at Fanjeaux Hall on the Dominican College campus in San Rafael. (Independent-Journal photo)

Greens Sale Will Have Dickens Theme

The 19th Greens Sale of the Decorations Guild of the Marin Art and Garden Center will be held tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday with a Dickens Christmas card theme. Hours for the sale are 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. tomorrow, and 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

The sale which benefits the center is staffed by volunteer members.

For sale will be fresh greens, cones and ribbons, all kinds of wreaths both fresh and dried, as well as handmade trees, plaques, kissing balls, swags, yule logs, candle holders and novelties.

Marion Hayes Cain, the story book lady, will be in the Livermore Room Friday and Saturday at 1 p.m. and at 1:30 on both those days, William Murray of Greenbrae has arranged for Santa Claus to visit with the children.

MRS. WILLIAM A. MILLEN, chairman of the Greens Sale, will be assisted by Mrs. J. J. Navas and Mrs. Andre Claeys. Mrs. Peter P. Schubert and Mrs. M. C. Jones are directing the decorations for the Sugar Plum Tree in the Livermore Room. Mrs. H. C. Armstrong and Mrs. R. L. Hibbett have decorated the Livermore Room around the Bavarian village scene loaned to the Decorations Guild by August Oldag. Each artistically designed house is a perfectly scaled replica of an actual dwelling.

The Decorations Guild building has been decorated by Mrs. Arvi Backman, Mrs. Navas and Mrs. S. Leroy Winters. Chairmen of the Christmas Cafe (hot coffee, tea, and cookies) in the Northgate Building are Mrs. John A. Kauscha and Mrs. Richard Allen.

Mrs. Helen Quilitch is in charge of cutting the greens and Mrs. C. R. Yopes, Mrs. Stanley J. Steer and Mrs. C. J. Bergstrom are directing the pricing, staffing the sales rooms and the cashiers. Posters were made by Mrs. M. W. Milot, telephoning was done by Mrs. Melville S. Holmes and publicity by Mrs. R. F. Parker. Mrs. Robert L. Tuckey and Mrs. Harold Parent are making all sizes and colors in bows for the sale. Mr. John A. Kauscha has made authentic old English lamps and posts which will be used to light the area and help create the Dickens Christmas card theme.

ENTERTAINMENT CONSISTING of Christmas music and carolers will be provided under the direction of Mesdames Russell Smith, Arthur W. Feidler and H. Gordon Beesley.

The handmade corsages to be given to those bringing homemade pies, cakes, cookies, etc. to the Christmas Cupboard were made by Mrs. Eugene Lloyd. The corsages for sale on the Corsage Tree were made by Mrs. Henry E. Picard.

Mrs. Fred Sloat who has been busy making yule logs to send to England is now making them for the Greens Sale.

The Pixie Parents, under the direction of Mesdames Neil Janess, Morton Willard, Fred Dean, Clyde Rassie and Peter Rice, are staffing the Christmas Cupboard in the Northgate building. This will be stocked with pies, cakes, cookies, fruit and nut breads, candies and other tempting baked goods supplied by the members of the Marin Art and Garden Center.

Holly Ball Holds Surprise For Club

By MOLLY MARIN

ANNOUNCEMENT of the engagement of president Mrs. Cecil Brown to Vincent L. White of Mill Valley at the Outdoor Art Club's "Holly Ball" Saturday was not only a surprise to members but to Lois herself.

She had received her ring the night before the ball, and when she was helping with preparations at the clubhouse someone spied her ring. At the ball chairman Mrs. A. Leonard Bjorklund Jr. called attention to the ring — and the secret was out.

A resident of Mill Valley for 17 years, she has two children, Sandra, a sophomore at Tamalpais High School, and Michael, an eighth grader at Edna Maguire School. Mr. White, who is assistant chief of the division of industrial safety department of the State of California, has two children, Norman White, a student at the College of Marin, and Mrs. William Kerr, whose husband is a lieutenant at Camp Pendleton, San Diego. No date has been set for the wedding.

Planning cocktail parties preceding Saturday night's Christmas in Marin black tie dance dinner at Peacock Gap Country Club are Messrs. and Mesdames Thomas Belshe of Kent Woodlands; Herbert Briggin, Mill Valley; John Raisins of Tiburon; Albert Gedman of Woodside formerly of Marin and the Mike Mahoneys of San Francisco. Also giving a cocktail party before the dance are the Thomas Drohan's of Tiburon who will entertain the John Hoffmires and K. L. Rices of Tiburon. Dr. and Mrs. Walter Coulson of Kentfield have also invited guests in for cocktails.

MR. AND MRS. Nathan Udell Jr. of Marin Country Club will have family members with them during the holiday season. Spending the holidays at home will be their son, Martin, who attends the University of Redlands and Mrs. Udell's mother, Mrs. Margaret Pierce of Redlands, Mr. Udell's mother and sister Mrs. Nathan Udell Sr. and Miss Irene Udell of San Diego.

GINGERBREAD, lollipops and candy canes will decorate the sugar and spice Christmas tree on the occasion of the Christmas luncheon which Mrs. Andrew Stockton will hostess in her Kent Woodlands home on Monday. Mrs. Stockton is noted for her unusual collection of holiday trees each year which are placed in separate rooms of her home. The artificial trees, more than six feet tall, are made of styrofoam, fiberglass and macaroni.

Attending the luncheon will be Mesdames Thomas Gilboy, Arthur Lindauer, Richard Williams, Charles Woods, Ray Braghetta, John Galvin and Robert Pritchard.

Mrs. Stockton's holiday schedule includes a family dinner on Dec. 20 and an open house for 50 friends on Christmas day.

MAYOR AND MRS. ROBERT D. Carrow of Novato are announcing the birth of a baby girl on Dec. 4. The baby, as yet unnamed, has two sisters, Leslie and Tamara. They are the grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Givens of Novato and Dr. M. M. Carrow of Minnesota. Dr. Carrow will arrive next week to visit with his family over the holidays.

TWENTY WOMEN celebrated luncheon at Peacock Gap Country Club to honor Mrs. Jacob Greenfield on her birthday. Among guests were Mrs. Greenfield's sister, Mrs. Merrill Herring of Larkspur, and her two daughters, Mrs. Sam Goldbaum and Mrs. Martin Colvin, both of San Rafael.

NEW RESIDENTS of Pelican Hill, Tiburon, are Mr. and Mrs. Colin F. Grist and their son, Gregory, who have rented a new apartment on the Hill. The Grists recently moved here from Vancouver, B. C. Mr. Grist is with Laurentide Leasing Co.

MRS. CECIL BROWN

Floor Committee For Ball Named

Members of the floor committee for the third Marin Debutante Ball have been announced by the ball committee. The ball will be held at Peacock Gap Country Club on Dec. 19, beginning at 10 p.m.

Messrs. William Bricca, Frank Baumgarten, Philip Brown, Hugh Carruthers, Dewy Donnell, Patrick Foster, Richard Gatterdam, Harry Johnson, Raymond Hornby Jr., Russell Keil, Edgar Lindner, Robert Menzies, William Mosden, William Milliken, William Niccolls, James Pressley, Sanford Pagunucci, Leon Smith, Oliver Stine, Ralph Noah, J. H. Dollar, J. H. B. Ellis, Russell Johnson, William Schoenfeld, Mozart Kaufman, Boris Lakusta, Ned Griffith, Robert Ingram, Drs. John Manwaring and James Green and the Rev. Lewellyn A. White.

Ernest Mendenhall Jr. of Belvedere will present the debutantes again this year. William Niccolls is chairman of the floor committee.

Scouts Take Part In Celebration

Some 250 San Rafael girls participated in a Girl Scout holiday celebration in the San Rafael High School auditorium yesterday afternoon. In an opening ceremony, Mrs. Peter Sommer, neighborhood chairman for the San Francisco Bay Girl Scout Council, welcomed the nine Girl Scout troops, their friends, and representatives of the Marin County Chapter, American Red Cross.

Gifts made by the girls for the residents of the Sonoma State Home were accepted by Mrs. E. Gould Ingram, chairman of volunteers for the local Red Cross Chapter.. Mrs. George Alpers, member of the Marin County Red Cross Adult Advisory Committee, thanked the girls. The audience joined Senior and Cadette Scouts in singing holiday songs, Marsha Wagner led community singing and Wendy Magladry played the accordion.

At the conclusion of the program, candy canes were distributed to the scouts by Mrs. Victors Furst, San Francisco Bay Girl Scout Council area chairman for Marin County.

Rohner-Soutar Vows Traded At St. Anselm's Ceremony

St. Anselm's Church in Ross was the setting on Nov. 28 for the wedding of Jane Soutar of San Francisco and David R. Rohner of San Anselmo.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Soutar of Glasgow, Scotland.

Dr. Barry E. Sharrow of Oakland served the bridegroom as best man and ushering was Marty Marcucci of San Anselmo.

The bride, who is the sister of John, Isobel, Avril and Robert Soutar of Glasgow, was educated in Scotland schools and is employed with the Federal Reserve Bank in San Francisco.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Rohner of San Anselmo, was graduated from Marin Catholic High School and the University of San Francisco. He is employed with Western Electric Co. He is the brother of Sister Mary David Eugene of the Holy Names.

School Events

The Katharine Branson School has a weekend of events planned for the holiday season. On Saturday the Phantasticks will present productions of "Aria Da Capo" and "The Boor" at 8 p.m. at the school gym. On Sunday evening the traditional Christmas carol service will be held around the lighted tree in front of the main residence. An open house in the dining room for parents and friends will follow. On Dec. 17 Christmas dinner will be held and skits following.

Smart Living

By Charles H. Bellach

CHILDREN vs. FURNITURE

One of the saddest expressions I hear when showing furniture goes something like this, "We just want something to get by with until the children are grown." Does this mean that all children are to be deprived of the pleasure of congenial surroundings during their formative years? Certainly we should be practical but I can never go along with the idea that beauty can only be appreciated by adults and that children are by nature savages.

This certainly does not mean that in decorating a home containing small children you should use the most delicate fabrics and the daintiest furniture possible. We can show you a happy compromise between this and the cold practicality of a hospital waiting room if you will just consult with our decorating staff.

Did you know, for example, that new treatment of fine fabrics can make them impervious to stains even from oil borne liquids? Wood finishes are tougher and lamps can be hung out of reach of toddlers. Separate living areas are assigned in the home for youngsters' activities keeping them completely separate from more formal entertaining. Having such areas of their own and a hand in the selection of furniture to go in them gives the child a feeling of pride and a sense of responsibility toward his home.

When talking to a person who wants to wait until his children are grown before buying nice furniture, I am tempted to ask at just what stage in the child's development will he suddenly acquire a love of beauty and respect for property—his own as well as that of others. If these traits are worthwhile, and I am sure you will agree that they are, then the place to develop them is in the home and as early as possible.

Why deprive the youngsters of one of the greatest pleasures in life—a beautiful, congenial home to be proud of and a place to bring their friends? Good furniture, built to last for years, is your finest investment in the future happiness of your family.

Angelic Yule Is Theme Of Dinner Dance

The fourth Christmas in Marin black tie dinner dance will be held on Saturday evening at Peacock Gap Country Club.

"Have An Angelic Christmas" is the theme for this year's subscription dinner dance and each guest is to bring a gift for a handicapped child at Sonoma State Hospital.

Irene E. Russo Becomes Bride

In a 4 p.m. ceremony on Dec. 4 at the Dolphin Boatel in San Rafael, Irene E. Russo became the bride of Mel Giambastiani.

Judge David Baty officiated for the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rocco Russo of San Rafael, and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Amelio Giambastiani of Point Reyes Station.

Attending the couple were Mrs. Shirley Riddle, the bridegroom's sister and James Russo, brother of the bride.

A CHRISTMAS GATHERING

The Larkspur Woman's Club members were on hand at Peacock Gap Country Club yesterday for a luncheon to mark the Yuletide season, and rather than a gift exchange they collected a silver offering for community charities and scholarships. From left are Mesdames Albert Heston, president, who outlined the year's plans; Olive Lidel, chairman, and Carlotta Thomas, secretary.

A Treasure Island In Suburban Marin

Preserve Not Just For Birds

Story and Photos
By ELLEN BRY

There are clams, crabs, barnacles along the shoreline. Raccoons come in the night to the marshy area. Thousands of miniature fish live in the fresh water there. A buck, doe and fawn came to visit a few days ago.

It's a treasure island of nature saved from surrounding suburbia. Up to 500 person a month, mostly youngsters, visit what used to be known as the "goat lady's place."

Two goats remain on the property, living grass cutters who sidle up to visiting children to be petted. They belonged to Mrs. Rose Rodriguez Da Fonte Verall who for years lived on the nine-acre property.

She gave the land to the Marin Conservation League; now it is owned and operated by the National Audubon Society. Offshore are about 900 acres of water owned and controlled by the society so that during the winter months the thousands of birds stopping on their way south will not be disturbed.

Children shiver with anticipation when they occasionally are allowed to feed grain to the ducks, grebes and other birds along the shore, who will come to within 25 feet of humans.

But Audubon naturalists Lynn Stafford and Henry Houghton are careful to point out that feeding the birds is a rare treat done only so the kids can get a closer look at the ducks. Naturalists stress that wild animals can get along quite well without human help.

"We are aiming at an appreciation an understanding by children of nature and conservation of plant and animal life," Stafford explains.

A tour of the Audubon grounds begins at the parking lot off Tiburon Boulevard, overlooked by apartments on the other side of the road. Naturalists explain the difference between human and wild environments. Even the goats get into the act, when naturalists point out that only so many goats could exist on a given amount of grass because food is a limiting factor of life.

The linking of action in nature, from a forest fire to the erosion of earth as a result of burned off ground cover, is shown in a demonstration in which youngsters participate.

Each of two children pour out water from a can onto earth, one portion of it covered with a heavy growth of grass, the other barren. An acute case of erosion sets in on the bare ground and can be seen immediately by youngsters.

Naturalists lead young students on a walk around the knoll of the property where they see lichen on a tree and find out what it is. They watch a bushtit in a tree and see its nest.

They hang over the railing of a platform built over the marshy area and stare into the clear water to see tiny fish. They learn how birds come to stalk the fish. Both bird and fish eat the insects. A chain of life becomes real, not an academic exercise.

They come to the beach where naturalists point out the egrets, herons and sand pipers in the low-tide mud between Strawberry and the Audubon property.

Youngsters look at the shoreline cliffs and can see where in ages past the water was higher, where clams swirled out holes in the rocks where they lived.

The beach comes alive with the delighted laughter of children who make a game of turning over rocks to find the thousands of tiny crabs hiding underneath.

"We are helping children to discover the relation between the climate, the soil, the water," Stafford says.

Youngsters pick up the shells, leaves, rocks, branches and the usual paraphanalia of childhood collectors but grudgingly drop all that can't easily be hidden in pockets when naturalists explain the idea of the Audubon preserve is just that:

To preserve a small island of nature, naturalness, where humans barely intrude and never take from the wilderness.

WHAT'S FOR LUNCH—Devon Smith, from Old Mill School, wanted to get a photo of the boat at the Audubon Society nature center. The goat wanted to get her lunch.

Satellite Phone Service Gains

WASHINGTON (AP) — Regular transatlantic telephone communications via a satellite may start between Europe and North America as early as next May.

The Communications Satellite Corp. (COMSAT) said in a statement filed Tuesday with the Federal Communications Commission that its first satellite, known as the Early Bird, will be launched in March.

It is intended to hover 22,300 miles above the equator over the Cape Verde Islands in the Atlantic and will be capable of transmitting television, computer data, telegrams and two-way telephone conversations.

Telephone service will probably be the first operational use, COMSAT said, since the ground stations are geared to it.

Crab Prices Drop In Marin

This brings the consumer price from $1 to 60 or 70 cents a pound, said S. J. Sturiale, owner of Sturiale Fish Co. in Sausalito.

Reason for the drop, he said, is due to the crabs coming in from up north at a cheaper price and local fishermen, working San Francisco to Point Arena, have to meet the price in order to keep fishing.

Campus Turmoil Involves More Than Free Speech

Those sympathetic with the student demonstrators at University of California at Berkeley argue that freedom of speech and political activity must be protected.

We are not criticizing man's continued insistence on freedom to speak and to worship.

But there is a time and place for everything.

At the Big Game, for example, thousands can yell their heads off, throw confetti, and roll a student down the stadium seats with scarcely a raised eyebrow. Commotion and stunts are expected. It's all a part of the "rules of the game."

But such commotion in a quiet residential area, especially near a hospital, could bring a charge of disturbing the peace.

Even in society, where freedom of speech and assembly prevails, certain "rules of the game" must be followed. Otherwise, chaos will result. We could not, for example, condone mob demonstrations that blocked hotel lobbies or took over private offices on auto row.

All California taxpayers have an interest in the University of California. We pay taxes to provide youth a place to study and to add to their experience, but within the framework of certain rules and regulations.

If there are aspiring orators or actors among the students at UC, we are sure they can join some debating society or drama group to give vent to their need to pop off or show off.

If students do not want to abide by the university rules, they should try to negotiate for a change in rules. If those negotiations fail, they should get off campus and not try to impose their will by physical show of force.

No one is advocating the stifling of free speech.

We merely repeat that the freedom to speak and to assemble must be exercised within the rules of the game.

In the adult world, the freedom to speak and assemble extend only to the point where laws of libel and slander or disturbing the peace or invasion of privacy take over.

Students have no special license to flaunt the rules of the game at their institution, especially now that the rules have been relaxed considerably since the demonstrations erupted more than two months ago.

Human Rights Day Finds Many Hoping

Today is the day set aside by the United Nations as Human Rights Day. Among man's aspirations are other things than wealth and property. The ringing cry of the French Revolution was "Liberty, Equality and Brotherhood." It ushered in an entirely new concept of history, before it degenerated into a blood bath.

It seems strange that echoes of the plaintive voices of the ragged rabble of Paris should still need to be heard almost 200 years later. In our country we have achieved liberty. We have reasonable equality of opportunity—unless you happen to be impoverished, illiterate or colored.

But the brotherhood part! We've got a long road to travel and time grows short. The world becomes steadily smaller and populations are increasing by leaps and bounds. We must find a way to break down the narrow confines of creed and color and truly become members of one race—mankind.

VOTERS ARE MODERATE

Unruh Warns Demos Against Unrealistic Plans, Petty Feuds

By EDWIN S. CAPPS

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh (D - Inglewood) has sounded a pretty stern warning for California Democrats.

IN HIS USUAL direct manner, Unruh laid it on the line to the Democratic Associates of Sacramento why the party lost a U.S. Senate seat and three seats in the State Assembly, despite a 1.3-million-vote victory by President Lyndon B. Johnson.

In print, the speech said the problem with the Democratic Party was "complacency and disunity." But the generous between-the-lines offering laid the biggest part of the blame to Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

Unruh said Parkinson's law is working — Gaylord Parkinson, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, that is. This is a plan designed to elect five new Republican assemblymen every two years until 1970, at which time the GOP would have a majority and take over the decennial reapportionment job.

The GOP captured four new seats in the November election but lost one.

"But that is a good enough showing by the Republicans to give pause to any realistic and concerned Democrat," Unruh warned.

The speaker said a feeling of invincibility began to creep into the party after majorities in the Legislature were increased in 1960 and 1962. He said the leaders got the idea they could do anything they liked between elections, they didn't need organization, didn't need a good legislative record, and could afford whatever caliber of political leadership that happened to be around and suited them.

"AND IF WHAT IS around does not personally suit you, then you can carve all you want to in public because we have a wide enough margin to spare so we are free to act out all our hostilities, public and private, regardless of the effect it has on the party," Unruh said.

Unruh said the party must realize that the California electorate—in both parties—is fundamentally moderate. But he said the orderly progress and planning of the Democratic Party fell apart in 1963 by the over-ambitious programs of the Brown administration.

"A program was proffered which seemed not for passage but for posterity," he said.

Labor presented a program that was too ambitious, Unruh said, but they were encouraged to believe it could be passed, and were understandably disappointed when it didn't. Civil rights groups called for action which was unsaleable to California voters, but this nevertheless was passed—the Rumford Housing Act, which since has been repealed by the voters.

"LEADERSHIP REQUIRES taking the people into account; explaining the problems of government in terms which correspond to their own experience and offering solutions which move them forward gradually," he said.

Unruh said he hoped that, in the 1965 session, the troops on the firing line would be permitted to make the decisions "without undue interference from appointees who never have to face a California electorate."

The speaker noted the coming session will be a difficult one, at best, with the necessity of raising taxes, and the party had better close ranks and stay with the people before Parkinson's law advanced too far.

Ouster Demanded For U. C. Teachers

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Has the Berkeley campus become the suburb of Budapest or Hanoi, perhaps a city in Cuba or Panama? Are these more of the communist led riots we have seen erupt around the world of late. Who are the teachers who encourage these young animals, are they Moscow or Peiping trained?

Let us have some names, and after the names let us see editorial pressure to have their teaching credentials revoked. With regard to the rioters themselves, I am sure that some of those students who were unable to be admitted because of over-crowded classrooms would be happy to reapply and fill the vacancies caused by expulsion.

One other thought; Who put up the $80,000 bail? Was it Harry Bridges, SNCC, CORE, the Hallinans, or just some mis-guided liberal looking through rose colored glasses?

Cancer Cartoon Held One-Sided Viewpoint

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your "political" cartoon on yesterday's editorial page is an example of what great harm can be done, though unwittingly, by an incomplete presentation by the press of a controversial situation.

You may not have intended it, but the timing of this cartoon's appearance makes it appear as a condemnation of all controversial or unorthodox cancer treatments—at a time when the Krebiozen issue has been receiving renewed attention in the nation-wide press.

Some study of the matter has convinced me that unorthodox treatments cannot be lumped together and labeled "quackery." Your readers may or may not know that Senator Paul Douglas of Illinois (for one) is strongly in favor of prompt, thorough testing of Krebiozen, by the "double-blind" method—and that the substance has been genuinely helpful in many cancer cases. This is documented in Herbert Bailey's book, "A Matter of Life or Death" (Putnam).

When I wrote to Sen. Doug- last office during this last year, I received a very informative series of reprints from the Denver Post, giving an encapsulated history of the whole matter. I recommend that those interested write for these articles.

The harm done by cartoons such as you published yesterday lies largely in the fact that the number of readers likely to follow up and learn the other side of the issue may be regrettably small, compared to great number of readers who saw, and will remember, only the message of the cartoon.

You are certainly to be commended for your promptness and sense of fair play in this matter.

San Rafael Drama Students Praised

Editor, Independent-Journal:

It is with a deep feeling of pride and gratitude that I write this letter to commend Mr. Lew Levinson of the San Rafael High School Drama Department and those sensitive young people who took part in the presentation of "The Diary of Anne Frank."

With a great deal of empathy and dedication, these boys and girls took on the meaningful experience of recalling for themselves and those in the audience the dark holocaust of Europe during the 1940s.

The attention they paid to the endless details of scenery, lighting, sound effects, props and acting showed their understanding they had to carry out and they fulfilled it with a respect and maturity that will leave them, as it did the audience, just a little more enriched by the whole experience.

Redistricting Done By Stone-Wall Board

Editor, Independent-Journal:

On Tuesday, Dec. 1, I sat in on the meeting of the Marin County Board of Supervisors which approved the Leydecker redistricting plan. It was clear, when the meeting opened, that the board was not truly interested in hearing from anyone who opposed their plan....

I would propose the organizing of a Committee for Fair Redistricting except that I know a stone wall when I see one, just as I know what a lame duck supervisory board is, although Mr. Behr didn't seem to, on Dec. 1. In my opinion, Mr. Leydecker, Mr. Behr, and Mr. Gnoss comprise a stone wall. And on this issue the newly-elected Ernest Kettenhofen seems prepared to join them, although they don't need him.

As they explained to the visiting voters, the board needs only a majority of three to pass any proposal it favors. This sounded like a clear warning that the above-mentioned supervisors would have their way—this voter was not deluded by Mr. Behr's and Mr. Leydecker's assurances that all the supervisors were interested in all the county. If they had been they would not have approved the Leydecker plan.

Alas for those of us in the Fourth District in all its scattered parts. However hard Mr. Storer may try to serve those of us who elected him and those new constituents in far off places who never asked for inclusion in his district and whose elected officials strenuously object to such inclusion, we will all know how it feels, if this plan holds, as I am assured that it will, to be in a minority whose protests go unheeded.

Reader Challenges Criticism Of Campus

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I wish to speak to your Dec. 4, 1964, editorial (It's about time someone took command at U.C.). In view of the benefits derived by your commercial enterprise under the United States Constitution First Amendment, I find it rather ironical that you criticize those who are less successful in exercising these same rights.

The Mediator and the Philosopher were pressured to escalate their dilemma from reason to rigidity. Perhaps now they realize the immensity of their ill-advised response by force to a legitimate protest by responsible political citizens.

I hope that future Independent - Journal editorials could help create a more reconciliatory climate.

Burch's Ouster Try Logical For GOP Moderate Leadership

WASHINGTON—Sen. Barry Goldwater is absolutely right in saying that the attacks on Dean Burch as chairman of the Republican National Committee are directed far more against Goldwater than Burch.

They are. The attacks on Burch are misdirected in that he had little to do with the defeat of Senator Goldwater.

BUT IT IS NOT irrational for the Republican governors and others to want to get rid of Mr. Burch.

He can be removed as "chairman" of the party, but Goldwater cannot be removed as "titular leader."

Burch is the symbol of the leadership which resulted in such disastrous defeat. He was never chosen by the Republican National Committee; he was the appointee of the Republican nominee.

Since there can be no chosen national leader of the Republican Party for another four years, one way the party can show that it does not intend to remain an instrument of the extreme right is to free itself from the chairmanship of the man appointed to make it so.

That's what the Republican governors said at their Denver meeting—and it makes sense for them.

The party's overriding need right now is to reunite around leaders who are near to its political center. Surely this is the lesson of the November voting. Goldwater organized Citizens for Goldwater, he organized Democrats for Goldwater, he organized Southerners for Goldwater, but he failed to organize enough Republicans for Goldwater.

IT WAS understandable that the day after John F. Kennedy won the presidency in 1960, Goldwater should argue his "Nixon must go" drive on the ground that Nixon "offered the voters an insufficient choice." If the Nixon leadership of "insufficient choice" was discredited by losing to Kennedy by only 112,000 votes, what has to be the verdict on the Goldwater leadership of "too much choice" which lost to Johnson by 16 million votes and which won the support of 8 million fewer voters than Nixon?

In that detached period before he decided to run, Senator Goldwater told me that he would consider his nomination a disservice to the cause of conservatism unless he polled 45 per cent of the popular vote. He polled less than 39 per cent.

There is, in my judgment, no clear evidence that the verdict of last Nov. 3 was a rejection of responsible conservatism. This is especially true because Goldwater immersed his candidacy in so many hurtful issues totally irrelevant to conservatism.

SURELY THE objective of the party, as it seeks to recover from the 1964 calamity, is not to drive anybody out of the party, but to free it from domination by either extreme. That is what the Republican governors are setting out to accomplish. It is an essential beginning.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

LBJ, Wilson Plan 2 Major Parleys

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

With President Lyndon B. Johnson's unannounced blessing, the fast-traveling British leader plans to sound out the Kremlin's new rulers on the prospects of immediately setting up two international conferences.

THE FIRST is a Geneva meeting, similar to those held in 1954 and 1962, to work out an East-West political settlement for ending the war in South Vietnam.

The second, at the U.N., would be called for the signing of an agreement to halt the spread of nuclear weapons by Russia, the U.S. and Britain.

According to a position paper prepared for the Johnson-Wilson talks, East-West foreign ministers would attend the conference on South Vietnam.

If there were no major East-West crises, the heads of state would gather at the U.N. for the signing of the nuclear pact. This would be President Johnson's first meeting with the Kremlin rulers.

Since the November election, a special presidential panel headed by Roswell Gilpatric, former deputy secretary of defense, has drafted the pact designed to stop nuclear proliferation.

THIS SECRET DRAFT is being studied in Moscow and London, where it has been approved "in principle," although the provision on enforcement is still in dispute.

President Johnson set the stage for Wilson to ask for another Geneva-type conference on South Vietnam by officially charging the North Vietnames, with violating the Geneva ac cord in sending their forces through the territory of Laos.

By making these official charges and calling them to the attention of the British, co-chairmen of the original Geneva conference, the president gave Wilson the legal excuse needed to press for the meeting.

IN HIS ADVANCE - MAN, peace-making role, Wilson hopes to bolster his sagging prestige at home and ward off a new "no confidence" vote.

With only a four-vote margin in Parliament, the Labor prime minister could be forced to hold new election at any time should his popularity dip much lower.

Dr. Martin Luther King is going to Africa during the holiday season with the full blessing of the White House.

The government - sponsored trip was hurriedly approved by Secretary of State Dean Rusk last week following a call from the White House instructing him to prepare King's itinerary.

The State Department's Passport Office also was directed by the caller to issue a passport for Bayard Rustin, one-time organizer for the Young Communist League and in 1963 deputy director of the spectacular civil rights march on Washington. Rustin plans to accompany King to Norway, where the latter will receive the Nobel Peace Prize, and then to Africa.

The trip for King and the passport for Rustin were approved over strong opposition by State Department security officers.

THESE security - conscious authorities wanted to fully review the two militant civil rights leaders' FBI files. The unexpected White House calls ended that review without any official report being made to either Secretary Rusk or the White House.

Assistant Secretary G. Mennen Williams, in charge of African affairs and long a strong supporter of King, is credited with instigating the swift White House intervention.

As exclusively reported in this column on Dec. 4, the King - Rustin trip was advocated by Williams, despite strong misgivings by other State Department officials.

RUSTIN IS ONE of King's chief speech writers. Friends of King are saying Rustin importantly assisted him in writing the address he will deliver at the Nobel Prize ceremony this week.

Corte Madera's Civic Tree Called Strictly Council's Baby

ANYBODY WHO thinks the relationship between government and religion in the United States is a small problem just has not seen the Corte Madera official Christmas tree.

Christmas will survive, somehow. But the town has the only tree in the Bay Area, perhaps, wearing a sack dress at night.

Besides, the thing obviously violates some kind of sign ordinance provision. Municipal governments are usually a little lax about such things at Christmas time, but if an auto agency had produced the town's Coney Island drunken parachute drop effect, the town attorney would have been quietly asked to take action.

Here, interestingly enough, is one of the few places where the buck stops with the town council. Often, when there is a snafu, the hired hand, the town manager, must take the rap in any local government. The elected officials win the praise.

BUT IN THIS CASE Town Mgr. Arthur H. Brandow pleaded with the councilmen to find some other tree. The council put $700 in the Christmas tree fund suitably to decorate the city.

Brandow's comment was that the large tree near the Town Hall annex was very nice, but not Christmassy. "It's too bulbous," he claimed.

He picked another tree. But the councilmen took a field trip and decided that the bulbous tree must do the job. They expressed confidence that Brandow could make a silk purse of it. Brandow grimaced.

"Actually, it looks better than I thought it would," was his remark after the job was completed and lit up. By day, the tree just looks like a big, rugged tree, with a bunch of wires hanging on it.

Since the bulk of Corte Madera's retail trade is produced in the major shopping center, which provides its own Christmas decorations, there is little reason for businessmen to chip in for decorations on major streets in the town, as is seen in other Marin cities.

CHRISTMAS TREE HILL has gained national fame for the fact that it can be lighted to form a Christmas tree, but the custom seems to be dying and the tree looks more ragged each year. This year there may be no organized effort at all.

Volunteer firemen and other friends of city government get together to string lights on the Town Hall, which is really a public safety building, until the public safety building is built.

But the tree is solely the city's baby. The thought seems to be that other cities have Christmas decorations, so so should Corte Madera. Other cities have decorations at least partly to advertise the fact that there are stores in the downtown area on the main drag.

These stores collect a penny in sales tax for the local city for every dollar's worth of goods sold, so the city expense, and often that is small, is actually a kind of investment.

IN THE PAST, Corte Madera has strung lights on a steel pole near the freeway for a Christmas tree effect. At least in that case, there was a cone of colored lights. It looked something like a Christmas tree.

Maybe the whole problem is a job for a committee to study for a year or two and then return with a recommendation. But during that time, there is one thing that could be done. Someone could plant a fairly large tree, with a conical shape, in the town park.

The tree should be a little larger, however, than those which someday will cover the park area. The Women's Club once planted a tree in Larkspur. This year it is being decorated for the first time.

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

Novato residents voted 5-1 in favor of three school financing measures totalling 2.55 million dollars, thus putting the Novato School District on state aid for the first time.

Mill Valley City Council approved removing the garbage dump to a point outside city limits, but left its future location up to the Mill Valley Garbage Co. and county planners. Proposed location near Muir Beach drew opposition.

20 YEARS AGO

Edith S. Waterman, retiring head of the Marin Red Cross Chapter, was honored with a reception and presented with a house trailer by a committee led by Mrs. William D. Fusselman and Mrs. Helen Van Pelt.

Office Yule Party's Demise Brings Back Wild Memories

NEW YORK (AP)—The office Christmas party today is in about the same plight as the whooping crane.

IT ISN'T EXTINCT—but it's in danger of becoming so.

"What were they really like?" they ask curiously about this time of year. "Were they really as wild as the old-timers say they were?"

THAT DEPENDS. The memories of the survivors of office Christmas parties are as undependable as those of the veterans of any other war, and a tendency to gory up the picture develops as the years pass.

Actually, in the old days — say a quarter of a century ago —many office Christmas parties were so sedate that not one member of the staff wound up with a black eye or broken bone. You might not even have had to call the cops.

But the classic, old-fashioned office Christmas celebration—at least as it is fondly recalled by many—was somewhere in between a Roman orgy, a Sioux scalping raid, and the attack on the Basfille.

SOME, OR ALL, of the following events might happen:

Somebody fulfilled the dream of a lifetime and put gin in the office water cooler.

At least 15 employees went up to the boss and told him what they really thought of him—and the boss made a mental note to start off the New Year by giving 15 merit decreases in pay.

Six middle-aged married men suffered ankle sprains chasing the girls from the stenographic pool from desktop to desktop.

By 10 p.m.—the party was supposed to end by 7 o'clock—the place looked like it had been hit by a hurricane, and the office boy was sent out for four more bottles.

BY MIDNIGHT, the boss was wearing mistletoe in his hair, had his arm around the janitor, and was promoting him to executive assistant.

Another fellow wouldn't be heard of until the third of January. Then a telegram would arrive from Montreal or Rio de Janeiro saying: "Where am I? Please send money."

It gave the indoor peasants one day on which to blow off 364 days of accumulated steam. It enabled the boss to find out who really loved him for himself, and who merely gave him lip service the rest of the year. It made the girls feel more like girls and less like typewriting robots.

Today is Thursday, Dec. 10, the 345th day of 1964 with 21 to follow.

The moon is approaching its first quarter. The morning stars are Venus and Mars. The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1817, Mississippi was admitted into the Union as the 20th state.

In 1898, Spain signed the Treaty of Paris officially ending the Spanish American War and giving Guam, Puerto Rico and the Philippines to the U. S.

In 1941, Japanese troops landed on northern Luzon in the Philippines.

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Use Tested Formula When TryingTo Settle Argument

There's more to being a bridge player than knowing how to bid and play.

When your opponents get into an argument they may ask you to settle it for them, and you have to know how to do this with authority. Test your self on this one.

Opening lead — ♡ J

Declarer took the first trick in dummy with the ace of hearts and led a small spade to finesse with the queen. This won, but South still had to lose a trump trick to East.

TWO CLUBS

South also had to lose two clubs, but could ruff his last club in dummy and therefore made his contract.

Dummy began the hostilities: "Why didn't you lead the jack of spades for the first trump finesse? You wouldn't have to lose a trump trick?"

"I made my contract, didn't I?" South pointed out. "If you're not satisfied with winning the rubber you can give the score to me. I'm not proud."

STILL UNHAPPY

North was still unhappy. "You can't lose anything by leading the jack. All you can do is gain. You'd capture the king and discover the bad break. That gives you time to get back to dummy and finesse through the 10. Why aren't you willing to score an extra 30 points without the slightest risk?"

South had an answer to this question. "I played the hand 20 seconds faster by taking only one trump finesse. That would give us more time for bridge if you'd only stop arguing."

That's when they turned to me to settle the argument.

LOST RUBBER

Since I had just lost the rubber I was in no mood to discuss how the opponents could have scored an additional 30 points. "Shut up and deal," I growled.

And there is the lesson, the result of 35 years of practice and study. Those four words are the best way to end a discussion and get the game started again.

When the game ends, you can tell North he was 100 per cent correct. Leading the jack for the first finesse cannot lose but may gain. This play would be crucial if dummy held a third small club instead of one of the low hearts.

DAILY QUESTION

You hold:

♠ A 6 5 2

Answer: Pass.

If you respond on this five-point hand, your partner's next bid may be more spades and you will be even unhappier. The safest way to stay out of trouble with a bad hand and a bad fit is to pass at your first opportunity.

He Helps Run 'Coexistence' Bus Line

By GILES BIXLER

In small, mountainous Afghanistan on the southern border of Russia, a San Rafael man is helping run what might be termed the "coexistence" bus system.

In the capitol City of Kabul, the 300,000 residents use a bus system with a combined fleet of American and Russian buses, each set of buses with its own set of technicians, one trained by the United States, the other supplied by the Soviet Union.

As a transportation adviser to the Afghan government under the U.S. Agency for International Development, Charles J. Hurst of 6 Nunan Place, San Rafael, helped the government set up the bus line through a private Afghan company supported with American loans.

One might expect stresses and strains to arise in such a setup, but Hurst, home on two-month leave, says: "It has worked out quite well, we have not been hampered."

The Russians have supplied buses only, with the technicians to maintain them. Under Hurst the Americans have provided buses and helped the Afghans, through an intensive two-year training program, to transform their system into an efficient regularly scheduled bus service.

When Hurst started as a transportation adviser four years ago, many bus drivers operated "according to how the mood moved them." In Kabul there was no regular bus schedule or bus routes.

"We had to completely change their way of thinking," said Hurst, who says that today 1,600 people, many of them trained by an 11-man team headed by Hurst, are employed by the Kabul bus line as drivers, maintenance men, conductors, cleaners and administrators.

The buses supplied by the Americans were not shipped to Afghanistan ready to drive. Instead they were shipped in what is called "completely knocked down" condition.

The Afghans built the buses, 150 of them so far, from the ground up, including all drilling and fitting, trimmed them out and painted them. This was their training program as conceived by Hurst.

The 11 men training the Afghans were a mixed team of Americans and other foreigners, including Indians and Germans. Their job was completed at about the end of 1962.

About 250 Afghan men have been trained in building and maintenance of buses and now work in a central building in Kabul. They work on both kinds of buses, American and Russian, but Hurst prefers not to discuss the operation as an East-West political affair.

"A mechanic is a mechanic —the same basic skills apply," he says. The Americans have supplied the Afghan company with 150 buses and the Russians 100. The bus system also operates between the principal cities of Afghanistan.

Hurst's job has been to give the Afghans a bus line which they themselves are responsible for and can maintain without outside assistance. With the completion of the final phase of his job, he feels he will have done this.

He will return in January to help the company formulate long-range planning policy and to work out a long-range maintenance program for the buses.

The road-building program in Afghanistan, with which Hurst is not directly connected, is operated on somewhat the same "coexistence" basis. The Russians are building a road from the north to Kabul, the Americans are building one from Kabul to Kandahar in the south and the Russians are building one from Kandahar to Herat in the west.

The Kabul to Kandahar road has cut travel time by bus from three days (subject to weather conditions) to 12 hours.

Hurst has also helped start another company, this one a government monopoly which builds truck chassis in Kandahar. The Kandahar plant assembles American-built truck parts, again from the ground up, and sells the almost complete truck to Afghans.

The Afghan buyers are mostly individual trucking entrepreneurs and they show an amazing variety of approaches to truck-body building and decoration.

"Every truck has an individual paint job and they use every color in the rainbow," said Mrs. Hurst, who is also home on leave with her husband.

Road transport is the main form of mechanized transport in Afghanistan, which makes the bus and truck program a very important part of AID's program in the Southeast Asian country. The country has no railroads.

Afghans make their living mostly from the soil, but despite this and the country's relative isolation from outsiders, Hurst finds the people quite well informed on world affairs.

Hurst, a mechanical engineer, said he hopes to continue with AID after his Afghan job is finished, but both he and his wife say that San Rafael will always be "home" to them, no matter how many months of the year they're away.

Imprisonment Suit Is Filed For $60,000

Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Bradley, 134 North San Pedro Road, Santa Venetia, filing on behalf of their son, Francis E, allege that Edward Margoliash, dance promotor of Ross, and doing business under the name of Ams Enterprises, detained the youth against his will during a fight at the National Guard Armory in Santa Venetia on Dec. 14, 1963.

He suffered injury to his body and nervous system, the suit alleges, and asks $50,000 general damages, and $10,000 exemplary damages.

Records show the riot broke out between Negro and white youths but no arrests were made. About 70 persons were involved, Marin County sheriff's officers said.

TB Test Question Is Given An Answer

"Should I get a skin test or an X-ray?"

When the telephone rings at the San Rafael office of the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn. these days, the odds are good it will be someone asking that question.

So says Dr. Joseph J. Alderson, association president. The calls come from people who want to find out if they have TB, but are unsure if it matters which one of the two methods is used to find out.

The answer is yes, says Dr. Alderson.

It hinges, he explains, on whether you know you have TB germs in your system If you don't know, you need the tuberculin skin test to find out.

If you know you do have them, you need the chest X-ray to see if they are doing any harm.

Once there, TB germs stay for life. In many people, however, they do no harm as long as the body's natural defenses work properly.

Thus, as long as an individual's yearly skin test gives him a clean bill of health, he needs no X-rays. But if the skin test ever shows a positive reaction, he should get an X-ray immediately to see whether the germs have brought disease. From then on, he should get X-rays yearly.

X-15 Rockets 3,545 MPH

EDWARDS AFB (AP) — Space agency pilot Milton Thompson flew 3,545 miles per hour in an X-15 rocket plane today on a multi-faceted research mission.

The craft was instrumented to check air flow around the nose, heating due to skin friction, boundary layer air flow and there was a special ablative paint on the lower speed brake.

Thompson was in the air seven minutes after being dropped from a bomber and climbed to 91,000 feet.

The first submarine to fly the Atlantic was Capt. Jacques-Yves Cousteau's two-man diving saucer. It was flown from France to California to carry scientists of the Scripps Institution down into sea canyons off La Jolla.

Bagley Looks At New Session

Legislature Convenes On Jan. 4

By WAT TAKESHITA

Reapportionment, new taxes, moratorium on bay filling, and increase in unemployment insurance benefits will be among the major items facing the State Legislature next year, in the opinion of Assemblyman William T. Bagley (R-San Rafael).

The 1965 Legislature convenes Jan. 4, in Sacramento.

An item that could directly affect Marin County is the apportionment of the 150 million dollars in bonds (Proposition 1) approved by voters on Nov. 3. A part of that money can be used to acquire land for the Golden Gate Headlands State Park.

Assemblyman Bagley said he is also considering legislation or appropriations to clean up spawning areas for fish in the north coastal streams.

One possibility would be to get enough appropriations to start "pilot projects" in each locality to improve spawning areas on an experimental basis.

However, on the Republican side, the position of House Minority Leader Charles J. Conrad (R-Sherman Oaks) appears to be shaky. Robert T. Monagan (R-Stockton), in his bid for minority leadership, has "13 firm votes out of 31," according to Bagley.

The San Rafael assemblyman sees a good chance for Monagan to wrest control from Conrad, because it takes only three more votes to give Monagan the edge.

Here are some of Bagley's observations on the various issues expected to come up during the 1965 Legislature:

Independent-Journal
SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY
THIRD SECTION Thurs., Dec. 10, 1964 37

REAPPORTIONMENT

Federal courts have ordered the reapportionment of state senates on a population basis.

"I'm not going to inject myself in the apportionment of the State Senate," said Assemblyman Bagley. "But it is entirely possible that congressional and Assembly districts may be reapportioned too."

Bagley's 7th Assembly District (Marin-Sonoma) has a population of 365,000 and Rep. Don H. Clausen's First Congressional District (Marin to Del Norte) has 605,000. Both are about double the average size of districts in California.

The 7th Assembly District is eight times larger in population than the 75th Assembly District (Imperial County). San Francisco, with a population of about 775,000, has five assemblymen, which means a population of 155,000 per assemblyman.

TAXES

Assemblyman Bagley predicted "a rash of tax increase proposals by the administration the likes of which we have never seen before." He said new tax proposals could total more than three million dollars.

"I would certainly accept reasonable reforms which shift the basis or burden of taxation, but I will not accept phony reforms which simply increase taxes in order to meet and pay for the inordinate increases that have taken place in some areas of governmental expenditure."

For example, Bagley declared that welfare costs in California in the last seven years increased 400 per cent more than the state's population increase. "There is simply no excuse for this huge increase and there is every reason to attempt cutbacks in this area before attempts are made to impose new taxes next year."

BAY FILL

The San Rafael legislator said the Legislature will probably adopt some form of moratorium on bay filling.

"The question is to define what we mean by tidelands and what we mean by filling," said Bagley. He added that one of the big problems is to abide by the due process clause in the Constitution — the idea that no one may be deprived of property without just compensation.

"Depriving a person the use of property is the same as taking property," said Bagley. "I will not support any bill that does not take care of the property rights of owners."

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE

Since there has been no increase in basic payments for unemployment insurance for the past several years, Bagley says he sees the logic behind the proposed raise.

But before unemployemnt insurance benefits are increased, Bagley sees the need to prevent abuses by recipients of unemployment benefits. He would like to see labor get together with management to cut down on abuses so that only the deserving get the benefits.

REFORMS

Assemblyman Bagley will also try again next year for several reforms he has championed in the past.

One of them is the elimination of appointed inheritance tax appraisers. At present, the state controller fills the jobs by political appointments.

If inheritance tax appraisers were put on civil service, or county assessors take over the job of inheritance tax appraising, the state could gain about 3.7 million dollars per year, Bagley contends.

A bill providing for study of the accessibility of public records is also expected to come up next year.

Bagley intends to re-introduce a bill on "election purity." Such a measure, introduced by Bagley during the last session, would have required all candidates to list contributions in excess of $75 and all individuals and organizations to list contributions of over $50.

"The issue is very simple," says Bagley. "Do we want hidden money in our campaigns, or do we want the people to know where the money comes from?"

LIFE TERM

At the present time, when a man is convicted of a capital crime, the judge or the jury must choose between the gas chamber and taking a chance on having the criminal roaming the streets again, Bagley explained. For example, a murderer who gets "life in prison" could be paroled in 10 years.

Bagley said he is thinking of proposing a new penalty — life in prison without any possibility of parole. A "life term" then would really be a life term.

SMOG DEVICES

As for transportation and car smog devices, Bagley pointed out that appropriate committees are now studying the problems, and he will await their reports before deciding on the next moves.

The Bay Area Transportation Study Commission of 37 members, headed by Albert W. Gatov of Kentfield, is making a comprehensive study of transportation problems like the second bay crossing.

Car smog devices are under study by the Assembly Committee on Governmental Efficiency, headed by Lester A. McMillan (D-Los Angeles).

FAIR HOUSING

Questioned as to what will happen to fair housing laws, now that Proposition 14 was approved last November, Bagley said that the Rumford Act could be rewritten.

Proposition 14 took the teeth out of the Rumford Act but did not eliminate the state agency, which was set up to mediate and conciliate, the assemblyman pointed out.

He suggested that the law could be re-written, eliminating those portions that were voted out by Proposition 14 and yet retaining the state agency to work in the field of conciliation.

Driver Fined $166

Richard B. Wilson Jr., 40, of 17 Keats Drive, Mill Valley, was fined $166 yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving. He was arrested Sept. 7 on Highway 101 by California Highway Patrol.

Parking Lot Opens Again For Drake High Students

By TINA PRESS
Drake News Bureau

The parking lot at Drake High School has been reopened to students for the morning break and noon.

Ending 15 days of restriction, Frank Mulholland, student self-government administrator, announced that full privileges will be restored.

"Keeping the parking lot closed proves nothing," Mulholland said. "Re-opening it gives the students the chance to prove they can assume responsibility."

Several factors led to the closing of the parking lot. Mulholland said food fights were the leading cause.

Smoking, fires in garbage cans, and insults cast at police officers also contributed to the decision to close the parking lot.

When the parking lot was first closed, Mulholland announced that the administration was working for a solution, but that action would have to come from the students. Various groups approached him with plans for correction, saying they would assume responsibility for student conduct.

This and a re-evaluation of student self-government led to the decision to re-open the parking lot.

Voters Approve Napa Unification

NAPA (AP)—Voters in the southern half of Napa County approved Tuesday unification of 12 elementary school districts and the Napa Union High School District. The vote was 3,042 to 2,402.

In the northern half, the St. Helena and Calistoga school districts already are unified. Unification will take effect next July.

Students Help Seals Campaign

Even though Easter is not until April, it must seem near to Mrs. Bruna Kastelic's advanced typing class at Redwood High School.

The students, during the past week, have addressed 9,000 envelopes to be sent to Marin County residents for the 1965 Easter Seal Society headquarters in San Rafael.

Volunteers at the San Rafael headquarters will then fill the envelopes with Easter Seals and envelopes to send contributions.

Marin United Fund Nominates Officers

Attorney S. J. Hugh Allen of 33 Culloden Park Road, San Rafael, has been nominated president of the Marin United Fund for 1965, it was announced today.

Allen, of the San Rafael law firm of Freitas, Allen, McCarthy and Bettini, will succeed Marin County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel of San Rafael.

Officers and board members of the Marin United Fund, an affiliate of the five-county United Bay Area Crusade, will be elected at the annual dinner meeting at 7 p.m. Tuesday at Peacock Gap and County Country Club. Presentation of awards for outstanding performance during the 1964 fund campaign and final report on the drive are scheduled.

Nominated for re-election to serve with Allen are George M. Henderson and Carroll Walker of San Rafael and Paul F. Kent of Terra Linda, vice presidents; and Arthur C. Latno Sr. of San Rafael, treasurer. Roger P. Garety of Greenbrae has been nominated to succeed Mrs. Esther M. Dearth of San Rafael, as secretary.

Nominated to serve as members-at-large of the executive committee of the fund are Rex T. Silvernale, Fred F. Enemark of San Rafael, Mrs. Robert Kettenback of Belvedere and Broemmel.

Named to fill vacancies on the board of directors are Mrs. E. Gould Ingram of Belvedere, Mrs. John Times of Marin City and Herbert Rupprecht of Terra Linda.

Directors to be re-elected are William M. Fleming of Mill Valley, Donald Kreps of Greenbrae; Burt Kirchner and Robert D. Carrow of Novato, Carroll A. Snyker of Ross and Mrs. George Alpers, Hugh Cassidy, Donald W. Chapman, Irving Chapman, Louis G. Freitas, Judge Joseph G. Wilson and Guido Todara, all of San Rafael.

'Messiah' Slated At Redwood High

Excerpts from Handel's "Messiah," performed by the Redwood High School choir, will be the high point of the Christmas program to be held Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Redwood gymnasium.

The choir, under the direction of Arthur Wigell, will sing six choruses from the "Messiah."

Free Speech Movement Student Defends Action

"Although I've been arrested and booked and the whole route, I feel great," Jerry Smith, spokesman for the University of California Free Speech Movement, told about 200 students and faculty members at the College of Marin yesterday.

Smith, a former College of Marin student, said he had been an indifferent bystander at the time of the October demonstrations on the Berkeley campus, but that "blunders" by the university administration had caused more and more students to enter the movement.

By last week, he said, frustrations had made him ready to participate in a sit-in in Sproul Hall on the campus, and he was one of the 801 arrested.

"We needed to act to get a rational discussion going," he contended. He said the administration had refused to discuss questions of right to advocate causes with student leaders except on terms dictated by the administration.

Now, he said, the faculty has come out strongly on the side of the students against the administration, and that move is a victory.

Smith spent most of an hour relating the events and positions taken during the last few months, trying to keep track of the various committees which had been formed to discuss and study disputes.

He carried the entire issue back to the 1930s, when the university regents first imposed restrictions on students' rights to advocate causes on campus.

But he said the immediate cause of conflict came from the publisher of the Oakland Tribune, William F. Knowland, who objected to pickets being recruited on campus for demonstrations at the Tribune building, and who earlier objected to having Scranton supporters recruited just before the Republican National Convention.

At the end of his talk, Smith proceeded to ask for donations, in return for "free speech" bumper strips, from a table set up on the lawn in front of Harlan Hall, on the campus. The speech was sponsored by the college's recently formed Satyagraha Club.

Yule Breakfast

Christmas breakfast of the Marin County Real Estate Board is scheduled for 8 a.m. Dec. 22 at Dominic's Restaurant, San Rafael.

School Glee Club Will Sing Tonight

The Glee Club of the Marin Country Day School will sing tonight at the San Francisco Symphony Foundation's invitational "Christmas Tree-T" party in San Francisco's Civic Auditorium.

Comprising the whole sixth, seventh and eighth grades of the school, the 120-voice choral group will give a 20-minute program and then lead the audience in Carols. R. Barrett Mineah of San Rafael will direct.

Israel, West German Relations Threatened

By JOHN DORNBERG

BONN (WPS)—In West Germany's numerous efforts to make amends for the Nazi regime, improving relations with Israel and world Jewry have played a major role—as evidenced by the payment to Israel of nearly one billion dollars in reparations.

Lately, however, the good relations so assiduously built have become seriously threatened. Israel and the Federal Republic are mired in a crisis of confidence. According to Prof. Carlo Schmid, vice speaker of the German Bundestag, relations between the two countries are on a declining trend.

The Israeli press has mirrored this deterioration by openly accusing Chancellor Ludwig Erhard of being two-faced. And some exasperated German politicians and officials charge, privately, that Israel is demanding too much in moral indemnification.

The touchy matter has lately sparked several heated debates in both the Bundestag and the Knesset (Israel's parliament). The opposition parties in both countries have used the crisis as political ammunition. Here in Germany, the opposition Social Democrats (SPD) have named as one of their main planks the improvement of relations with Israel.

That matters are not much worse is due primarily to the cool-headedness of some parliamentarians in both houses.

1. The German scientists who are in Egypt helping President Gamal Abdel Nasser build jet planes and rockets.

2. The statute of limitations on Nazi murderers which takes effect on May 8, 1965, after which some Hitler criminals will be immune from prosecution.

3. German foot-dragging on indemnification payments to those victims of Nazism who lived in Eastern Europe and did not flee their homelands until after October, 1953.

4. The overall question of formal diplomatic relations between Israel and West Germany.

Israel has been demanding that Bonn take steps to force the German scientists and rocketeers to leave Egypt ever since news of their activities became public a year and a half ago.

The Bonn Government, while proclaiming that it disapproved of Germans helping Egypt to build weapons against Israel, found it impossible to take effective steps. A bill that would have deprived the rocketeers of their passports and citizenship was voted down as unconstitutional.

An alternative measure which would impose fines and jail sentences on German scientists who work on weapons of destruction in Egypt is now under consideration by the Bundestag. Though it is assured of passage it will not force the rocketeers to return to the country and the fines and imprisonment terms apply only when and if they do return.

Israel has accused West Germany of giving only lip service to the matter. But in fact the Bonn government has done more. It has tried to hire the scientists away from Egypt by lucrative offers at home. The project, still in its embryonic stages, has met no public acclaim in Israel, however.

The issue is complicated by the fact that Egypt and the Arab countries have threatened diplomatic retaliation against Bonn if steps to force the withdrawal of the scientists are undertaken.

Any ex-Nazi, against whom charges have not been filed nor an investigation launched, is immune from prosecution once the statute of limitations takes effect next May.

German officials such as Erwin Schuele, director of the Central Registry Office for the Investigation of Nazi Crimes, say it is unlikely that any new cases will arise after that date.

He emphasizes that even men who have not yet been found are legally under indictment or investigation and thus not immune from prosecution.

Chancellor Erhard said recently that he personally favored an extension of the statute for murder but admitted that this is unlikely to come about because it would require enactment of a law, and such a law stands no chance of passage.

The third issue has money at its roots. Under present indemnification laws, West Germany has already paid five billion dollars to victims of the Nazi regime. Excluded, however, are 100,000 persecutees from East European countries who fled to the West after October 1, 1953—the cut-off date on the present legislation.

Persecutee groups have demanded revision of the law to enable these people to file compensation claims. The Erhard government, pleading budget and financial troubles, wants to make available only an emergency fund of 150 million dollars, to cover such cases. This, argue the persecutees, would be only $1,500 per person and not enough.

For Bonn the issue is compounded by political desires to cut taxes before the 1965 elections and by the knowledge that indemnification payments are already very unpopular.

West Germany is afraid to take that step because the Arab countries would retaliate by recognizing East Germany, and that is a price the Bonn Government cannot and will not pay.

In an effort to improve the worsening Israeli-Bonn relations. Chancellor Erhard will probably meet soon with Israeli Prime Minister Levi Eshkol in a neutral, third country such as Switzerland.

But political observers in Bonn doubt this will do more than smooth ruffled feathers temporarily. Tangible results cannot be expected. And so long as there are none, the impasse will remain as political tinder in both countries, undoing the reconciliation registered since the war.

Rare 'Siamese Twin' Stars Discovered In Our Galaxy

By GENE BYLINSKY
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON — Astronomical detectives have discovered a curious "Siamese Twin" star —two whirling suns connected by luminuous bridge of hydrogen gas.

The object, located in our galaxy, is known as Nova Sagittae. Normally very faint, it attracted attention by briefly flaring to 2,000 times its regular brightness in 1913 and again in 1946.

It was thought to be a single star until its true nature was revealed through complex measurements made by Dr. Robert Kraft of Mount Wilson and Palomar observatories in California and Dr. W. Krzeminski of the Polish Astronomical Institute. Krzeminski until recently was a visiting astronomer at Lowell Observatory in Flagstaff, Ariz.

They found that Nova Sagittae is a relatively rare binary, or is a relatively rare binary, or double star, with gas flowing from the larger of the pair. The gas glows a dull red, forming a fluorescent ring about the much smaller, very condensed companion, a type of star called a "white dwarf."

The ring appears somewhat like the band of tiny ice particles around the planet Saturn. Part of the material, rich in hydrogen, probably falls occasionally onto the smaller star and becomes ignited. This causes the flareups that have been observed.

Nova Sagittae measures less than half the diameter of our sun. The larger, less massive star, "barely a star," according to Dr. Kraft, is about the diameter of Jupiter — 85,000 miles. Its white dwarf companion, 15,000 miles in diameter, is about 150,000 miles away, or closer than the moon is to earth.

Because the dwarf contains more material, it has a greater gravitational pull than its companion. As a result, hydrogen rushes in a stream from the larger star to continually feed the luminous ring around the dwarf.

Of great interest to astronomers is the fact that the two stars revolve about a common center so fast — once every 81.5 minutes—that they should radiate gravitational waves theorized by Einstein, if such waves exist. Because the white dwarf is much denser, the common center about which the two stars revolve is much nearer to the dwarf. This forces the larger star to zoom around at the fantastic speed of one million miles an hour, while the dwarf revolves at about 50,000 miles an hour.

The revolution of the two stars is the fastest known in astronomy, and it increases the possibility of detecting gravitational waves, Dr. Kraft said in an interview.

But the gravitation generated by the strange star system would be difficult to detect on earth. To produce readily observable gravitational waves the stars would have to be much more massive. "If they were a pair of neutron stars (dense, dying suns), the one in front would bend the light from the other star like a gravitational lens," Dr. Kraft said.

No such visible bending of the waves is produced by the Nova Sagittate system. But scientists will hope to detect gravitational waves if they are being generated by the two stars.

"Theoretically, the proposed emission of gravitational waves eventually should lead to a shortening of Nova Sagittae's rotation period," Dr. Kraft said. "If such a shortening should be observed over the next few decades, then this would be proof that gravitational waves really do exist.

"Such waves would not weaken the force of gravity linking the two stars, but would carry away energy, and eventually the two stars would collapse into each other."

No one can predict this with certainty, Dr. Kraft said, because as mass is being transferred from the larger to the smaller star, the rotation period may lengthen instead of becoming shorter. This would completely mask emission of gravitational waves. The waves' existence would not only prove Einstein right but it would also shed new light on the life and death of the stars.

Astronomers began to unravel the nature of Nova Sagittae seven years ago when Dr. Jesse Greenstein, a California Institue of Technology astrophysicist, found that the system contained a white dwarf star. In 1961, Dr. Kraft established that there are actually two stars.

Drs. Kraft and Krzeminski, employing a technique called photometry, measured the amount and variations of the system's light emission over a period of time. Using spectroscopy they sorted out the light into various wavelengths so that Nova Sagittate's light brightened and dimmed twice every 81.5 minutes.

It remained for the two astronomers to resolve some paradoxical data which seemed to indicate that the two stars were almost equally bright. Dr. Kraft observed the system spectroscopically though the 200-inch mirror at Mount Palomar while at exactly the same time Dr. Krzeminski took photometric measurements at Lowell Observatory.

These observations convinced the two scientists that they were looking at an unusual binary star system linked by a fluorescent gas stream. The almost equal brilliance during the two eclipses was explained by the larger, speedier star alternately covering and revealing parts of the glowing bridge, and of the ring around the smaller star.

Bats In Her Dining Room

She operates the Snowball Dining Room in Mammoth Cave—267 feet below the earth's surface.

"National Park rules don't allow us to harm the crickets or bats," she explained. "Once they migrate in, they like it so well they stay. They all seem to know it."

Mrs. Scott can keep only two days supply of food in her underground kitchen.

Telephone calls from guides bringing parties into the cave help alert the staff in preparing the meals. The dining room has served more than 1,400 in a single day.

Personal Incomes Up In California

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Personal income of Californians totaled $56,592,000,000 at an annual rate during the July-September quarter—up four billion dollars or 7 per cent from the same time a year ago.

The State Department of Finance, which released the figure, said California—with 11.4 per cent of the nation's income —accounted for 14.2 per cent of the increase in personal income reported for the nation during the period.

How Russian Spies Operate In London

By JOSEPH GLADSTONE

LONDON (WPS)—A presumed American tourist stops an Englishman in the street to ask directions—and another spy may be in the making. For the man is not an American, and he is not a tourist. He is part of the giant Russian spy network.

One of the ways the Soviet machine works is with operators trained to speak, dress and act like Americans visiting Britain. Starting on a casual, social basis, they work up to "friendship" with the Englishman—or woman. Only after this has been achieved do they go to work, gradually revealing their true identity and purpose. They try to get at Britishers by posing as Americans even in Moscow.

They used this technique to try to blackmail a British Foreign Office security guard there into letting them photograph the contents of British diplomatic bags carried between Moscow and Berlin.

They had something on the guard; he had been detected smuggling small gifts into Moscow. So the Russians offered him $10,000 in cash to look the other way while they borrowed the diplomatic bags. (Instead, he went to see his seniors at the British Embassy, and was hurriedly sent back to London.)

This method has been set forth, along with others, in a handbook on the art of Russian spying which is now being circulated to senior English civil servants, scientists and others with access to secret information.

The document, prepared under the direction of Britain's anti-spy organization, stresses that despite periodic easing of relations between Russia and the Free World, the spy war goes on.

It warns bluntly that even during Khrushchev's latter "co-existence" years there was no decrease of activities by the "biggest spy machine for the garnering of secret information which the world has ever seen."

An army of highly paid "spy masters," operating in Russia and abroad, is controlled from "The Center" in Moscow. Here in Britain the Center directs two types of spy network: "The legal apparatus" and "the illegal apparatus."

The legal apparatus is controlled by a spy master who is an official member of the staff of the Soviet Embassy in London. In coded messages he is known as "The Resident." He uses the round of diplomatic parties, receptions and visits to cultivate contacts, and he uses the diplomatic bag and Embassy radio for sending out his information. When he is detected, the only punishment he can get is to be deported because he has diplomatic immunity.

It seems to be part of this game for the British government to demand the withdrawal of some member of the Soviet Embassy staff periodically, in the belief, or hope, that he may be "The Resident."

The illegal apparatus is directed by lone-wolf spy masters who are forbidden to make any contact with the Russian Embassy or any other Soviet organization. They are professional spies operating small networks and using secret transmitters, couriers, and other under-cover methods. If caught, these men can be jailed.

Both types of spy master depend largely on information about likely contacts supplied by "The Center," which has a vast card index built up from reports sent in by "talent spotters."

These are Russian officials and other Communist officials and agents such as party members and Britishers who work for the Russians. They send in reports about the character and financial position of people who might be recruited to spy for money or political motives, or who might be forced into the net by blackmail.

After the spade work by talent spotters, the spy master makes the individual approach. This is usually staged as a chance encounter at a party, in a pub, at a football match or in the street.

After developing the relationship, "the quarry" is induced to accept hospitality — and money, if possible. Then the attempt to secure secrets is made.

The entire process may take years, but all the while the spy master is reporting the quarry's weaknesses to "The Center."

If bribery fails, spy masters may resort to brutality. This technique is applied particularly to refugees in Britain from countries behind the Iron Curtain.

The handbook reveals that on several occasions British police have had to take action against Russians who were bullying and intimidating refugees, to secure information. Many such attacks have been traced back to Russian diplomatic sources. Even more violent crimes have been listed in British records as "unsolved," but the police have a good idea of their perpetrators.

British journalists, with experience on the diplomatic cocktail party beat, can detect such Red approaches very quickly. But it seems that Britishers with access to official secrets are more naive.

Hence the handbook on Russian spying, with its admonition that when walking down a London street and a seeming American tourist approaches, one should make certain that he is the genuine product and not a "made in Moscow" facsimile.

Woman Tells Go-Between Role In Case

SAN FRANCISCO—A woman witness in the trial of Dr. Robert K. Corbett, brother of the late Donald J. Corbett Jr. of Sausalito, testified in San Francisco yesterday that she asked Dr. Corbet to the home of Lupe Alice Estrada in 1963, where he allegedly attempted an abortion.

Mrs. Noela Fowler, Carmel kindergarten teacher, said she want to leave but "Alice asked me to stay because she didn't know whether he (Corbett) would try to kill her or not. Miss Estrada claims that Corbett was father of the child.

Testifying about a trip she said she had made to the doctor's home, Mrs. Fowler said she told Corbett that "Alice was ready to jump off the bridge" but Corbett said "I'm having dinner." Later that night, however, he went to see Miss Estrada and asked her to go to Tijuana for an abortion but she said she'd prefer that Corbett operate, Mrs. Fowler testified.

Dr. Corbett has termed Miss Estrada's story "fanciful and false."

Girls Get Offer For Their Hippo

The girls felt sorry for Betsy, a 4,000-pound hippopotamus that was being auctioned off by the New York City Department of Purchase. They won the animal with a $400 bid and then didn't know what to do with it.

Wilson Fry, a Texas drilling contractor, wired the girls that he would pay $400 plus transportation costs to ship the animal to Harlingen, Tex., for a proposed zoological garden project there.

On Monday, the 28th day of December, 1964, at the hour of 11:00 o'clock a.m., in the lobby inside the Lincoln Avenue entrance to the Title Insurance and Trust Company, being the building located at the Northeast corner of Lincoln Avenue and Mission Street, in the City of San Rafael, County of Marin, State of California, TITLE INSURANCE AND TRUST COMPANY, a corporation, as trustee, will sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash, in lawful money of the United States, all payable at the time of sale, the following described real property, situated in the City of San Rafael, County of Marin, State of California, and described as follows, to-wit:

LOT 3, as shown upon that certain map entitled, "Map of White Oaks, Unit Two, San Rafael, California", filed November 24, 1961 in Book 11 of Maps at page 3, Marin County Records.

Said sale will be made, without covenant or warranty regarding title, possession or encumbrances, to satisfy the obligations secured by and pursuant to the power of sale conferred in a certain deed of trust executed by RONALD S. FREEZE and ANN FREEZE, his wife, as trustor to TITLE INSURANCE AND TRUST COMPANY, a corporation, as trustee, for the benefit and security of WHITE OAKS, a limited partnership, dated August 6, 1963 and recorded August 9, 1963 in the office of the Recorder of the County of Marin, State of California, in Book 1714 of Official Records, page 140.

Dated: December 3, 1964.

CHRISTMAS FOR ESKIMOS

Unusual Christmas Decor Is Planned

Novato will for the fifth successive year display "luminarios" (paper bag lights) in accordance with an old Spanish custom.

Through efforts of the Peacock Gap Garden Club and the Peacock Gap Home Owners' Assn., hurricane candles will be displayed before homes in an effect to be called "Peacock Gap Aglow" from next Wednesday through Dec. 27, starting at 6 p.m. nightly.

A 20-foot Christmas tree will be mounted on an island in the lagoon. There will be a home-decorating contest with prizes of $100, $50 and $25 donated by the Draper Companies.

Novato's display started with six participants in its first year, enlarging until last year whole blocks had the unusual little decorations, lighted at 7 p.m. Christmas and New Year Eves.

This year the Novato Chamber of Commerce is handling the luminarios information and campaign, hoping for a spread to the entire city.

The custom of lighting luminarios began in Spain, spreading to Mexico, then to Texas and New Mexico. It was brought to Novato by service people who found the custom charming.

Making the brown paper lights is simple. One takes brown paper lunch bags and puts sand in the bottom. The collar of the bag is folded down about one inch to keep it open. A six or seven-inch candle is anchored in the sand. The bags are placed at three-foot intervals and are allowed to burn out.

Candle stores throughout Marin County have cooperated with residents of Novato for the past few years in obtaining a large supply of cheap "seconds" in candles.

En Route To U. S.

Navy Lt. (jg) John N. Hartman, son of Dr. and Mrs. Rodney B. Hartman of 38 Bigelow Avenue, Mill Valley, is en route to the United States aboard the gasoline tanker Elkhorn after completing a tour of duty with the Seventh Fleet in the Far East.

Jailed As Red

MADRID (UPI)—The Spanish government announced yesterday that the son of Air Minister Jose Lacalle has been sentenced to eight years in prison for Communist activities. Jose Daniel Lacalle, 24, was arrested with 12 other suspected Communists last April. He also was fined $1,666.

Ex-Deputy Sued For $150,000

Former Marin Deputy Sheriff George Johnson, whose firing for use of force during a Jan. 28 arrest was upheld Monday, is being sued for $150,000.

The suit was filed Thursday in Marin Superior Court by Charles M. Farmer, 30 a painter now living in Stockton, who alleges Johnson and other officers used excessive force in arresting him.

He claims he suffered severe injury of the left eye, cuts and bruises of the body, and suffered mental anguish and general shock in the arrest. He asks $50,000 general and $100,000 punitive damages.

Co-defendents are Deputies Edwin McKamey, William Bradford and Richard Keaton, Sheriff Louis Mountanos, San Rafael police officers Phil Green and Art Meyers, chief of police Charles Chiesa, and Marin County and the City of San Rafael.

Johnson was discharged by Sheriff Mountanos last Feburary following the arrest of Farmer. He appealed the dismissal to the board of supervisors, but lost Monday by a 2-1 vote.

National Guardsmen Due Airlift To N.Y.

SACRAMENTO (AP)—California Army national guardsmen will fly to New York for summer training in 1965, Adjutant Gen. Roderic L. Hill said yesterday.

The operation, to be known as "Guardlift II," will involve Air National Guard units flying the Army guardsmen to Camp Drum, N.Y.

Units involved will be the First Brigade of the 40th Armored Division from the Long Beach-Los Angeles area and the Second Brigade, 49th Infantry Division from the San Jose, San Francisco area.

The troops will be flown by the 146th Air Transport Wing from Van Nuys.

Hill said some troops were airlifted to Hawaii in a similar operation, "Guardlift I," during the past summer.

...CARLOADS OF RCA WHIRLPOOL SUPREME 70 AUTOMATIC WASHERS...

Powerful! Superwash ...the special cycle that pre-washes automatically...you don't have to bother with resetting the washer or adding detergent. And there are three more cycles...and two washing speeds...to wash everything in your laundry basket just right.

Wash 'N Wear Care ...wash water is drained away intermittently and cold rinse water is added, to cool clothes while they are still in suspension. Helps prevent spin-set wrinkles.

2 Washing Speeds ...choose NORMAL, for the vigorous "scrubbing" needed to get sturdy, regular fabrics clean, or GENTLE, with slower agitation, to coax soil from fragile fabrics and garments.

Magic-Mix Filter ...hundreds of nylon "fingers" constantly "comb" wash and rinse waters in every cycle, to capture and hold objectionable lint and fuzz. Works on both full and partial loads.

Plus 3 Push Button Water Temp. selector...3 level water selector...exclusive "Surgelator" to scrub out deep-down dirt... choice of White, Edged Copper, Yellow, Turquoise and Pink Deluxe console models.

PETERSON & GREENE

Belvedere Lagoon
One of the truly fine spots for luxury living—3 bedrooms, 2 baths, large living room with corner fireplace, cozy kitchen includes range, dishwasher and garbage disposal, lots of storage, low maintenance. Boating or swimming all year round. Owner transferred, so this home is listed for the first time ever. A very low price for this area. Asking $55,950. Look alive, be alive and live where life is fun on the Belvedere Lagoon. Excellent financing of course.

Never Lived In
This fine 3 bedroom home is top dollar value in construction, convenience and livability. The kitchen is the newest of new, both functional and beautiful. A lovely, large living room with fireplace and a fun family room with a built-in BBQ. Master bedroom has a private bath and 3 separate closets. 2 other large bedrooms take care of the rest of the family. A separate entry hall and a 2 car plus garage. Shaded by a beautiful oak tree, and what a great level back yard. A large back porch and a completely level lot. Asking $43,500.

Men Like Construction
Ladies like comfort, ease of maintenance, both like the prestige of a fine home in a good neighborhood. Here's one you'll like spring, summer fall or winter. 3 bedrooms, 2 baths, extra large living room with corner fireplace, elec. kitchen and spacious family room with BBQ. Only $39,950, and worth it.

Finders Keepers
Anyone looking for a 2 bedroom Morningside Court home? Here you can have the luxury of a separate dining room and also a separate breakfast room! You'll live the level lot with its abundance of fruit trees — the location for its closeness to everything—and most especially the price—only $24,950.

So Low Down
This is a lot of almost new home for a price you can afford. 4 or 5 bedrooms. Existing G.I. loan can be assumed by anyone. Only two years old and a real nice place to raise a family. Dead-end street for peace and quiet and only two blocks to downtown. Hdwd. floors, double garage, nice level yard and acres of play area next door. Very nice neighborhood. That's right—$24,500 asking.

NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL PROPERTY AT PRIVATE SALE
No. 14357

In the Matter of the Estate of PAULINA DE GOTTARDI, Deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on or after January 5, 1965, the undersigned LUCY BARRETT, as Executrix of the Will of PAULINA DE GOTTARDI, will sell at private sale to the highest bidder, subject to confirmation by the above-entitled Court, all the right, title, interest and estate of the decedent at the time of her death and all the right, title, and interest the estate has, by operation of law or otherwise, acquired other than or in addition to that of the decedent at the time of her death, in and to that certain real property located in the County of Marin, State of California, described as follows:

PARCEL ONE:

Being a portion of the Rancho Nicasio and bounded and described as follows:

Bounded on the Southwest by the patent line of said Rancho meandering along the Beach of Tomales Bay, on the Northwest by the lands conveyed by James Miller to Louis Tomasini and Mathew Tomasini by deed dated October 10, 1881 and recorded in E, of Deeds at page 343, on the Northeast by the lands conveyed by Nellie I. Miller et al to George Woodley by deed dated October 12, 1899 and recorded October 13, 1899 in 57 of Deeds at page 316, and by the lands conveyed by Nellie I. Miller et al, to Joseph Silacci by deed in 89 of Deeds at page 292, and on the Southeast by the lands conveyed by James Miller to Aquiline Righetti and Giacomo Tognazzini by deed in W of Deeds at page 245.

EXCEPTING THEREFROM AND THEREOUT that portion deeded to Oscar Johansson and Edward Johansson by deed recorded October 15, 1958 in Liber 1226 of Official Records at page 81 Marin County Records, more particularly described as follows:

COMMENCING at an angle point in the Easterly line of Tide Land Location No. 1 in Township 3 North Range 9 West, M. D. B. & M. on the east shore of Tomales Bay, as patented by the State of California to S. P. Taylor by patent recorded in Book A of Patents, page 404, Marin County Records, said angle point being common to the courses of "South 5° 30' East 8.50 chains and South 52° 15' West 4.00 chains", as said courses are shown in survey of said Location No. 1 on file in the office of the County Surveyor of Marin County and running thence North 52° 15' East 300 feet, more or less, to the Westerly line of the State Highway Route #1, (formerly the County Road from Point Reyes to Tomales), thence Northerly and following the meanderings of said highway 1900 feet, more or less, to the Northwesterly line of parcel of land described in the Deed from Teresa S. Miller, et al, to Innociente De Gottardi recorded February 19, 1923 in Liber 15 of Official Records at page 133, Marin County Records, thence Southwesterly along said Northwesterly line 300 feet, more or less, to the Easterly line of said Tide Land location, No. 1 and thence Southerly along said Easterly line 2,200 feet, more or less, to the point of beginning.

PARCEL TWO:

COMMENCING at an angle point in the Westerly line of Tide Land Location No. 2 in Township 3 North Range 9 West M. D. B. & M. on the East shore of Tomales Bay as Patented by the State of California to S. P. Taylor by Patent recorded in Book A of Patents, page 404, Marin County Records, said angle point being common to the courses of "North 22° 15' East 4.20 chains and North 25° 45' West 11.40 chains" as said courses are shown in Survey of said Location No. 2 on file in the office of the County Surveyor of Marin County and running thence Northerly, Westerly and Northerly along said Westerly line of said Location No. 2 and along the Westerly line of Location No. 1, as conveyed by said Patent to S. P. Taylor above mentioned, a distance of 5,800 feet, more or less, to a point which bears South 52° 15' West from an angle point in the Easterly line of Tide Land Location No. 1 which angle point is common to the courses of "South 5° 30' East 8.50 chains and South 52° 15' West 4.00 chains", as set forth in the Survey of said Location No. 1 on file in the office of the County Surveyor of the County of Marin, thence North 52° 15' East across said location No. 1, 120 feet, more or less, to the Easterly line of Location No. 1, said Easterly line also being the Westerly line of that portion of the Rancho Nicasio conveyed by Teresa S. Miller, et al, to Innociente De Gottardi by deed recorded February 19, 1923 in Liber 15 of Official Records at page 133, Marin County Records, running thence Southerly, Easterly and Southerly along the line between said tide land locations No. 1 and 2, and that portion of the Rancho Nicasio so conveyed to De Gottardi a distance of 6.540 feet, more or less, to a point on the Northwesterly line of that portion of the Rancho Nicasio conveyed by deed from Perseo Righetti, et al, to D. Bondietti, recorded October 3, 1914 in Liber 164 of Deeds, at page 27, Marin County Records, thence Southwesterly along the line between said Tide Land Location No. 2 and that portion of the Rancho Nicasio so conveyed to Bondietti a distance of 1,740 feet, more or less, to a point that is due East of the point of commencement and thence due West across said Tide Land Location No. 2, a distance of 75 feet, more or less, to the point of commencement.

Subject to: current taxes, covenants, conditions, restrictions, reservations, rights-of-way, easements, and encumbrances of record.

Bids or offers are invited for the property and must be in writing and may be delivered to the Executrix or the office of her attorneys, MYERS, PRAETZEL and PIERCE, 404 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo, California, or may be filed in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court at any time after the first publication of this notice and before the making of the sale.

Terms and conditions of sale: Cash in lawful money of the United States of America; ten percent (10%) of the amount bid to accompany the offer and the balance to be paid upon confirmation of sale by the Superior Court. Taxes, rents, operating and maintenance expenses and premiums on insurance acceptable to the purchaser shall be prorated as of the date of confirmation of sale. The examination of title, recording of conveyance, and any title insurance policy shall be at the expense of the purchaser or purchasers.

Bids must be sealed and will be opened at the office of MYERS, PRAETZEL and PIERCE at the hour of 10:00 o'clock a.m. of the above date.

Jazz To Be Topic For Discussion

A noted jazz columnist and a well-known musician will discuss what Stinson Beach's Atheneum Arts Foundation can do to help promote jazz in a discussion 2 p.m. Sunday at 2350 Webster Street, San Francisco.

Columnist Ralph J. Gleason of the San Francisco Chronicle will join with pianist Vince Guaraldi in "The Jazz Artist in the Atheneum," billed as the foundation's second seminar on the arts. Foundation jazz director Gerry Olds will be moderator.

Port Office Captain

Boatswain's Mate 3/c David R. Nowlan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Nowlan of 131 Santa Rosa Avenue, Sausalito, is serving at the Coast Guard captain of the port office, San Francisco.

The first hospital founded in the Americas was the hospital of the Immaculate Conception, erected in Mexico City in 1524 by the Spanish conqueror Hernando Cortez. The hospital's name was changed in 1663 to the Hospital of Jesus of Nazareth.

Holiday Plan For Army Recruits

Holiday fun for Army recruits is being taken into account as the Army Recruiting Station at 819 A Street, San Rafael, offers 67 guaranteed Bay Area assignments for men as well as jobs for women high school graduates.

Young men enlisting this month may stay at home for Christmas and New Years while receiving full pay and allowances, said the announcement regarding male assignments open.

Similarly it was said that young women enlisting this month need not leave for training until Dec. 30. Work for women is open in the fields of computers, dental assistance, medical work, stenography and electronics. Those qualifying will be guaranteed their choice of schooling prior to enlistment, the announcement said.

Sailor Promoted

Navy Disbursing Clerk 3/c Terry L. Rosenthal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kurt L. Rosenthal of 6 Glen Park Avenue, San Rafael, was promoted to his present rate while serving with the staff of commander, Attack Carrier Air Wing aboard the attack aircraft carrier Ranger, presently deployed to the Far East.

'Santa' Ready For Trip To Mississippi

Next time you drive through Forest Knolls, look for Santa's elves.

If you think they aren't there, you are mistaken.

At first glance, they may look like ordinary people. But to boys and girls of Indianola, Miss., Forest Knolls will be the North Pole this year, a rental trailer will be Santa Claus' sleigh, and a 21-year-old Negro Freedom Fighter will take the place of the jolly old saint himself.

TO LEAVE MONDAY

"Santa," who is unruffled by his lack of resemblance to the fat bewhiskered old gentleman in the pictures, is scheduled to leave Monday with more than 1,000 gifts for youngsters in his home town.

His real name is Willie L. Clay. A student at College of Marin, Clay came to Marin with fellow Freedom Fighter Fred B. Winn of Sausalito, who worked with him in the Freedom School in Indianola.

Several weeks ago, Clay appeared at a forum on racial issues in the San Geronimo Valley. And that is where the "elves" came in.

A REAL CHRISTMAS

At that meeting, he mentioned that he would like to provide the young folk in his home town with a real Christmas for once in their lives. His remarks triggered a quick and enthusiastic response from residents of the area, and the drive centered itself in Forest Knolls.

One of those heading the drive was Mrs. Alva d'Orgeix of Forest Knolls, who reported that Clay finally had to call a halt to the donations because he was afraid he would have more gifts than he could transport to Mississippi.

In addition to toys and household goods, the collection includes several boxes of text books, reference works and story books.

The drive also has raised $200 to defray costs of transporting the gifts. Nationwide Truck and Trailer Rentals of San Rafael has offered a trailer, so some of this money may go to buy sports equipment for Indianola teenagers.

Clay, who lives in Ross, will be accompanied by Johnny Quinn of Fairfax on his trip to Mississippi.

Ceramics Exhibit

Ferrario Ceramics in Mill Valley will have an exhibit this weekend at the Garden tSudio, 102 East Blithedale Avenue. Hours are 8 to 10 p.m., tomorrow and 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Saturday and Sunday. Louis Ferrario is former head of the ceramics department, San Francisco State College.

TELEVISION REVIEW

British Still Mine Entertainment Vein

By RICK du BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Not too many years ago, before high society ran afoul of history, it was comon for phony European royalty to come to these shores and exploit the rich vein of America's cultural inferiority complex. The ladies' clubs were titillated, the society pages were as colorful as the front pages, and over-all it was a pretty good racket for two-bit dukes.

Well, we all know that time marches on. Last night, for instance, Arthur Treacher, who used to be famous for playing English butlers in the movies, turned up as a butler on CBS-TV's "The Beverly Hillbillies," an indication of how American culture has triumphed in the long run. But, far more important, if ever a series of events could alter a mass public impression of a nation's tone, it has been the appearances this year on television of a number of motley, foppish British musical groups who grunt and twang and get paid for it. The motherland will never be able to count on the American inferiority complex again.

This is not to say, of course, that the British have lost their superb knack for being able to impress the notion that they are vastly important to whomever they want to do business with for their own profit.

It is a gentleman's knack, but on U.S. video it has found shape by influencing the creation of such series as ABC-TV's "Shindig," which has been guided by an Englishman and is awful beyond words in terms of music. In addition, a new NBC-TV series called "Hullabaloo," which will have its debut as a weekly one-hour entry Jan. 12, will present a segment on each program guided by British pop music impresario Brian Epstein.

Furthermore, such CBS-TV series as the Red Skelton and Ed Sullivan shows have been giving considerable play to British popsters. The new incentive to book these groups came after Sullivan had the shrewd business insight to showcase the Beatles live in New York a while back, and drew immense audiences and ratings. A London dispatch in Variety, the show business weekly, says: "The wave of interest American TV-ers have shown in British pop performers since the Beatles racked up that 73 million audience for Ed Sullivan seems to be increasing to such an extent that they are now coming over here to film them as opposed to waiting until the popsters hit the U.S."

It may be that America will always have a rich vein to exploit, which proves that free enterprise is usually there to those who would find it, or maybe only that there will always be a good racket for phony royalty.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Kate Smith will be a guest on Jack Paar's NBC-TV Christmas Day show . . . same network has a 90-minute special Jan. 5 tracing events leading to the decision to drop the first atom bomb on Japan two decades ago . . . actress Jean Arthur is scheduled to end a decade-old retirement by apparing in a segment of CBS-TV's "Gunsmoke" as the mother of a wanted gunman who is hiding out.

Braceros Hearing Closes

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The U.S. Department of Labor today closed its hearing into the question of importing Mexican agricultural workers after Jan. 1 when the present treaty with Mexico on farm labor expires.

Louis Goldblatt, of Mill Valley, secretary-treasurer of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's union, the last witness, accused the department of undercutting what he called the only successful farm labor program in the United States, by allowing importation of foreign workers.

Goldblatt said that Hawaii sugar plantation workers and all field labor is paid $2.48 an hour, including fringe benefits, as contrasted with $1.15 an hour paid workers in mainland sugar beet fields.

The decision on the question will be received by W. Willard Wirtz, secretary of labor, after he receives the recommendations of Clifford Grant, chief hearing examiner, who presided at the three-day hearing.

Earlier today a legal adviser to the labor secretary denied published reports that an order permitting importation of Mexicans already had been decided upon.

College Choir On TV Show

The Dominican College courtyard in San Rafael will become a television sound stage Saturday evening for the taping of a half-hour carol-singing special for KPIX-TV by the Dominican College Choir.

The 130-voice choir under the direction of Mrs. Winifred Baker of San Rafael will perform Benjamin Britten's medieval Christmas pageant, "A Ceremony of Carols." The taping will take from 5 to 8 p.m. and the resultant half-hour tape will be broadcast Dec. 23 at 8 p.m.

KPIX-TV says that all its remote facilities will be used in the production of the special. It is being produced at night to heighten the dramatic effect of the courtyard, reminiscent of English architecture of the Middle Ages.

Motorist Is Suing Over Anti-Smog Device Damage

A Burlingame motorist is filing a lawsuit in San Francisco on grounds that a crankcase device (auto smog control device) seriously damaged the engine of his 1958 car, according to Lester E. Jennings of Corte Madera, co-ordinator of the Citizens for Sensible Smog Suppression.

Jennings said he received a letter from Hugh N. Orr, San Francisco attorney, representing Claude D. Carlock, a transportation engineer living in Burlingame.

Carlock seeks damages from Midas Muffler Shop in San Francisco, which installed a smog device on his car in February.

Carlock contends that his car was operating faultlessly at the time. Soon after the crankcase device was installed, Carlock alleges that the engine suddenly became noisy, and three quarts of oil were consumed in 80 miles.

Carlock alleges that the smog device was not suitable for his car and caused engine damage that required more than $300 to repair.

He and his attorney contend that "it is unjust to require owners of pre-1961 models to risk damage to the engine in order to comply with the law."

They seek the San Francisco Municipal Court to find that shops which install the devices are responsible for damage resulting from improper selection of smog devices or improper installation.

New Indictment In Sinatra Case

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A new, 148-page indictment has been brought against two attorneys who defended two men convicted of kidnaping Frank Sinatra Jr. a year ago.

Gladys Towles Root and George A. Forde were indicted earlier but the charges were dismissed by a federal judge who said the indictment didn't state particulars of the alleged offenses.

Both indictments, brought by federal grand juries, charged conspiracy, suborning of perjury and obstruction of justice. Mrs. Root and Forde have steadfastly denied any wrongdoing.
